ENGLAND ASSISTS BELGIAN REFUGEES

Committee Declines Many of the Offers of Help Which Pour In.

By Associated Press.

LONDON, Sept. 29.—England has come to the relief of the stricken Belgian refugees with such spontaneous munificence that the refugees committee has been forced to decline many of the offers of shelter. The authority for this statement is Lord Gladstone, former governor-general of South Africa, who is now a leader in the committee work.

Six thousand Belgians have already been placed in private homes, while 3000 are in the London depots awaiting distribution. Five hundred came in yesterday and some 3000 others are scattered in lodging and boarding-houses, for whose keep the government has assumed the responsibility.

Twelve local committees are engaged in the refugee work, and additional committees are being formed in various parts of Great Britain. Up to date offers from 100,000 persons to care for the refugees have been received, and the committee found it necessary to issue a circular saying it had a superfluity of offers. The great bulk of such offers prefer to take in women and children.

For a time the tide of refugees arriving in Great Britain reached as high as 4000 daily. How many will arrive hereafter depends upon eventualities in Belgium. Seventy tons of clothing and other supplies have been donated for the unfortunates.

Calgary on their way to New York. Their friends were surprised at the suddenness of the news, but they were no more surprised when, a week later, word came from New York to the effect that a separation had taken place and that the groom, there alone, declared he would not return. About the first of August Mrs. Havens came back to Oakland.

Several months later when she was taken ill and when she lay at the point of death in a San Francisco hospital, there were more rumors that the young husband had repented. But he failed to appear on the scene.

As Sue Miller, the bride some time ago took one of the leading roles in "Jappyland," a musical comedy staged by the society women of Oakland as a benefit for charites. Her beauty and personal charms won for her a host of admirers. Seyd Havens was well known as a clubman and a society where the couple met.

Mrs. Havens is visiting Mrs. W. H. Miller in Los Angeles, to remain for the winter for the benefit of her health, impaired by an attack of pneumonia last spring. She passed the summer with Mrs. Alan Olsen, wife of Lieutenant Olsen, U. S. N., at Coronado, and on their departure for Annapolis last week went to Los Angeles.

Her attorney is Marguerite Ogden.

ELECTION CONTEST STILL IN PROGRESS

Handwriting Expert Believes Five Signatures Are Forgeries.

Forgery was committed in connection with votes cast in the Thirty-seventh precinct at the primary election, according to the testimony of handwriting expert Carl Eisenschimmel in Superior Judge Wells' court this morning in the matter of the contest now in progress between County Clerk John P. Cook and George E. Gross, candidate for the office. The court recount of precinct Thirty-seven resulted in a net gain of nine votes for Cook, but in the recount of the Fortieth he lost that number.

Professor Eisenschimmel was the first witness called to the stand after the recount. Attorney Philip M. Walsh, representing the contestant, produced the polling list for the precinct together with the original affidavits of five persons whose signatures had been questioned as affixed to the poll list.

Testimony developed that John F. Keating, R. H. Bradshaw, A. Oates and George Barber, former boarders in the American Hotel, 201 Second street, had voted, their names being on the poll list. Professor Eisenschimmel declared that the signatures were forgeries, that of Barber being "a very broad one."

OBJECT TO POLL LIST.

Attorney Charles H. Snook, appearing for the contestee, objected to the admission of the poll list as evidence on the ground that the envelope containing the ballots and election lists had been returned to the county clerk's office unsealed. He contended that the poll list should have been sealed up in an envelope. Judge Wells overruled the objection.

Mrs. Martha Jamison, proprietor of the American Hotel, was called to the stand and testified that each of the four men had left her boarding house last spring, the latest date being May 15, when Keating ceased to be a boarder.

Attorney Charles A. Beardsley, also for the contestee, objected to the entire procedure of questioning the signatures, setting forth that the provisions of the code as to the recount did not include any further investigation on the part of the court. His claims of irregularity were overruled by Judge Wells, who ordered the taking of testimony to continue.

The name of Carrie Stroyan, the fifth questioned in the roll of precinct Thirty-seven, was declared to be "O. K." by the handwriting expert. At first Professor Eisenschimmel designated the signatures as "dubious," but on the insistency of Attorney Snook that he was not sufficiently definite, he declared each of them "forgeries." Mrs. Jamison stated that she believed each of the four men whose signatures were questioned were still in town and Attorney Snook asked that subpenaes be issued for their appearance in court. In this request he was promptly joined by Attorney Walsh.

The case rested at noon with only the testimony of Professor Eisenschimmel and Mrs. Jamison, although there was a large number of witnesses waiting in the courtroom.

Deputy District Attorney A. A. Rogers was present in the courtroom during the hearing inspecting the evidence of alleged forgery.

The recount of fifteen precincts so far has resulted in Cook's gaining 147 votes, making him nine votes behind the plurality of 156 given Gross in the official count. In precinct 38, counted yesterday afternoon, Cook gained 52 votes. The other candidates, Harry L. Boyle and Louisa L. Cornwell, also gained a few votes by the recount. In the forty-third precinct Cook netted a gain of 39 votes, the polling place being located at Sixth and Broadway.

Thirty-two forged signatures on the roster of Precinct 30 were shown this afternoon in the testimony of Handwriting Expert Eisenschimmel, who declared that many of the signature were in the same handwriting. The first one on the list, the name of Claude Clark, was shown as having voted while Assistant District Attorney J. M. Koford testified that the man was serving a year's sentence in San Quentin at the time he was presumed to be voting. Clark was convicted on June 30. He formerly lived in the Mariposa house, at 469 Ninth street, and the name of Claude Clark, under the same address had been voted.

REALTY MAN HELD ON EMBEZZLEMENT CHARGE

John T. McKeon of the firm of McKeon & Holmes, was held to answer this morning on a charge of felony embezzlement on the complaint of Mrs. Minnie A. Pickering, 509 Tenth street. The complaint was sworn to after Mrs. Pickering had made unavailing efforts to regain possession of $1500 which she had placed in McKeon's hands to lend on a first mortgage.

According to the story told by Mrs. Pickering on the witness stand, when McKeon was examined before Judge Mortimer Smith, McKeon represented to her that he could put her money out at interest on a house and two lots belonging to Mrs. Jennie Smith in Piedmont. He showed her the property and Mrs. Pickering was satisfied with the place as security. She turned over her money to McKeon.

"I have been trying to get it back ever since," she told the court today, after explaining that McKeon was unable to produce the mortgage.

Mrs. Jennie Smith testified that she had not agreed to mortgage her property and had no intention of doing so. It developed during the hearing that McKeon had conferred with her about selling.

McKeon returned $800 of Mrs. Pickering's money, but failed to return the balance of $700.

He was defended by Attorney Lin S. Church. Bail was fixed in the sum of $2000 for his appearance before the Superior Court.

ELECTROLIERS WANTED FOR SAN PABLO AVENUE

Delegates from the Golden Gate Improvement Club and the Golden Gate district appeared before the city council today to demand that the city install electroliers in San Pablo avenue from Emeryville to the Berkeley line. The distance is twelve blocks and the cost would be about $5500.

The demand brought bitter complaint from Commissioner of Public Health and Safety F. C. Turner. Turner declared that the citizens were asking the city not merely to keep the electroliers lighted but to pay the cost of installation.

"There is not a cent in the street lighting fund for extra lights," declared Turner. "I will not stand for any proposition that will cause a deficit in the street lighting fund. I shall certainly vote against the installation of more electroliers."

John Gelder complained that the city had agreed to expenditures of money for special purposes, such as the Skyline boulevard, the rental of the armory of Company B battery and the purchase of the Joaquin Miller property and declared that as San Pablo avenue is the great thoroughfare to Contra Costa county it should be lighted and that this would be a benefit to the entire city.

The matter was put over and Mayor Mott advised that the residents of the district should attempt to solve the problem along other lines than a city appropriation. Superintendent of Streets Perry Brown explained that it might be possible to cut the cost of installation 50 per cent by using concrete electroliers.

Butte Saloon Raided for Violating Order

BUTTE, Mont., Sept. 29.—Several thousand persons gathered in West Broadway in the center of the business section today and watched members of the militia on duty here empty the "wet goods" of one of Butte's largest saloons into the gutter.

The place of Jack Crowley and Harry Lockhardt was raided after Crowley had been convicted in the summary military court of violating military regulations in having his saloon open last Sunday morning. Crowley was fined $800 and ordered to jail until the fine is padi.

Major Donohue in command of the troops then ordered out a company to destroy the stock of the saloon.

GERMANS SEEK HORSES IN VARIOUS MARKETS

By Associated Press.

LONDON, Sept. 29.—The restrictions recently imposed by the Danish government upon the purchase of horses in Denmark have compelled German horse buyers to turn to Norway, according to a dispatch from the Copenhagen correspondent of the Standard. The Norwegians are not anxious to sell, and the Germans are offering fancy prices. A party of Germans also is endeavoring to arrange for shipment of horses from America.

Tinned provisions, foodstuffs and tea are now largely imported into Germany from Scandinavia, says the correspondent, buyers explaining that "the Russian and English prisoners want tea, so Germany must buy irrespective of cost."

WAR DECLARED ON TURKEY BY ITALY

STRIKE FIAT HAS BEEN ISSUED

Becomes Operative Tomorrow and Affects 35,000 Men on S. P. and I. C.

Railway Managers Express the Opinion That Employes Will Not Walk Out

CHICAGO, Sept. 29.—Shopmen on the Harriman and the Illinois Central railway systems will go on strike at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning, according to a statement by J. W. Kline, president of the Blacksmiths' Union. The strike order was issued and the time set this morning after a conference of the five union presidents.

Railway Officials Say Men Will Not Obey Strike Order

CHICAGO, Sept. 29.—Although orders instructing 35,000 employes of the mechanical departments of the Harriman and the Illinois Central railways to strike at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning are ready for transmission today to various division points, there will be no strike according to officers of the railroads concerned.

The belief of the railroad managers that the men would not strike is based on the fact that thousands of railroad men are already idle as a result of retrenchment of the Harriman roads and that the demands of the men do not call for any increase in wages.

CAUSE OF STRIKE ORDER.

The strike is threatened because the railroads, yesterday, for the third time, flatly refused to recognize the Federation of Shop Employes in the manner that they now deal with the individual unions comprised in the federation.

President J. W. Kline, of the Blacksmiths' Union, who prepared the strike order that railroad officials say will either not be sent out or will not be obeyed, today said that the men are eager to strike and that all preparations for a strike have been perfected. He said that the reply of Mr. Kruttschnitt of the Harriman roads to the federation's ultima-

CONTROL IS HELD BY LOVETT

Julius Kruttschnitt and L. J. Spence Are Chosen as His Lieutenants

Five Presidents of Harriman Lines to Look to New Yorker for Orders

NEW YORK, Sept. 29.—The new administrative scheme of the Harriman lines, which goes into effect at once, invests the big railroad system with five new presidents in place of Judge R. S. Lovett, who, like E. H. Harriman, has been president of them all.

Judge Lovett, as chairman of the executive committee, retains the chief executive authority, with two chief lieutenants to assist him in his New York headquarters. The two lieutenants are Julius Kruttschnitt, director of maintenance and operation, and L. J. Spence, director of traffic.

BEGAN AS CLERK.

The new president of the Union Pacific, A. L. Mohler, whose offices are in Omaha, has been in the railroad service since he was sixteen years of age. He was born in Eprata, Pa., in 1850, and entered the railway service as a warehouse clerk at Galt, Ill. His promotion was through three or four different roads, to become, in 1883, general freight agent of what is now the Great Northern. He rose rapidly in this employ to be general manager, leaving in 1894 for the general managership of the Minneapolis and St. Louis. In 1897 he became president of the Oregon Railway and Navigation company, and in 1904 general manager of the Union Pacific.

The new president of the Southern Pacific is William Sproule, who for a number of years was its freight traffic manager. He is now president of the Wells-Fargo company, but his resignation takes effect next Sunday. Sproule was born in County Mayo, Ireland, fifty-three years ago. He came to New York as a boy, got his start as a newsboy, and went to California, when he had saved up money enough. He was in the mercantile business in Sacramento and San Francisco until 1882, when he entered the traffic department of the Southern Pacific as a freight clerk.

JOIN GUGGENHEIM INTERESTS.

Five years later he found himself assistant general freight agent, and in 1893 he became freight traffic manager. He left the Southern Pacific in 1906 to join the New York staff of the Guggenheim interests as traffic manager. He was elected to the presidency of Wells-Fargo a year ago.

HER SPEECH RESTORED BY SHOCK

Woman Dumb for Seven Years Speaks When Told of Tragedy

Mother of Women Killed by an Alameda Train May Soon Die

ALAMEDA, Sept. 29.—Speech returned to Mrs. Henry Bare, a helpless paralytic, for the first time in seven years yesterday when she was told of the tragic deaths of her two daughters, Mrs. Minnie Roberts and Mrs. Adele Gaudet, who were killed by a south side electric train at Regent street and Encinal avenue, Wednesday night. Trembling violently from the shock of the tragic news, the 60-year-old woman rose from her bed, where her daughter had placed her only a few moments before her death, and in a voice weak with emotion asked for the details of the tragedy.

With their mother lying between life and death, the funeral of the two victims of the train accident was held this afternoon from the family residence, 1328 Broadway. Rev. F. S. Brush conducted the services, which were followed by cremation at the Oakland crematory.

The husbands of the two women, William Roberts and Louis Gaudet, with Mrs. S. A. Moss, a sister, were the chief mourners. Many friends attended the funeral services.

Mrs. Bare was stricken speechless seven years ago when she became paralyzed and from that time has only spoken a few inarticulate words. She has been a helpless invalid and was cared for by Mrs. Roberts, who made her home with her. That her death will result from the shock of the deaths of her daughters is stated by attending physicians.

Mrs. Roberts and Mrs. Gaudet were killed Wednesday night by a westbound local train. Mrs. Roberts had accompanied Mrs. Gaudet to the train to bid her farewell before she left for her home in Colma. The women became confused at the approach of the train which they did not hear until it was within a few feet from them, and were struck before they could escape. Mrs. Roberts died in the ambulance on her way to the Alameda sanatorium. Mrs. Gaudet succumbed at 3 o'clock Thursday morning.

FLEET ORDERED TO BLOCKADE THE ENTIRE COAST OF TRIPOLI

KING VICTOR EMMANUEL of Italy, whose country is involved in a war with Turkey.

Failure of the Porte to Meet All Demands in Ultimatum Leads to Prompt Action by Rome

Italian Troops Are Said to Have Been Landed on Enemy's Soil; Wireless Orders Are Sent to the Warships

ALBANIANS HOPE TO STIR UP TROUBLE

ROME, Sept. 29.—Italy has declared war on Turkey. The official announcement was made late this afternoon. It is declared that the two countries were in a state of war beginning at 2:30 o'clock on the afternoon of Friday, September 29.

This is the hour at which the Italian ultimatum to Turkey expired and followed a session of the cabinet, at which the Turkish reply was considered and found unsatisfactory. Though every indication pointed to this action by the government, there was always a possibility that the good offices of other governments would be successful in avoiding hostilities, and when the final decision of the cabinet was announced the excitement throughout the city was intense.

Fleet Off the Coast of Italy

Throughout the earlier hours of the day the papers had issued special editions announcing that the Italian fleet was moving in plain sight of the coast of Tripoli, and intimating that war might be declared at any moment.

The minister of foreign affairs, Signor Di San Giuliano received the Turkish reply from the Turkish ambassador this afternoon and immediately went into conference with his associates in the ministry. It is believed the Ottoman government completely conceded Italy's economic claims in Tripoli.

The Porte Sends Conciliatory Note

The porte sent a conciliatory note suggesting further delay. It was known that at the same time Turkey transmitted a note to the powers, in which it is assured that she represented herself as the injured party and, by the inference, at least, sought their intervention.

The Italian government decided to stand by the ultimatum of yesterday, and in the absence of the reply called for, to declare Italy and Turkey in a state of war, from the hour that the ultimatum of twenty-four hours expired.

Italy will provide for the safety of Italians and all other foreigners in Tripoli and Cyrene, using to this end all the means at her disposal.

The minister of marine is believed to have sent wireless orders to the Italian fleet off Tripoli to act immediately. This action followed a meeting of the cabinet at 11 o'clock, at which it was decided to proceed with the measures previously determined upon.

Turkish Soldiers Enthusiastic

TRIPOLI, Sept. 29.—This city, which is threatened with a hostile occupation, was desolate early this morning. Nearly all of the Europeans last night left on orders of the Italian consul, and this morning the streets were deserted except for squads of Turkish soldiers, who are enhusiastic over the situation.

The Arabs have held mass meetings in all the mosques and taken a solemn oath of unity and allegance to the Turkish flag "to the last drop of blood."

The Turkish transport Derna has discharged 2000 tons of stores and 13,000 Mauser rifles. These have been taken into the interior.

WHEN TO FEED—The interval between feedings is best determined by observing the child; some do better with smaller quantities and more frequent feedings, others need larger quantities and longer intervals, and some require more nourishment than others, but some regularity should be maintained in the time of feeding, as the stomach must have time for digestion and rest.

FREDERICKS OFF FOR THE NORTH

Congressman Knowland Will Tour With Republican Standard Bearer.

Captain John D. Fredericks, Republican nominee for governor, and Congressman Joseph R. Knowland, Republican nominee for the United States Senate, left last night for Yreka, where they will open the campaign in the north tonight by a rousing meeting. Before leaving Captain Fredericks declared that he was amazed by the unified Republican sentiment he found in his campaign through the southern portion of the State.

"It is a simple declaration of fact to say that the Republican party in the south was never so much united with party spirit as now," said Captain Fredericks. "Throughout the south the citrus growers, the sugar beet ranchers and all classes of business men are working for the success of the Republican party in November. They recognize the fact that upon Republican rule will depend in their own interests and desire to see the restoration of the Republican principles of protection for California industries and are working as a unit to bring this about.

"Desertions from the ranks of the Progressives are increasing daily, and if the north does its duty by the party the Republican ticket will go to victory by an unprecedented majority in November."

Captain Fredericks will be accompanied on his trip by Mrs. Fredericks and C. J. Sullivan, his secretary.

Mrs. Knowland and Mrs. Fredericks were entertained during yesterday afternoon by Mrs. Florence Richmond and the members of the Woman's Republican Club at the St. Francis.

William C. Ralston, who is going on the stump for Fredericks, and Francis V. Keesling, chairman of the state committee, attended the conference of Republican leaders in San Francisco yesterday, at which Captain Fredericks and Congressman Knowland were present.

A message from Pasadena says John B. Curtin and Jo V. Snyder, his running mate, are touring Azusa and Downey today, meeting with warm receptions. Tonight the Democratic leaders will speak at Long Beach and following this gathering they will go to San Diego, where they will spend all of tomorrow. In his address at Pasadena last night Curtin scored the Progressive administration for its neglect of the schools.

Governor Johnson is touring San Bernardino and other counties of the south and will today speak in Hemet, Banning and Riverside. Fredericks' vigorous campaign of the southern counties has impressed Johnson that the citrus belt is a battle ground.

* * *

Max Thelan, state railroad commissioner at a salary of $8000 a year, and George G. Radcliff, superintendent of the capitol building and grounds at a salary of $3000, are on a junket through the northern part of the state trying to win votes for Johnson.

W. B. Harrington of Santa Clara county, who was present at the Republican conference in San Francisco yesterday, says that his county has the largest proportionate Republican registration of any in the state and will give Fredericks 5000 plurality.

SENATOR A. H. BREED ENDORSES M. J. KELLY

State Senator Arthur H. Breed of Oakland has issued the following statement, setting forth his reasons for supporting County Treasurer M. J. Kelly for re-election and why Kelly should be returned to office:

"M. J. Kelly has made a first-class, efficient and honest county treasurer, and his record in the office which he now holds most certainly entitles him to re-election. So far as I am able to observe his activities in political affairs have always been along the lines of good government, and he has always supported the best and most efficient men for public office.

"Unable to find fault with either his private or public life, there are some people who have charged County Treasurer Kelly with being a "boss." I do not so consider him, but I do look upon him as a leader of men. His private life has been most clean, and owing to his influence for good over others, he has been of very great service to both the city of Oakland and the county of Alameda by reason of his help to many who were traveling the wrong road. County Treasurer Kelly has induced many to lead better and cleaner lives and to become good citizens.

"I have always found that Mr. Kelly's word could be absolutely relied upon, and I know that if the people of Alameda county knew him as I do there would be no question as to re-electing him to the office which he now holds and the duties of which he has discharged so well and faithfully."

CANDIDACY ENDORSED.

The candidacy of County Treasurer M. J. Kelly has been indorsed by the West Oakland Non-Partisan Club, with headquarters at 1757 Sixteenth street, in the following set of resolutions:

"Whereas, M. J. Kelly has during his incumbency of the office of county treasurer conducted the business of said office in an efficient and most excellent manner; and

"Whereas, the said M. J. Kelly has proven himself in every way qualified to conduct this office, is an official of sterling honesty and has always been uniformly courteous to all taxpayers; now, therefore, be it

"Resolved, That the West Oakland Non-Partisan Club does hereby heartily indorse the candidacy of the said M. J. Kelly and commend him to the consideration of the voters of Alameda county for re-election on November 3, 1914; and be it further

"Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be given to the press for publication. "D. J. McCARTHY, president.

HARBOR BANK ASKS FOR LEAVE TO CHANGE NAME

The Harbor Bank which was incorporated in 1907 and which for several years thereafter did business at Fifth and Broadway, moving to Twelfth and Franklin streets three years ago, today petitioned the Superior Court for permission to change its name to The Bank of Oakland. The petition recites that recently there has been a reorganization among the stockholders and that in view of the change in location of doing business the new name is more applicable. The petition is signed by A. G. Taft president, and C. A. Brown, secretary. The directors are C. A. Brown, George Samuels, A. Murdock, A. G. Taft, C. A. Young and M. E. Haines.

SPEAKS ON WAR.

"Spiritualism and Its Connection with the European War" was the subject of Evangelist A. S. Marchus at the big tent, corner of Fruitvale avenue and the Boulevard last Sunday night. Elder Marchus made the statement that for several years the rulers and the leading statesmen of Europe have been guided to a great extent by the communications that are reputed to come from the spirits of the departed.

SCHOOL BOYS IN BIG CONVENTION

Visit Sacramento for Meeting; Many at Gathering.

Fifty energetic high school boys returned this morning from Sacramento where they represented their respective high schools and the Oakland Young Men's Christian Association at the Older Boys' Conference at Sacramento, September 25-27. The boys were royally entertained by the people of the capitol city. The conference was one of the best that has ever been held in northern California.

The conference began on Friday evening with the opening banquet given at the Association building. The general theme of the conference was "The Young Man," and at the opening banquet a number of the boy delegates spoke on a phase of that general topic, "The Young Man in His Fight for Character." Clem Drew, of Fremont High School, represented Oakland, among the speechmakers at the opening banquet. The discussion at the Saturday morning session centered around the topic, "The Young Man and His Relationships." On Saturday afternoon the delegation visited the Capitol building, where Governor Hiram Johnson addressed the delegates. In the evening a picnic supper was enjoyed on the river bank. Visits to the different churches of the city, a big meeting for boys at the First M. E. church in the afternoon, and the big union closing meeting in the evening, made up the program for Sunday.

OAKLAND BOYS.

The following boys represented their different high schools and the Oakland association at the conference:

STUDY AID FOR COTTON GROWERS

Governors and Congressional Delegations Continue Conference.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 29.—Governors and congressional delegations of cotton-growing states continued their conferences here today to devise some means for the relief of Southern cotton producers from conditions resulting from the European war. When the conference resumed its sessions behind closed doors today there was no indication of an agreement having been reached over the main proposal—whether the federal or state governments shall assume the burden of curtailing the crop directly or the acreage planted next year.

Several plans were before the committee. One would levy a prohibitive tax of ten cents a pound on the 1915 yield in excess of 50 per cent of the 1914 production and another would levy a tax of 20 cents an acre on every acre planted to cotton in 1915 in excess of 50 per cent of the acreage planted in 1914.

An all day and night conference had failed to bring the congressional delegations and the governors into harmony over the question whether or not the proposed tax should be levied by the federal or state governments. The governors maintained that the state were without constitutional authority to afford the needed relief, and that only Congress could enact such legislation.

MAY POSTPONE MARINE MEASURE

Wilson Favors Immediate Action to Purchase Merchant Vessels.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 29.—Whether the bill providing for government purchase of merchant vessels will be taken up at the present session of Congress, or go over to the session beginning in December, was undecided today. It was the general impression among members, however, that action would be postponed, although President Wilson still is in favor of immediate passage of the measure and, it is said, will urge Congress to take it up at once.

The President has been told by Democratic Leader Underwood and Representative Alexander of Missouri, chairman of the merchant marine committee, advocates of the proposed legislation, that on account of the present session having been so prolonged and because they are anxious to get home for the campaigns, many members of the House are strongly opposed to taking up the measure now.

Congress will await the President's final decision in the matter, which, it is said, will be reached after he has held further conferences with members.

Seven foreign vessels, with an aggregate of 23,716 gross tons, were admitted to American registry under the recent act of Congress during the week ending September 26, according to the department of commerce today. Six were English and one a German vessel.

WATKINS LEAVES STANFORD.

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Sept. 29.—There is another opening on the Stanford fifteen that will likely cause the "dopesters" some worrying before the "big game" with the University of California. It has been announced that Fred Watkins, the husky player who held down middle rank position next to Phil Clover last year, will not be out any more for football this season. Pressure of studies is the cause given for Watkins' doffing of Rugby togs. He played on the 1911 and 1913 teams.

"Cow" Braden is looked upon as a likely substitute for Watkins, though it is hard to say at this stage of the game just which of the aspirants will pan out to be the best varsity timber.

JOAQUIN MILLER CLUB TO GIVE "COTTON FEAST"

FRUITVALE, Sept. 29.—The Joaquin Miller Club will give a basket "cotton luncheon" Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Henry Wetherbee, Fruitvale avenue and East Fourteenth street. The affair will be in the nature of a reunion and the members and friends of the club have been invited. William Rutherford, manager of the California Cotton Mills, will talk on "The Romance of the Mill."

AWAY ON VACATION.

SAN LORENZO, Sept. 29.—Among the members of the younger set who prefer to take their vacation late in the season is Miss Alice Hansen of San Lorenzo. Miss Hansen has gone to the Feather river, where she will stay a month.

A Legacy of Ill Health

How Invalids Are Made by the After-Effects of Malaria, the Grip and Other Acute Diseases.

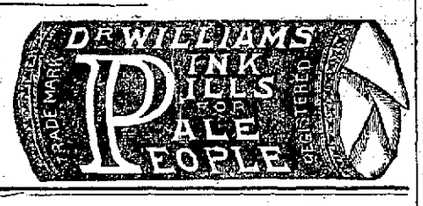

After an attack of fever, the grip, or other acute disease the patient is frequently left in a condition that may mean a lifetime of misery if proper precautions are not taken to restore the blood and drive out the lingering poisons that cause the so-called "after-effects" of these diseases.

Malaria, typhoid, scarlet fever, measles, rheumatic fever, the grip or influenza, and, in some cases, severe colds, leave weakened vital powers, thin blood, impaired digestion and over-sensitive nerves—a condition that makes the system an easy prey to pneumonia, bronchitis, nervous prostration and even consumption. Too much stress cannot be laid on the importance of strengthening the blood and nerves during convalescence.

Mrs. William Patterson, whose address is Box 33, R. F. D. No. 4, Snohomish, Wash., says: "I had an attack of the measles and was sick for over a year. I was very weak and could not get my strength back. I was so short of breath that I couldn't walk any distance at all without fainting. I had awful headaches a greater part of the time. I was nervous and run down in flesh and strength. Friends, who saw me, thought I would never get well. I was living at Everett and was treated by two doctors, but they didn't do me a bit of good. Finally I had to remain in bed and the doctor said that nothing but a change of climate would help me. After being confined to bed for a month, my mother decided to give me Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. I received great help from a few boxes and grew stronger and felt better in every way. I took the pills regularly for quite a while and was completely cured."

The above statement should convince anybody who has failed to regain health and strength after an acute disease that Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People deserve a trial.

A valuable booklet, "Diseases of the Blood," containing helpful information will be sent upon request. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all druggists, or will be sent, postpaid, on receipt of price, 50 cents per box; six boxes, $2.50, by the Dr. Williams Medicine Company, Schenectady, N. Y.

PRISONERS MAY WORK GAME FARM

Newbert Says the Project Is to Be Adjunct to Folsom Prison.

SACRAMENTO, Sept. 29.—The game farm of the state fish and game commission will be an adjunct of the state penitentiary at Folsom, according to Commissioner Frank Newbert. The commission has secured gratis a twenty-five year lease on land adjoining the prison. It is proposed to utilize convict labor on the farm.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 29.—At the office of the game commission today it was stated that no final action had been taken in regard to removing the state game farm from its present site near Hayward. It was stated that the whole matter was still under consideration and what the result would be is still an open question.

Cyrene, was communicated to the Italian charge, Signor de Martino, at 6:30 o'clock this morning. The message was couched in friendly terms and expressed surprise at the action of Italy, in view of the cordial relations existing between the two countries. It is pointed out that Italian interests in Tripoli had not been threatened and expressed the hope that Italy would desist from her contemplated measures. Assurance was given of Turkey's desire for a settlement of the matters pending between the two governments.

The reply also stated that Italian subjects in Ottoman territory were exposed to no danger, as the authorities afforded them protection and added that Turkish military measures had been suspended during the period of the negotiations for a settlement of differences.

The reply was determined on at a cabinet council which continued at the palace from late yesterday until early today.

Upon receiving the communication the Italian charge immediately telegraphed it to Rome. The impression in diplomatic circles is that the note will not be satisfactory to Italy.

The Turkish squadron has left Beirut and is returning to Constantinople. Every precaution has been taken to preserve order in the capital and throughout the provinces.

Italian Coast Without Protection

CHIASSO, Switzerland (On the Italian Frontier), Sept. 29.—The Italian fleet has been ordered to maintain a close blockade of the Tripolitan coast and prevent the landing of further reinforcements.

Secret instructions have been given for the strategic distribution of ships along the Albanian, Macedonian and Syrian coasts the moment action is begun, to prevent any attempt by Turkey to attack the Italian coast through privateers. This would be easy from the Albanian coast, which is on the opposite side of the Adriatic sea, and is but a few hours sail from the Italian side, which is quite undefended.

To Defend All Foreigners

The ships have been instructed also to defend not only Italians, but all foreigners on Ottoman territory, landing forces if necessary, or taking fugitives aboard. The expedition consists of complete army corps, which will be used in its entirety if necessary. It will be commanded by General C. Caneva, who has formed his staff with General Breiccoola and General Pecori each in command of a division, and with General Castaldello of the general staff.

Ordered to Make All Ha ste

His instructions are that the occupation of Tripoli and Cyrene shall be conducted with the least possible delay, but with prudence, to avoid both foreign complications and unnecessary bloodshed. Admiral Aubrey, in command of the Italian vessels in the waters of Tripoli, has been instructed, when the order to begin the occupation is issued, to embark immediately the few Italians who may be left there and any foreigners wishing to leave. These, it is thought, will amount to about 100.

Turkey Poorly Prepared to Face War With Italy

Turkish empire	41,049,720
European Turkey	6,130,200
Asiatic Turkey	17,683,500
Tripoli	1,000,000
Bulgaria	3,744,300
Egypt	9,821,100
Italy in Europe	32,475,253
Abyssinia	3,500,000
Eritrea	450,000
Somaliland	400,000

Turkey cannot count on any aid from Egypt and Bulgaria, and Italy cannot expect any help from her African possessions. Turkey in Europe and Asia must stand the brunt of the war and she is handicapped by an insurrection in Albania and the open hostility of Bulgaria, nominally a province of the Turkish empire. She has also a large disaffected population in Syria. Moreover, she has no navy to speak of. The few warships she has are obsolete and in bad condition, while she is without a flotilla to transport troops to the scene of action in Tripoli.

OLD VS. NEW.

Italy has seven first-class battleships, while Turkey has not one. She has a fine fleet of cruisers while the cruisers of the Turkish navy are old, slow and poorly armed and equipped, besides being in bad condition. The Italian navy also has a large flotilla of torpedo boats and destroyers, of which the Turkish navy is almost entirely destitute.

While the Turkish army is larger than the army of Italy, it is composed in large part of irregular and badly armed troops. Turkey cannot invade Italy and has no means of transporting an army to Tripoli. She has also to guard the Macedonian frontier against Greece.

ITALY IS PREPARED.

Italy has not only a larger population to draw on for fighting men, but she is richer in money and other resources. Her credit is better and her military establishment better organized.

Italy Likely to Make an Attack On Turkish Fleet

WASHINGTON, Sept. 29.—Persons familiar with the conditions leading up to the war between Japan and Russia recall that Japan took the course which is being followed by Italy in practically beginning hostilities without warning to her powerful opponent and thereby securing a tremendous advantage from a naval point of view by preventing the consolidation of the two sections of the Russian fleet which were lying in the harbors of Port Arthur and Chemulpo, Korea.

Most of the small Turkish fleet is off the Syrian coast at the extreme eastern end of the Mediterranean, and Italy's declaration today is believed to be with the deliberate purpose of securing warrant under international law for an attack on that fleet before it can make its escape and find refuge in the Bosphorus under the shelter of the powerful shore defenses. Such a move would leave Italy plenty of leisure to deal with the comparatively small Turkish military force in Tripoli and to prevent any reinforcements reaching that country from Turkey by water.

It is said at the State Department that there can be no objection by this government to the course adopted by Italy in this instance, so long as there is no undue interference with American commerce or other interests.

The Washington government was scarcely prepared for news of an actual declaration of war. Neither Ambassador Rockhill at Constantinople nor Ambassador Leischmann at Rome had informed the State Department that the crisis had been reached.

NEW YORK, Sept. 29.—In Italian circles in this city the main subject of discussion is the war between Italy and Turkey. New York Italians are of the opinion that the tremendous superiority of the Italian navy over that of Turkey will be a decisive factor.

According to James E. Marsh, political leader of the East Side Italian colony, there are in New York City 30,000 Italians, all men of military experience, who are ready to jump across the ocean to help Italy.

"It is doubtful," he says, "if the home government will call upon Italians here to return to their country, but we are a patriotic race, as history shows, and there are thousands who will cross the seas voluntarily to fight."

CONSTANTINOPLE, Sept. 29.—The government has decided to enforce martial law in Constantinople for the present. The population was quiet this morning, but it was feared that an actual rupture in the relations with Italy might lead to riots.

A change of ministry is believed to be imminent. It is probable that former Grand Vizier Said Pasha will be made grand vizier in succession to Hakki Bey.

Telegrams from many points announce that many are volunteering for war against Italy.

NEW YORK, Sept. 29.—The former American ambassador to Turkey, Oscar S. Strauss, today sent a telegram to Secretary Knox at Washington urging that the United States exercise its right under the convention for the pacific settlement of the international disputes to preserve peace and prevent a possible state of war between the Mohammedan and Christian nations of the world.

ROME, Sept. 29.—The trouble between Turkey and Italy dates back to 1878, when with the making of the treaty concluding the Russo-Turkish war, the powers were understood to have agreed to permit Italy a "pacific penetration of Tripoli."

Turkey claims that this right has been respected ever since. Italy has colonized Tripoli until her interests in that African province are very great. She has asserted, however, that her subjects have been mistreated by the Ottoman authorities and constantly discriminated against.

CHIASSO, Switzerland, Sept. 29.—The expressed wish of the Italian government that the Tripoli affair shall not be taken as an opportunity to create troubles in other Ottoman provinces appears likely to meet with disappointment.

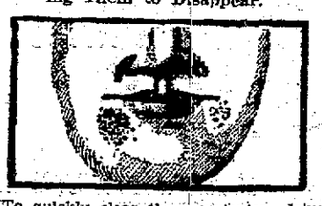

The Albanians consider this an excellent moment for another uprising and have addressed General Ricciotti Garibaldi, the son of the Italian hero, asking him to organize an expedition of volunteers commanded by himself or his son, Colonel Giuseppe Garibaldi, who figured in the recent Mexican insurrection. The elder Garibaldi does not think the situation propitious for a rebellion against Turkish authority, owing to the cold and the snow in the Albanian mountains.

TO CONVENE PARLIAMENT.

COLOGNE, Sept. 29. — A dispatch to the Cologne Gazette from Berlin says a decree was issued tonight convoking the Turkish parliament at Constantinople.

SHANNON INQUIRY BROUGHT TO CLOSE

Committee Will Now Prepare Report on State Printing Office Investigation.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 29.—The committee having in charge the investigation of the office of State Printer W. W. Shannon ended its deliberations today and went into executive session, at which it will consider resolutions recommending to Governor Johnson that he include the Shannon matter as a subject for special consideration in his call of the special legislature. The report of the committee with the special report of the Senate committee which is working with the board of control in the investigation, will be submitted at the special session.

Letters written by Isador Zellerbach, of the firm of Zellerbach & Son, paper dealers, were admitted in evidence at today's session as bearing on the charges of Shannon's intimate association with the supply men. One letter, under date of August 21, 1906, says: "Dear Billy: I had a long talk with Jim Gallagher this afternoon. He informed me that your nomination is practically assured. You are a good friend of Abe's and a good friend of the organization. (Signed) Isador Zellerbach."

The following was written in September, 1904:

"My Dear William: We have arriving in a few days 10,032 reams of 44 book paper, which would like to ship to your office to be used for legislative printing. You stated that you could take at least half of it, and I entered the order and would ask if you cannot see your way clear to take it all.—(Signed) Isidor Zellerbach."

John F. Barry, expert accountant for the board of control, was questioned at the morning session. He read lists of comparative paper costs, showing, according to his figures, that excessive prices had been paid for supplies during Shannon's regime.

JUDGE PUTS BAN ON THE TELEPHONE

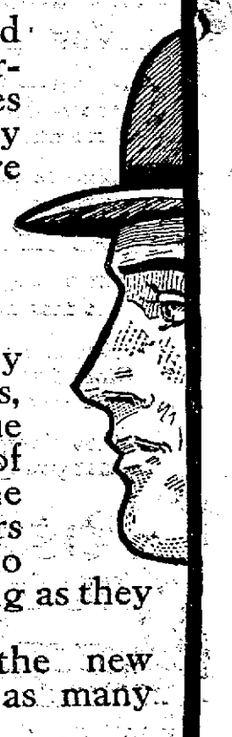

Attorneys who in the past have found it convenient to use the telephone early in the morning to communicate with Superior Court clerks to obtain postponement of cases pending were judiciously sat upon this morning by Judge Brown in the probate department, who admonished the legal talent present that hereafter they or their representatives would have to appear in person or make use of the mails.

"There has been a growing tendency on the part of attorneys to transact probate matters over the telephone, either with the judge or the clerk, as soon as the switch is on in the morning," charged the court, "and I want to say on this occasion, while there are so many present, that in the future the practice must be abated. Had the legislature seen fit to have court matters conducted in that manner, arrangements would have been made, but the telephone in this department was not placed here for that purpose. Attorneys desiring the postponement of cases on the calendar of this court will please hereafter notify the clerk by postal card or come in person."

BURLING'S CASE IS PUT OVER ONE DAY

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 29.—Gus Burling, the local insurance man who shot William Kemp, a chauffeur, in the Union Square hotel following a row over the payment of an automobile bill, appeared in Judge Sullivan's court today. The case was continued until tomorrow for arraignment.

O'Brien of 4017 Tenth street, who has been considered mentally unbalanced for the last three years, committed suicide yesterday afternoon. When her husband, K. E. O'Brien, returned home he found the woman lying dead upon the kitchen floor.

The funeral will be held tomorrow morning from the Barber undertaking parlors, Fruitvale. The interment will be at St. Mary's cemetery. A coroner's inquest will be held next Wednesday.

HAMILTON, Ont., Sept. 29.—The local offices of the Canadian Express Company were robbed of $15,000 in cash last night.

AS SUICIDE 'GALLY KATE' IS FAILURE

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 29. — Kate Powers, familiarly known in San Francisco as "Gally Kate," and who has attempted suicide by the chloroform route at least thirty times, has repeated her efforts to end her existence, twice within twenty hours, the second time swallowing a quantity of the drug at police headquarters. Yesterday afternoon Miss Powers was found in a basement not far from Golden Gate Park, suffering from the effects of chloroform, and was taken to the Park Emergency hospital. Subsequently the police arrested her and charged her with vagrancy, and last night she was released on bail.

Today she left Judge Weller's court for a moment, stepped into an adjoining room and swallowed a large quantity of the drug. She was sent to the Central Emergency hospital in the patrol wagon, but is not in a serious condition.

ORGANIZATION CANDIDATES CARRY N.Y.

Tammany and Murphy Men Are Nominated at the Primaries.

NEW YORK, Sept. 29.—So-called "organization" candidates apparently swept the boards in the statewide primary yesterday for every nomination except United States Senator on the Republican ticket.

With practically all of the New York City vote in and a seventh of the upstate vote in early this morning, it seemed certain that Governor Martin H. Glynn was the Democratic gubernatorial nominee and District Attorney Charles S. Whitman the Republican.

Former Governor William Sulzer and former State Senator Fred M. Davenport were running close together for the Progressive gubernatorial nomination, and both claiming victory.

James W. Gerard, ambassador to Germany, led Franklin B. Roosevelt by a wide margin for the Democratic nomination for United States Senator, while James S. McDonough was third. The Republican Senatorial nomination was somewhat in doubt. William M. Calder piled up a big lead here, but late returns from upstate showed James W. Wadsworth Jr. was gaining rapidly. Bainbridge Colby won an uncontested victory for the Progresive Senatorial nomination.

John A. Hennessy, who headed the anti-Tammany ticket against Governor Glynn, was gaining in late returns from upstate, but his friends admitted that he had no chance of victory.

Returns on the Congressional contests were very incomplete, but those received indicated that most of the present New York members of both parties were renominated.

The Tammany candidates for the Assembly in New York appeared to have won. These included Alfred E. Smith, the Tammany leader in the Assembly.

MINISTER OUT OF RACE.

WILMINGTON, Del., Sept. 29.—Rev. George E. Reed, former president of the Dickinson College, last night withdrew as nominee of the Progressive party of Delaware for representative in Congress. He was named at the state convention of that party in Dover last Tuesday. In a letter Dr. Reed says his acceptance would mean his retirement as minister of Grace Methodist Episcopal church here, which, he adds, would not be just to himself nor to the organization he serves.

KENTUCKIANS VOTE DRY.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Sept. 29.—Nine of twelve Kentucky counties in which local option elections were held yesterday voted "dry," according to unofficial returns last night. Counties voting "dry" were Carroll, Montgomery, Mason, Bell, Boone, Clark, Shelby Bourbon and Scott. The election leaves fourteen of 120 counties in the state "wet."

REAFFIRM PROTECTION.

BALTIMORE, Sept. 29.—The Republicans of Maryland in state convention here last night adopted a platform in which they reaffirmed their allegiance to the doctrine of protection of American industries and scored the Democratic administration for imposing on the people additional burdens through the reduction of the tariff. The nomination of Edward C. Carrington as the party candidate for United States Senator was ratified, as also were the nominations of Robert F. Duer for Congress from the First district and Dr. William J. Heaps from the Second district.

WILSON TO AID.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 29.—While President Wilson will take no active part in the New York political campaign, officials close to the White House said he would give every means of support, short of speaking, to Governor Glynn and the other Democrats nominated in yesterday's primaries. It was said at the White House that the President had taken no part in the primary fight, and some time ago cabled Ambassador Gerard, the Democratic Senatorial candidate, assuring him of his neutrality.

C. S. MELLEN ON STAND.

NEW YORK, Sept. 29. — Charles S. Mellen, former president of the New York, New Haven and Hartford Railroad company, was the first witness this afternoon before the special federal grand jury empanelled at President's Wilson's suggestion to investigate the alleged criminal aspects of the New Haven railroad management.

PRIED OPEN POOR BOX.

Maurice De La Tour, who was caught in the act of prying open the "poor box" in the chapel at Providence, today pleaded guilty to the charge of burglary in the second degree. He refused the help of an attorney and threw himself on the mercy of the court. The date of his sentence was fixed as Thursday, October 1.

RESULTS TELL

There can be no doubt about the result in Oakland.

Results tell the tale.

All doubt is removed.

The testimony of an Oakland citizen can be easily investigated.

What better proof can be had?

Mrs. Emma Y. Baird, 9324 E. Fourteenth St., Elmhurst, Oakland, Cal., says: "Five years ago I suffered from a severe attack of kidney complaint. It came on quickly and I believe was caused by overwork and drinking impure water. We were working in the fruit at the time and I helped to lift the boxes, which affected my kidneys. My back, right over my left kidney, was very painful and the kidney secretions were in bad shape. I had always had good health and didn't want the trouble to get permanently seated. Hearing about Doan's Kidney Pills I began using them and improvement soon followed. After I had used four boxes every symptom of kidney trouble left me and I was well. I haven't needed a kidney medicine since. Many people have tried Doan's Kidney Pills on my advice. I will always be glad to confirm this statement, or do so by letter, if a stamp is enclosed."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Baird had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

CHANGE SYSTEM OF BORE DIGGING

Richmond Municipal Tunnel to Go Through by "Open Faced" Method.

RICHMOND, Sept. 29.—Another system is to be adopted in the digging of the municipal bore. Yesterday Superintendent Carrillo announced that the tunnel would go through by the "open faced" method instead of "shafts."

The crews began yesterday to put in the cement for the north and south portals. This step was taken because of the rapid work which can be done with the steam shovels.

Instead of using the shafts to bring the dirt and rock from the rear end, the cement lining will be put in gradually, being superseded by the heavy timbers, note of the use of which has already been remarked upon.

Then the steam shovels will proceed digging from each end until they put the hole clear through. The Shattuck-Hottinger Company will have until the middle of March to finish the contract, but expects to be through by the latter part of February.

Numerous small cave-ins, due to the volcanic formation of the rock, have caused much trouble, but under the new system this will be eliminated.

HOTTINGER COMMITTED TO THE STATE HOSPITAL

RICHMOND, Sept. 29. — Bernard F. Hottinger, cement worker, arrested Saturday night by Officer Sprague after he had walked for 16 hours along one block on Macdonald avenue, was committed to the Ukiah State Hospital yesterday by Judge Latimer.

When in the corridor leading to the courtroom Hottinger spied a Japanese he ran at him and would have attacked him had not the officer came to the rescue. Again at the county hospital he fought desperately and both times it was all four men could do to hold him.

Officer Sprague, who knew him personally, persuaded him to be quiet on several occasions. Mrs. Hottinger fainted when her husband began to rave behind the bars in the hospital.

Hottinger was released from the Napa State Hospital 20 years ago, so his sisters stated on the witness stand. His insanity seems to be intermittent. He raved violently all of yesterday and frequently interrupted the witnesses with "Tell the truth and take your time."

RICHMOND CLUB MEETS.

RICHMOND, Sept. 29.—The Richmond Club held its regular meeting yesterday afternoon to discuss matters in connection with the big fair which is to be held by that organization on October 8 and 9 at the new clubhouse on Nevin ave. The afternoon was spent in sewing for the fair on caps and aprons. The regular program of the club is laid over until after the fair, when it will take up the study of the amendments which are to be voted on next November. The new clubhouse has been prepared for the whist party to be given there on tomorrow evening. The building has been strung with lights and the floor covered with canvas. Arrangements have been made for 75 tables. The committee in charge consists of Mrs. C. F. Donnelly, Mrs. J. H. Gibb and Mrs. O. C. Staley.

MINORITY TO MEET.

RICHMOND, Sept. 29.—Another episode in the split in the Humane Society will come this evening at the Lincoln School, when a minority meeting will be held to protest against the administration now in control. Carleton Washburn, a supervisor of one of the departments of the State Normal School in San Francisco, will preside. The meeting will be addressed by Mrs. Park, a member of the State Board of Charities and Corrections, who will discuss the proper conduct of a humane society. M. W. Truitt, deposed treasurer of the society, will tell his story of its financial management. The meeting will be open to the public.

HAS PRODUCTIVE WELL.

RICHMOND, Sept. 29. — John Nicholl has been keeping the water rushing from his "oil" well for the past few days, while experts have been sampling it and estimating the supply, and he has come to the conclusion that he has not only the best well in these parts, but the most copious supply. According to the figures submitted to Nicholl there is 1000 gallons an hour coming from the well, and as much as 500,000 gallons per day can be pumped. The water is said to be entirely free from alkali, due, no doubt, to the great depth from which it is pumped. It is raised 1300 feet.

FIREMEN ORGANIZE.

RICHMOND, Sept. 29.—The Richmond Volunteer Fire Department, having become a thing of the past by the ordinance establishing a paid department, the boys of all the companies are to meet this evening at the city hall and lay plans for a veterans' association, which shall include the members of all companies. The members of Company No. 1 at Point Richmond have already adopted the name of Richmond Veteran Firemen's Association. An invitation will be extended this evening to all the companies to join the new organization.

PRETTY GIRLS AT THE COLUMBIA THEATER

A chorus of 18 pretty and shapely girls will be one of the crowning features of Dillon and King's original production of "The Speed Limit," which opens the regular musical comedy season at the Columbia next Sunday, October 4.

Producer Ben T. Dillon of the Columbia forces has seen to it that the feminine portion of the organization for the coming season will be unusually large. The chorus will consist entirely of the best singers and dancers that can be procured on the coast.

Some of the season's latest song hits imported direct from New York will be introduced in the opening attraction and the shows to follow. Arrangements have been made with a number of Eastern publishers whereby Dillon and King are to secure the latest melodies before publication.

A number of new shows that should prove particularly enjoyable will be produced from week to week. The opening production, "The Speed Limit," is a most pretentious offering, and will be seen for the first time next Sunday afternoon.

The "Prize Country Store" on Monday evenings and the chorus girls' contest on Friday nights will again be the weekly features.

WOODEN WEDDING IS OBSERVED BY COUPLE

ALAMEDA, Sept. 29.—Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Hastings of 520 Central avenue celebrated their fifth wedding anniversary, or wooden wedding, last Sunday, asking 30 of their friends to enjoy their hospitality. Table decorations were carried out in wood, the favors being little wooden shoes and other Dutch conceits, with corn flowers as the floral centerpiece, all the toning being delft blues.

The gift of Hastings to his wife on the anniversary was a "1915" Buick car. Hastings is a grandson of the late Judge S. E. Hastings, founder of Hastings' Law College, and the bungalow on the water's edge has been the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hastings since their residence in Alameda.

POLICE COURT HEARS MISDEMEANOR CASES

ALAMEDA, Sept. 29.—William F. Burns was taken into custody yesterday afternoon on a charge of vagrancy and his case will be heard tomorrow morning. A. W. Alm, who was charged with careless driving, was fined $5 this morning by Police Judge Tappan. Fred French of the Scott's Express, who was charged with cruelty to animals for allowing a team to be overloaded, this morning forfeited $10 bail by not appearing in court.

ARREST ALLEGED THIEF.

William von Segan, arrested by Inspectors McSorley, McCarthy, Quigley and Drew, is declared by the police to be a tool thief whom they have been trying to capture for some time to stop the continued theft of tools from various concerns. Von Segan is said to have stolen tools from the sheds of the John L. Howard Company, the James P. Taylor Company and from tool houses in Alameda. If sufficient evidence can be obtained a charge of burglary will be filed.

HOUSE CONSIDERS RECESS.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 29.—Recess of Congress over elections was in the air in the House today and looked like a probability. Democratic Leader Underwood said he expected to present a plan to the Republicans which would let members go home to their districts if an understanding could be reached on the future of the administration bill for the purchase of a merchant marine.

POSTMASTER KILLS MAN.

EL CENTRA, Sept. 29.—William Bailey, postmaster at Alberta Rockwood station, 18 miles northwest of here, yesterday shot and killed Thomas Fitzgerald, a former employe, in an altercation in Bailey's store. Bailey claims he shot in self defense when Fitzgerald attacked him with a scale weight. The dead man was a Spanish American War Veteran.

GORGEOUS COSTUMES TO BE COLUMBIA FEATURE

New and gorgeous costumes will be a special feature of all productions staged at the Columbia during the forthcoming musical comedy season at the popular playhouse which opens with Dillon & King and an enlarged company Sunday matinee, October 4.

Producer Ben T. Dillon of the Columbia forces has just returned from an extensive tour in search of new costumes and effects for their engagement in Oakland. While in Los Angeles Dillon was particularly fortunate in discovering what he had looked for so earnestly. With the aid of a well-filled pocketbook he was able to negotiate the purchase of wardrobe said to be the most elaborate ever worn on a stage in the west.

Many new and novel effects in the way of feminine wearing apparel will be made up at the theater by one of America's foremost sartorial artists, Mme. Eloine Kerns. Many Parisian ideas will be utilized by Mme. Kerns and introduced for the first time upon the Columbia stage.

An enlarged chorus of clever dancing and singing girls will be a noticeable feature when the curtain arises next Sunday. With hardly an exception, the chorus this season will be made up of pretty and shapely girls new to Oakland.

Many of the principals who were so popular last season will again appear in support of Dillon & King. The following old favorites will be in the cast: George Spaulding, Vilma Stech, Jack Wise and Ruby Lang.

"The Prize Country Store," the novel feature introduced so successfully last year will continue to be the extra attraction every Monday evening. Many new and valuable prizes have been purchased from M. J. Schoenfeld, the popular jeweler, and are now on display at his Broadway store.

The regular Chorus Girls' Contest is another feature that will be continued on Friday nights.

Dillon & King's opening attraction, "The Speed Limit," is a novel production containing many sensational and unusual effects.

A woman can think an awful lot of a man for a few days after becoming his widow.

"EVERY MAN DO HIS DUTY."

The calling of the strike was precipitated by the demands of the boilermakers at Memphis, who have been out nearly a week in sympathy with the clerks.

According to Kline, tehmen at all the shops, approximately 35,000, will quit work at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning without further notice. The following is a text of the telegram sent today by the international officials of the federation system to the various locals:

"All efforts have failed. Mr. Kruttschnitt refuses. All crafts strike Saturday, September 30, at 10 a. m. Letter of instructions follows. Let every man do his duty."

Railroad Shopmen in Oakland Not Yet Ordered Out

At the Southern Pacific's yards at the Point conditions are quiet. During the noon hour, when the shop workers leave the yards for their lunches, they congregated in two and threes, discussing the possibilities of the strike, but with not heat and with a strong undercurrent of feeling that a strike was regrettable. None of the men seemed to know of the actual issuance of a definite strike order by Kline this morning, and when told of its issuance seemed disappointed. Some of the younger men spoke among themselves in favor of the strike, but the older men, while accepting the action as a matter of course, showed no strong feelings in the matter.

The workers in the local shops are for the most part members of local 610, International Association of Machinists, which is affiliated with local No. 68 of San Francisco. These locals form a separate organization containing all machinists and railroad shop workers, with headquarters in San Francisco, from which body the strike order issued by Kline will be transmitted. Local No. 610 has not yet had a meeting to act on the strike order, but may have tonight. The president of this local is George A. Adams, machinist, living at 1711½ Twelfth street, and so far as could be learned he had received no official information concerning the strike.

ACCEPT CONDITIONS.

Just what action the local men will take in the matter is undetermined, but the general sentiment is that they will go out. A large percentage of the men seemed to feel that the strike was certain to occur, but felt regret in the matter, feeling that it would prove disastrous and would lead to a general sympathetic strike, disastrous to general business conditions throughout the entire country.

They seemed to feel that the strike is inevitable, but many hold that the railroad officials would not have forced matters to an issue without certainty of ultimate winning. No general speeches of any sort were made, either inside the shop yards or outside, the entire discussion being carried on individual groups. Following the blowing of the shop whistle at 1 o'clock the men returned to work, and surface indications are of prevailing quiet.

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 29.—V. J. O'Leary, district organized of the International Brotherhood of Boilermakers, asserted today that the railroads could not withstand a strike of more than five or six days. For that reason, he said, the men were eager to strike, and were awaiting the formal order, which is scheduled to come tomorrow at 10 o'clock.

This statement was elicited from O'Leary by a question as to whether the long period elapsed since the abortive conference between the union chiefs and Julius Kruttschnitt had not lessened the chances of success for the strike.

"The recent retrenchments made by the railroads and the consequent laying off of thousands of men," O'Leary said, "has caused a piling up of work and instead of being better able to withstand a strike, the railroads are in poorer shape today than they were a month ago."

A. V. Tyler, international organizer of the Blacksmiths' Union, added that he had just returned from Bakersfield and that there were at least twelve locomotives in the shops there awaiting repairs.

FARLEY IN LOS ANGELES.

The arrival of a James Farley in Los Angeles yesterday caused union labor leaders to jump to the conclusion that the noted leader of strike-breaking campaigns had been summoned to organize a non-union force for the railroad shops here. The visitor had a conference immediately with Chief of Police Sebastian, who also believed that he was the leader of strike-breakers, until the manager of a detective agency which has been active in former labor troubles at various places announced that the man was James M. Farley, formerly chief of police at Denver and now a resident of San Francisco. The other James Farley, it was stated, always lived in New York.

This same detective agency was reported to have recruited 400 men to take the places of prospective strikers in Los Angeles, but this was denied.

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 29.—The strike of Illinois Central Railroad employes spread to the river front today, where 100 members of the New Orleans Freight Handlers' Union went out. This organization is local and has no connection with the Brotherhood of Railroad Freight Handlers, whose members struck here yesterday.

The negro freight handlers employed on the docks, who have a separate union, refused to strike, as did the negroes employed on the Illinois Central and Yazoo and Mississippi Valley Railroad freight sheds up town.

Boilermakers and Carmen Have Been Ordered to Strike

KANSAS CITY, Sept. 29.—Following a conference here today between Presidents J. A. Franklin and M. F. Ryan of the Boilermakers' and Carmens' Unions respectively, the two men sent out strike orders to the members of their unions this afternoon. About 15,000 carmen and 5000 boilermakers are affected by the orders.

According to President Franklin, non-union workers are now being employed to take the places of the organized men.

"A carload of them was shipped out of here last week," he said. "There were thirty in the party. Only one was a skilled mechanic, and he was one of our men. Strike-breakers are also being sent out of Chicago. But in every party there are several of our members. Thus we know exactly what class of workers and how many the railroads are employing."

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 29.—Southern Pacific officials here questioned the statement attributed to President J. A. Franklin of the Boilermakers' Union, that a carload of strikebreakers had been shipped out of Kansas City. "We are in close touch with the situation in the East," said one of the heads of the Southern Pacific staff here, "and we have had no information that men are being recruited to take the places of the union men."

President E. L. Reguin of the Federation of Shop Employes, was in communication with union officials in various sections of the coast division, following word from Chicago that the strike order would be called. A conference of the heads of the various western locals is being arranged, to be held in San Francisco as soon as practicable.

MEN WILL STAND TOGETHER.

"The men are standing together, and will stand together to the last ditch," said Reguin. "In refusing to treat with our federation regardless of the other demands involved in the present difficulty, the railroads have given sufficient grounds for a strike. The federation offers the only means by which the unions can assert their rights. We are in a position to go through with this."

While comparatively few shop men are employed at San Francisco, it is probable, according to the union leaders here, that this city will be the administrative center of the union's fight in the coast division.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 29.—Mayor P. H. McCarthy, when questioned as to whether he would sanction the swearing in of company watchmen as special police, said the police department would be able to maintain order in San Francisco in any contingency which might arise.

"No policeman of this city will ever associate with a strikebreaker while I am mayor," declared the mayor. "If he does he will leave the department. I have not been informed of any intention on the part of the railroad companies to enroll their employes as special policemen."

FIRST NATIONAL BANK IS POSTAL DEPOSITORY

The First National Bank of Oakland has been designated as the authorized depository for the postal savings bank established in this city. Under the law creating postal savings banks, the money deposited in them must be re-deposited in some national bank designated by the authorities in Washington. The postal savings banks are conducted by the postmasters, but the money received must be deposited in banks designated by the department, the object being to keep postal savings in circulation under such restrictions as will guarantee their security.

Many and Various Ailments Relieved Through Use of Noted Remedies.

Hundreds of local San Francisco people have come forward within the last few months to lend words of praise to the new health ideas of Prof. James M. Munyon, the noted eastern health expert, who has established headquarters in San Francisco in the Harry P. Flannery building, 702 Market street. Among those who have indorsed Munyon are the following local residents:

Mrs. W. Collins, 227 Turk street—Suffered with nervous breakdown and pains in the back of the neck from neuralgia, also had a bad case of constipation that had defied treatment for 19 years. Entirely restored to health by Munyon's treatment.—Adv.

SCHOOLS TO CLOSE COLUMBUS DAY

The high schools and grammar schools of this city will be closed Columbus day, October 12, according to orders issued by the members of the board of education at the regular meeting held last evening in the city hall annex.

The proposition of financing a new method of teaching music in the course entitled "Self-realization," which was recently introduced by Professor Tomlins, of New York, in a series of lectures before the teachers of the local schools, was discussed by the board. Professor Tomlins gave a short address, in which he said that he would reveal his scientific system in three months to the teachers, who would impart their knowledge to the pupils. He fixed his price at $1000. The board balked at the figure.

Director Bronner, chairman of the finance committee, said that he would be compelled to look over the requisitions for the year before the additional expense could be considered. The matter was postponed for a week.

Upon the recommendation of Director Harry Boyle, the Highland school will be repaired.

Permission was granted Principal Rosseter to have the painting of General John C. Fremont retouched for the school at a cost of $75.

BULKHEAD PLANS FOR KEY ROUTE

City Council Approves Specifications for Work to Be Done in Harbor.

Plans and specifications for an 800-foot bulkhead to support the levee in the Key Route basin were adopted by the city council this morning at the recommendation of Commissioner of Public Works Harry S. Anderson, and bids will be advertised for the work. It is estimated that the bulkhead, which is to save the rock and fill from sliding into the bay at a point where the mud bottom is soft from having been dredged for an old channel, will save the city money in the Key Route harbor development, as much rock would otherwise be wasted. The estimated cost of the bulkhead is $12,000.

The bulkhead will be supported on 50-foot piles, and sheeting will go down 26 feet. The bulkhead will extend 800 feet along the levee on the end of the work nearer the Key Route pier. At this point there was formerly a channel, and it has been found that the bottom is so soft that the mud and rock being placed for the levee slide out into the bay. The plans for the work were approved by City Engineer Perry F. Brown and Mayor Frank K. Mott. The work will be paid for out of the bond issue for harbor work.

Fearful Losses in Europe's Battles.

Berlin admits that 104,589 German soldiers have been killed or wounded or are missing. Paris, London and Vienna are more reticent and Petrograd gives out little regarding the slain and hurt except as applies to the enemies of Russia. Vienna bars the use of crepe and Berlin has suggested that wearing black is not in accord with the spirit of the empire.

The reasons are obvious and require no explanation. Berlin's losses are underestimated and neither of the other four capitals want to give details because of the moral effect. To print the entire roster of the dead and maimed would appall those who await the news from the firing line to an extent that volunteers would cease to tender their services and those liable to call to the colors would shrink from performing their military duty.

One hundred and four thousand in a little more than thirty days' fighting continuous in character on the part of Germany in marching through Belgium and down into northern France when every step was resisted! What misinformation! Especially when it is considered that the grand tactics of Germany include the "attack brusque" in masses as compared to the open order of many other nations, our own included. Especially also when it is remembered that Russia applies its force in battle on the same lines and seeks victory by sheer superiority of numbers. That which applies to Russia also applies to Austria and to Servia. France and England only are battling on the principle evolved by the first Napoleon imitating the American Indian when he ordered his troops formed in double line, with intervals so as to show a broad front to the enemy and to fight from cover wherever possible.

So far as losses are concerned we cannot believe that Germany has lost in killed, wounded and missing only 104,000 and it is certain that in the long struggle between the troops of the Kaiser and those of French, Joffre and Pau are equal to those who have died in the German advance and retreat. Why this total issued by the German war office means only a loss of 3466 men a day for thirty days, when it is patent that in some of the charges on the fortifications through Belgium, before Germany had her big siege guns in action, the empire lost men in winrows, while the defenders suffered in proportion as to attack and defense. It is more than safe to assert that the men who have perished or have been incapacitated in the advance and retreat marking the effort to take Paris will total a quarter of a million and that the attack and resistance in eastern Prussia will amount to nearly as many more, with enough killed, wounded and missing in the assaults on Belgrade to make up a half million of the best young men of Europe offered on the altar of war.

It is small wonder that the nations involved do not want to print their casualty lists. When the truth is fully known the effect will be appalling. The whole world will shrink in horror at the results of a struggle that might have been settled had Austria answered yes to the plea of the nations for mediation.

Villa appears determined to stay on the front page if he has to start a revolution to accomplish it.

Dr. J. Arthur Ballard, of Lancaster, Pa., advises people to retain their vermiform appendices; that this supposed rudimentary organ serves a useful purpose, acting as an oil can for the intestinal canal. This information from a physician is very gratifying, more especially in the light of the cost of operations for appendicitis.

Looks as if Austria needed a press agent.

Dispatches say the Austrians will invade Italy. If it is the same sort as that indulged in in the case of Servia it will be a repulsion.

Just to show his independence of the feminist movement, Duncan McPherson of Santa Cruz is advocating a war tax on hat pins.

Governor Johnson says the Progressive party "is standing on its record." Including the disfranchisement of the Republicans two years ago.

Purchase Skyline Boulevard Now:

Mayor Mott and members of the City Council have expressed themselves as intending to purchase the "Sky-line Boulevard," that section of scenic highway which will connect the Snake Road with the Tunnel Road and making a continuous scenic line from the city hall out Broadway and up the Tunnel Road and thence across to the Snake Road and back down to the city hall by either the way of Piedmont or East Oakland.

There remains some three or four thousand feet of this road to be completed, but it is half done and the section remaining unfinished is in such good ground that a small gang of men can finish it in two or three weeks.

But to save expenses following the winter rains, the transfer should be made now. While the road is open for automobiles from the Snake Road to a point within three or four thousand feet of the Tunnel Road junction there are some slight repairs needed for protection only.

If these are made at once the highway will be preserved in splendid condition for tourist travel next year when thousands will be here. And as THE TRIBUNE has remarked previously, Mt. Tamalpais is in no respct superior to this drive when opened so as to admit of entrance or exit from either side.

The Snake road is in fairly good shape right now. At the top there is an inexhaustible supply of shale rock that makes the finest sort of roadway when used with oil, and with this utilized and rolled as in the Tunnel road to the point where the junction will be made, no street in the city will have any advantage over any portion. Every motorist in Oakland knows the Tunnel Road is a splendid driveway, and when it is considerd that at a minimum of cost this can be connected with another with far more beauties of a scenic variety. it looks as if something should be done at once.

Repairs now mean permanency next year. That this boulevard will be the delight of the thousands who will visit the city no one who knows will doubt. It is available for the big sightseeing cars and there is not a foot of the distance that cannot be traversed by machine with ease.

But to insure the best results the work should be done this fall before the heavy rains and then next spring the permanency attained will be of such a character that the expense will be negligible.

By the way General von Kluck is fighting it is plainly evident he is no spring chicken.

With the colonel and Billy Sunday both in Kansas the Jayhawkers will have no excuse for pleading ennui.

Commenting on a statement that Fredericks is making a masterly campaign, indulged in by THE TRIBUNE, the Stockton Record asks: "How? When? Where?" Which reminds us: "That seeing they may see and not perceive and hearing they may hear and not understand, lest they be converted."

Curtin's speed in the gubernatorial race may be estimated when it is announced that his chauffeur has been arrested in Watsonville for scorching.

One peculiarity of these war prophecies is that we never hear of them until after the fighting is well under way.

Once again is the reminder to register for the general election on or before October 3 a pertinent one.

Virginia has voted to go dry November 1, 1916. The interval was no doubt provided for in order to give the boys a chance to consume the supply on hand.

ANOTHER ARGUMENT FOR PEACE

—BY THE OAKLAND TRIBUNE CARTOONIST.

Now for the Tourist Trade.

With the Commercial Club augmented to an extent where it numbers thousands including every interest; now is the time to make preparations for the tourist trade of 1915. The splendid membership of this organization has great opportunities ahead of it in respect to the entertainment of the tens of thousands of visitors who will be here next year.

While San Francisco has her attractions, so has Oakland. Not only Oakland, but all the east bay cities. San Francisco has parks and drives, magnificent buildings and the fair itself, but the east bay has sights and scenes and will have sights and scenes that the larger place over the bay cannot duplicate. The City Garden Soldier movement is lining the streets and vacant lots with flowers that will appeal. Consider for a moment! Back east the geranium is a house plant, cared for like a sick child, nourished and fostered and cuddled. Here we use it for a hedge, a fence if you please. Here it runs riot in all its varied varieties, a mass of color and splendor. East the rose is a plant that blossoms once a year; in Oakland it is perpetually in bloom. That which applies to geraniums and rose applies to other blossoms. Imagine the delight of an eastern visitor at looking upon the riot of flowers all over the vast area of the cities of Continental California. In the east the palm is a dead plant, kept green by artificial methods, is housed in a tub and looked upon with a certain amount of reverence. In Oakland the palm is ever present in all its varieties. In the east the semi-tropical plants of all sorts are coaxed and tended season after season; here they flourish without aid by human effort.

East the scenery is soft, here it is grand and rugged. The drives around Oakland, Berkeley and other towns on this shore are equal to those of Switzerland and France. The vistas are magnificent, the sunsets and sunrises more gorgeous than anywhere on earth. We have drives and parks, shady nooks and verdant, flower spangled dells in all their boskiness; we have living springs flowing eternally; we have sweeping curves and long stretches, every new sight a delight and a charm.

Nor have we reason to be afraid to show what man has done to aid Nature either. For the hills are studded with magnificent homes, the like of which are unequaled anywhere in the west. The streets of the suburbs are lined with the typical architecture of California and each is surrounded with a setting of flowers. We have one of the greatest collections of paintings in the Piedmont gallery ever assembled and can point with pride to the work of the greatest masters of modern times. We have mammoth buildings and immense mercantile houses, multifarious industries and hives of industry. Within the confines of the limits of the east bay towns may be found that which will interest the sordidly commercial, the lover of Nature and the admirer of the works of genius. Our attractions are unlimited.

Included in the concourse of visitors who will be here are all the classes mentioned. They will come prepared to see and will be willing to pay for what they see. If the proper facilities are afforded them, thousands and hundreds of thousands of dollars will be spent here in 1915 and now is the time to make arrangements for those who will come here with a desire to be shown the attractions and the money with which to pay for the service.

In the struggle across the Atlantic the princes get the iron cross, the privates the double cross.

The results in Maine appear to indicate that the right wing of the Progressive party has been broken.

Turkey will doubtless keep out of trouble until about Thanksgiving day.

There is one compensation for living in Paris in war times; under the moratorium a landlord cannot force a tenant to pay rent.

INTERESTING BITS

PRINCE AS FRESHMAN

An impression of the Prince of Wales' life at Oxford, written by a fellow-undergraduate, appears in the Times. The prince's life in the university, he says, has been an experiment of a rather daring kind. It was decided that he was to be in every sense an ordinary undergraduate. No concessions were to be offered to him or be met in matter or in style of speech. There were to be no special privileges. He was to come up as a "freshman" and behave as a "freshman."

Thus, when he eventually arrived, we found that he was in no way different from any other undergraduate, except that he looked rather more youthful than most, that he still retained a passionate and almost wistful love of his life as a sailor, and that he had taken the unusual course for an undergraduate of bringing with him an equerry and a tutor, who lurked somewhere in the background.

In Magdalen everything was made easy for him to take an immediate place in college life and its interests and amusements. He was entertained and gave entertainments in return, and those privileged found that though he was at first rather shy, he was a delightful addition to a college party. He entered into the quiet and humble pursuits of the undergraduate, but full of humor and with opinions of his own. His laugh and smile are peculiarly attractive.

He was content to play his part eagerly and persevere for the college second eleven, he became a private in the officers' training corps, he played soccer, ran with the beagles, drove his motor car with enthusiastic speed. When he was not actually playing there was no more zealous spectator of college contests, and in Eights week no more untiring follower of the boat from the towpath.—London Times.

Berkeley is to make another step onward. At the meeting of the board of trustees a petition was received from 20 leading men of the town asking that the board call an election for the purpose of choosing 15 freeholders to frame a new charter of the town. Later in the evening an attorney prepared an ordinance in accordance with the petition. The board will meet as a committee of the whole to consider the matter.

EYES TROUBLE YOU?
TRY THIS SIMPLE RECEIPT.

We all know some home remedy for our minor troubles, and by the use of these remedies many a doctor's bill is saved and doubtless many a life.

How few know what to do when their eyes become tired and ache, or feel dry and inflamed from abuse and overuse? In the morning your eyes feel rough or sticky, or they trouble you when you read. What do you do? Most of us rush off and get glasses (perhaps at some cheap store where no skill is used in fitting our eyes), which we often do not need at all. Thousands are wearing misfit or unnecessary glasses which they might better discard and other thousands can, with a little care, probably so strengthen their eyes that glasses might never be necessary. Here is a free receipt that may be relied upon to give comfort and to help the eyes of some people. It is harmless and has the enthusiastic endorsement of thousands who have used it:

5 Grains Optona (1 tablet),
2 Ounces Water.

Use as an eye wash night and morning, or oftener if possible. It makes most eyes feel fine, quickly allays irritation, brightens the eyes and sharpens the vision. Many who have used it no longer feel the need of glasses, many others have ceased to fear that they will soon be obliged to wear them. Get the Optona tablets from your nearest druggist and prepare the solution at your own home.

For Surplus Funds

If you will write to The Realty Syndicate of Oakland you will find that you can invest money with them and get 6% for it, with a greater degree of safety and under a much more satisfactory arrangement than you ever imagined was at your disposal.

The Realty Syndicate issue a type of security called "Syndicate Sixes," which can be purchased in any quantity from $100 up, to run for any length of time desired, from six months to ten years.

These certificates are backed by the total assets of the corporation, valued at over twenty million dollars, and which consist chiefly of real estate in Oakland.

There are about three million dollars worth of certificates issued, which gives protecting assets of a ratio of about 6 to 1.

The Realty Syndicate has been issuing "Syndicate Sixes" for 16 years, and during this period over 7000 people who from time to time have invested in them, have found them to be thoroughly satisfactory in every particular.

Interest is paid by check mailed promptly on the day due, and the principal is tendered for payment just as promptly at the expiration of the certificate.

Our investors find "Syndicate Sixes" to be more satisfactory than mortgages, because they are handled on a business basis and the payment of interest and principal does not depend upon the health or good fortune or energy of any one person or upon the preservation and value of any one piece of property.

Banks are good for the accumulation of money and for checking accounts, but after accumulating a surplus you should invest it in some good 6% proposition.

An investigation will prove to you that "Syndicate Sixes" are about what you have been looking for, because you absolutely control the amount and length of time of your own investment.

A request upon a postal will bring you full information.

WOMEN IN THE NEWS

CHAUFFEUR GONE WITH WIFE AND CAR

Dr. Meyers Pleads in Vain With Spouse to Return.

SANTA BARBARA, Sept. 29. After an exciting chase in which the pursued occupied an automobile and the pursuer a Southern Pacific train, Dr. W. P. Meyers of Los Angeles overtook his pretty wife and his chauffeur in this city. The couple had eloped in Doctor Meyers' automobile and were on their way to San Francisco.

The meeting of the trio was sensational, the husband being prevented from executing summary vengeance only by the display of a revolver by the chauffeur.

Doctor Meyers discovered Wednesday afternoon that his wife had disappeared. He boarded the Lark train and arrived here Wednesday night. Yesterday morning he located the car. It presented a sorry sight.

The tires of the front wheels were gone, as were other accessories. The garage proprietor said the chauffeur told him the machine was wrecked at Fillmore while he and the woman were in a restaurant. They had made the trip from Fillmore, a distance of eighty miles, on the rims of the wheels.

While the doctor was viewing the damaged car, Mrs. Meyers and the chauffeur appeared on the scene. They were greatly excited when they saw Meyers, but were boldly defiant, and when he started at them in a menacing way the chauffeur flashed the gun.

In a voice choking with sobs the distracted husband then began to plead with his wife. She would not listen and curtly told him that she was desperately in love with the chauffeur, and that not even the thought of her little baby would make her turn back.

Doctor Meyers would not allow the automobile to be taken from the garage. He left for his home and the chauffeur and Mrs. Meyers took last night's train for San Francisco.

Denies He Popped

NEW YORK, Sept. 29.—Harry L. Horton, millionaire banker and member of the Chicago Board of Trade, known as "Uncle Harry" in Wall street, because of his long service in banking circles, yesterday filed his answer in the Supreme Court to a suit for alleged breach of promise to marry Miss Elizabeth P. Bergh. The damages for which Miss Bergh sues are $150,000.

Miss Berge charged in her original complaint that on July 26, 1908, Horton asked her to marry him as soon as "certain humiliating conditions which would soon be conquered by him would be removed." She asserted that on December 22, 1909, he renewed the promise to marry her and she agreed to become his wife one month from that date. She declares that she waited in vain for him to keep his promise.

Horton requested the court to strike from this complaint the allegation that "certain humiliating conditions" governed his course of conduct. The court granted this motion.

Mary Fears Arrest

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 29.—Mary Garden, the grand opera star, either has pulled a new press agent stunt all by herself or she really fears the local police may interfere with her interpretation of "Carmen."

In a letter the star notifies Manager Andreas Dippel of the Chicago-Philadelphia Opera Company that she must be assured of not being arrested before she will agree to appear as "Carmen."

"I always have been afraid of playing 'Carmen' in Philadelphia," Mary Garden writes, "as the police there do not like me any too well and there is just a chance that they might arrest me. Before I agree to play, you must assure me that I will not be arrested and that you have the assurance of the authorities to that effect."

Manager Dippel does not know exactly what his star means. He said that he had no desire to go to the director of public safety unless he was sure Mary Garden was not "kidding" him.

Bird Woman, Hit

NEW YORK, Sept. 29.—Mlle. Helene Dutrieu, the champion woman flyer, signalized the fifth day of the aviation meet at Nassau boulevard by establishing a new American endurance flight record for women by remaining in the air continuously for 37 minutes and 22 seconds. She went aloft yesterday when the wind was still very gusty, but in spite of the blow flew her headless racing Farman with consummate skill.

When she alighted she was taken across the field to the judges' stand. The crowd of nearly 5000 persons cheered her enthusiastically for several minutes and the tiny aviatrix, in her chic costume of brown khaki, bowed nervously but smilingly in recognition.

It was the most popular event of the day.

"Good Luck," He Says

CHICO, Sept. 29.—Jack Gilson, camper, did not make a demonstration or threat to shoot Sam Blair when Blair left with Mrs. Gilson. Instead, Gilson shook hands with his wife's affinity, wished them good luck, and holding his 18 months' old boy in his arms waved a farewell to the couple. The woman declared she would rather live with Blair, because he was a "nice man," and she left with him in his rameshackle camping outfit. Gilson left on a train soon afterward, saying he was going to quit camping and take the babe to his mother in the southern part of the state.

She Wed 14

PORTLAND, Sept. 29.—Nellie Lane, a comely Siletz Indian woman and a witness before the federal grand jury that is investigating the sale of liquor to Indians on the Siletz reservation, is living happily with her fourteenth husband. Mrs. Lane cheerfully volunteered this information to Deputy United States Attorney Evans yesterday and smilingly pointed to Moses, a short, rotund Siletz with a beaming round face. Moses, the fourteenth husband, appeared to be delighted over the fact that Nellie finally got around to him. The pair seem to be contented, although Moses has only passed through the kindergarten of matrimony, having been married but four times.

Murdered Bride?

SACRAMENTO, Sept. 29.—T. M. Lash, president of the Webb Co-Operative Chemical Company of this city, was placed under arrest yesterday by order of District Attorney Wachhorst and will be charged with the murder of Mrs. Augustus Stevens, a bride of a month, who on her deathbed said she was a victim of an operation performed by Lash.

Lash, who is married and occupies apartments at the Maydestone, one of Sacramento's exclusive apartment houses, denies the charge, but Dr. C. B. Jones, autopsy surgeon, found unmistakable evidence of the cause of the woman's death.

Dr. L. McLean, who was called by members of the woman's family when she was in a dying condition, obtained a confession from her. He will probably swear to the murder charge.

Estate Is Attached

RED BLUFF, Sept. 29.—A. A. Van Hovenburg, a San Francisco attorney, has attached the estate of Mrs. Louise Madeline Cone, widow of D. Cone, for $245,750. The attachment papers were served yesterday. Van Hovenburg came to this city Wednesday night and left on a morning train for the bay.

The attorney served as counsel for Mrs. Cone in her recent settlement with the Kraft bank, and it is said that the attachment is to cover fees and expenses for services in the settlement of Mrs. Cone's affairs with her bankers.

The attachment was issued from a San Francisco superior court.

BUYS RAILROAD FOR $70.

LAWTON, Okla., Sept. 29.—Charles Orth of Walter, Okla., has bought at public auction for $70 the Kansas, Lawton and Gulf railroad, capitalized at $5,000,000. The road is chartered to build from Coffeyville to the Red river. Orth also is the owner of the Gotobo and Southwestern railroad, capitalized at $7,000,000, and the Lawton and Wichita Falls line, capitalized at $1,000,000. The three cost him less than $200.

MILITARY FUGITIVE CAUGHT AFTER CHASE

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 29.—Unmindful of a half dozen rifle bullets which ripped through the air above him, J. Fitzallen, a military prisoner at the Presidio, made an exciting dash for liberty yesterday and was only recaptured when his guard impressed a passing automobile into service and ran down his charge. The chase covered a dozen city blocks beyond the First avenue gate of the reservation through which Fitzallen bolted. Fitzallen is doing time for two attempts to take informal leave of the United States army.

SISSON IDLE WHILE BOY SEARCH IS ON

SISSON, Cal., Sept. 29.—Business was suspended and factories here closed down yesterday while practically every able-bodied man and boy in town joined in the hunt for Harry Mapes and Herbert Barr, lads lost on Mount Shasta since Monday.

Organized searching parties number over 100 men and three wagon loads of provisions and supplies went forward to the searchers' camp, high up on the mountain side. Nearly every one have given up hope of finding the boys alive.

New Tuberculosis Remedy Is Based on Medicine

To say that a specific exists for the cure of Consumption is perhaps too strong a statement but in Eckman's Alterative we have a medicine that has been the means of saving many a life to years of usefulness, and in permanently curing a large number of Consumptives.

Certainly a person afflicted with a wasting disease should be well fed with wholesome, nourishing food, but frequently raw eggs in quantities cause a digestive breakdown, and then no food nourishes. As for milk, a very good food for many, but a producer of biliousness for some.

Any diet that keeps a Consumptive well nourished is the right one but what is going to cure the patient? Eckman's Alterative has cured and is curing many a case of Consumption. Let those speak who know. Here is a specimen:

20 Savannah St., Rochester, N. Y.

"Gentlemen: On June 3, 1907, I was operated upon for Tubercular peritonitis, at St. Mary's Hospital, Rochester, N. Y. After the operation my physician gave me up as hopeless. I was then urged by a priest to take Eckman's Alterative, which I did. My weight at the time was 72 pounds. I began to improve and steadily gained in health and strength. I now weigh 125 pounds, and am absolutely cured. Believing I owe it to myself and others I make this statement."

(Signed Affidavit) EDNA FINZER.

Eckman's Alterative is effective in Bronchitis, Asthma, Hay Fever, Throat and Lung Troubles, and in upbuilding the system. Does not contain poisons, opiates of habit-forming drugs. For sale by The Owl Drug Co. and other leading druggists. Ask for booklet of cured cases and write to Eckman Laboratory, Philadelphia, Pa., for additional evidence.

Don't Scratch Yourself

Blood poison often comes from a mere scratch and sometimes amputation is necessary to save the patient's life. Of course anyone suffering from Eczema, mosquito and flea bites believes that it gives them relief.

Just try Blitz Dermoline, as the first application will give a cooling, soothing relief and after using it a few times the patient will be cured.

Blitz Dermoline will positively cure all kinds of skin affections, Poison Oak, Poison Ivy, Pimples, Hives, Mosquito Bites, Flea Bites, Itching Feet, Split Toes, Shingles, Chapped Hands, Itching Feet, Mercury Poison, Seven Years Itch and Chilblains.

Don't suffer a minute longer, get a 50c jar at your druggist and your troubles will vanish like mist before the sun. Try it today.

The Blitz Remedy Co., 16 Geary street, San Francisco, will gladly mail you a free sample and the regular size is sold by all druggists at 50c a jar, and at Collins Bros., 14th and Washington streets.

Exhibits and Stock Valued at $500,000 and Collection Is Varied.

Fresno, Sept. 29.—With all of the exhibits in place and stock valued at $500,000 on the grounds, everything was in readiness for the opening this afternoon of the Fresno District Fair. All space has been sold and the exhibits this year form the most varied collection of California products.

Stockton, Sept. 29.—An order was issued by Superior Judge Plummer yesterday for the arrest of G. A. Leathers, former abstract clerk of Stockton, and for the past two months an employe of the State at Sacramento. Leathers was placed on probation July 6 by Judge Plummer, after he has pleaded guilty to passing fictitious checks in Stockton aggregating about $100. Probation Officer Taylor yesterday informed the court that Leathers had violated his parole and that he is accused by Sacramento business men of having cashed bogus paper, using the method applied while he was a resident of this city.

Redwood City, Sept. 29.—Loren Coburn, the octogenarian millionaire of Pescadero, who was recently restored to competency, started another suit in the Superior Court yesterday. By this action Coburn is attempting to recover $3772.66 from Manuel Qualia & Co., alleged to be due for the rent of 1000 acres on Coburn's big San Mateo county ranch. Coburn is reputed to have figured in more lawsuits than any other man in California.

Chico, Sept. 29.—In a collision which occurred on the Dayton Road, two miles from Chico, an auto owned and driven by D. H. Van Syckle of Nelson was completely wrecked and another machine, the property of W. T. Rodgers, well-known rancher of Chico, was badly damaged. None of the occupants was injured.

Grass Valley, Sept. 29.—The largest deer killed in these parts in many a year was brought down at Cottage Hall by Joseph T. Blight, one of the party of six. The prize, dressed, tipped the scales at 175 pounds and was a five-pointer. Thomas Blight, a brother of Joseph Blight, also brought down a deer in another part of the county. The latter's trophy, however, was a two-pointer and weighed 120 pounds, dressed.

Knights Landing, Yolo Co., Sept. 29.—The dredge Sierra, owned by the Golden State and Miners Iron Works, burned from some unknown cause near here.

Los Angeles, Sept. 29.—Run down by a street car, Warren Gillelen, a prominent Los Angeles banker, was painfully injured. He was rushed to the Receiving Hospital, where it was found that Gillelen had sustained a fracture of the right hand and contusion on the forehead. His injuries were not considered fatal, though serious. He formerly was president of the Broadway Bank and Trust Company and vice-president of the California Trust and Savings Bank. He is president of the Young Men's Republican Club of this city.

Just One Application and the Hairs Vanish

(Toilet Talks)

Any woman can keep her skin free from unsightly hair or fuzz if she will follow these simple instructions: When hairy growths appear, apply a simple paste, made by mixing some water with powdered delatone. Apply this to hairy surface and after 2 or 3 minutes rub off, wash the skin and the hairs are gone. This is a harmless treatment, but be sure you get the real delatone.

TAPE EXPLAINS DEATH OF CHINESE WITNESS

SEATTLE, Sept. 29.—Frank H. Tape, former interpreter at the Seattle immigration station, awaiting trial on a charge of smuggling Chinese and who was sought by federal authorities to clear up the mystery surrounding the shooting of Lum Kong Saturday, returned from a fishing trip last night and notified United States District Attorney Clay Allen of his presence in the city. Lum Kong was a witness at Tape's preliminary hearing on the charge that Tape had aided Chinese to come into the country illegally, and it was considered possible by the police that Lum Kong's death was the result of his connection with the Tape case. This Tape denied, declaring that Lum Kong was killed because he informed on two Chinese whom Lum Kong himself had smuggled into the country.

MURDER OF GROCER IS CONFESSED BY YOUTH

TACOMA, Sept. 29. — William Davis of Seattle, colored, 17 years of age, confessed to the police late yesterday, according to the officers, that it was during a scuffle with him that H. G. Montgomery, a grocer, was killed at an early hour yesterday morning. The negro admitted that he was trying to rob Montgomery's store when the groceryman pounced upon him in the dark. Montgomery was shot with his own revolver, and the negro maintains that the grocer shot himself.

"I guess I kind of hypnotized him," the boy told an officer.

Oakland Has--

—A remarkable manufacturing record. In 1905 the annual output of her factories was $13,000,000; in 1913, over $70,000,000.

—Recently secured three new factories; the Shredded Wheat Biscuit Co., Westinghouse Electric & Manufacturing Co. and H. J. Heintz Co. They will spend $4,000,000 in erecting factories and employ practically 4,500 people.

—32,0[illegible] wage-earners in her manufactu[illegible] plants and the monthly payroll is [illegible]r $2,750,000.

—1,400 manufacturing establishments, with an annual output of $70,000,000.

—A record of $50,000,000 spent during the last eight years in the construction of permanent buildings.

—A railroad payroll of $5,300,000 annually and is the home of 11,000 railroad men, which is nearly double that of any other city on the coast.

—In the water-borne traffic handled more tonnage than Los Angeles and Seattle combined and is only exceeded by San Francisco.

—A record of three new factories each week for the past four years.

—A municipal auditorium under course of construction, which will cost $1,000,000 and with a seating capacity of 13,000.

—Thirty-six modern high-class hotels, all of high class construction, one of which, Hotel Oakland, cost $2,000,000 to construct, and covers an entire city block.

—Been, is now, and ever will be, the most desirable home city in the wonderfully beautiful coast country.

—A larger percentage of wage-earners owning their own homes than any other city of the United States —And there are a hundred other good reasons.

DEATH, NOT COURT, GRANTS DECREE

Demise of Mrs. Petterson Ends Suit for Divorce Summarily.

Death, instead of a Superior Court decree, has divorced Josephine and Oscar Petterson of Brooklyn Township. Several weeks ago the wife, then suffering with cancer of the stomach, brought suit to dissolve the marital bonds that tied her to Petterson, on the ground of extreme cruelty. The case should have been tried yesterday by Judge James D. Murphy of Mono county, sitting in the auxiliary department of the Superior Court, but when it was called Attorney J. A. Sands, representing the husband, moved for a dismissal on the ground that Mrs. Petterson was dead. He stated that her funeral occurred last Monday. The court entered an order accordingly.

Mrs. Petterson charged among other things that while she was bedridden for months her husband abused her shamefully, saying on one occasion, "I suppose you will lie there [illegible]ther six months before you die." She alleged that he had repeatedly [illegible]ed and cuffed her about and knocked her down and choked her with brutal disregard for her enfeebled condition, and that he always kept a jug of whiskey and a barrel of beer in the house, upon which he got drunk and vicious every night.

Petterson is an employe of the Southern Pacific Company and owns a home valued at $3600 and other property.

FRAUD LAID AT DOOR OF MODOC REALTY MAN

BAKERSFIELD, Sept. 29.—Kern county investors in Modoc orchard lands are losers to the extent of many thousands of dollars, it is alleged, by reason of the failure of B. F. Suiter & Company, the local agents, to see that they were insured perfect titles to the lands.

Bernard F. Sitz, president of the Tri-State Land company of Modoc county, who represented to Suiter that he had clear title to the lands, is in the Kern county jail charged with having obtained money by false pretenses. The abstracts of title which Sitz furnished to the Suiters are declared to be rank forgeries.

The agents say that they believe Sitz had a good title on the land, 1240 acres, but it develops that Sitz had only a quarter section and disposed of over 1000 acres belonging to J. M. Kirkpatrick, which adjoined his holdings.

BALKS AT MILKING TWENTY COWS DAILY

STOCKTON, Sept. 29.—Because she was compelled to wear overalls and men's shoes and milk 20 cows a day Mrs. Mary Harrell of Waterloo filed a complaint for divorce from her farmer husband, Frank H. Harrell. In addition to the cruelty charge, failure to provide is also alleged. Harrell is a well-to-do farmer. The couple were married in 1906 and almost since the wedding bells the wife has been forced to do work beyond her physical strength.

PALADINO GIVEN CITIZEN PAPERS

Judge Brown Sets Forth Position on Naturalization Matter.

Sitting as a court of naturalization yesterday, Superior Judge Everett J. Brown ruled in the case of Ensepio Paladino, an alien foreman in the employ of the Peoples Water Company, that even though an applicant for citizenship could not read English, but could speak the language and had a reasonably clear idea of the principles enunciated by the Constitution of the United States, he was entitled to be naturalized. The court also held in the same case that petitioners for citizenship might be represented at bar by an attorney, but that when it came to questioning him with reference to the Constitution this should be done by the court itself.

Naturalization Examiner Richardson, representing the federal Government, had contended that notwithstanding the fact that the United States statutes require only that an applicant must be able to speak the English language and be attached to the principles of the Constitution, the court should rule that a reading knowledge of the language was also required.

BROWN'S POSITION.

Judge Brown held that inasmuch as Congress only required a speaking knowledge of the language in such cases it would not be proper for the court to impose additional conditions. This ruling was based upon the congressional act which only provides that an applicant must sign his petition in his own handwriting, and that "no alien shall hereafter be naturalized or admitted as a citizen of the United States who can not speak the English language."

A similar ruling was made about two months ago by Superior Judge Ellsworth in the case of John Arminino who was admitted to full citizenship.

Attorney Carlos G. White represented Paladino, but when Judge Brown took the applicant in hand with reference to his understanding of the Constitution he was not entirely satisfied with the showing and continued the matter until November 27, to give Paladino more time to inform himself in the premises.

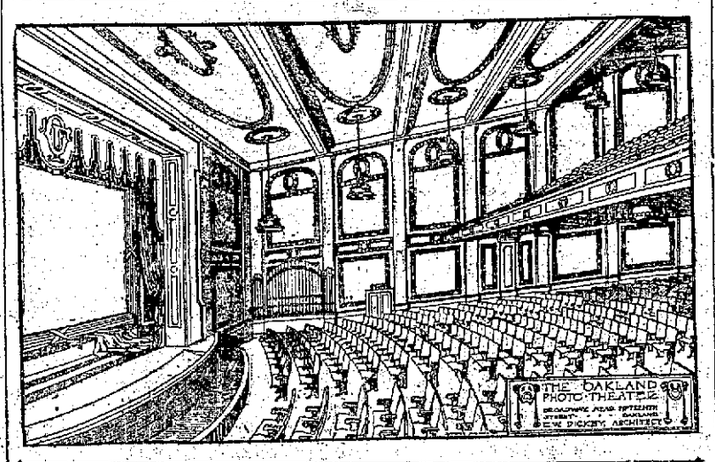

FRESNO CHURCH STORM STILL WAGES MERRILY

FRESNO, Sept. 29.—Added interest has been given to the controversy raging in the First Christian church of this city over the differences between the conservative and liberal elements by the action of the pastor, the Rev. Ray O. Miller, who has just resigned, in becoming pastor of the Episcopal church at Tuolumne City.

It was the contention of a minority of the members of the church here that the Rev. Mr. Miller was not acting in conformity with the tenets of the disciples and they were strong enough to cause him to resign, though supported by a majority of the membership.

It was announced following the resignation that the church government would be reorganized with the resignation of the entire official board of the institution, but at a meeting last night the various officials failed to resign, and it was reported that they will not do so until their term of office ends at the beginning of the new year.

Interior view of the new Oakland Photo Theater, which is being constructed by the H. C. Capwell Company.

The new Oakland Photo theater, which is now being constructed for the Oakland Theater Company by the H. C. Capwell Company on the east side of Broadway between Fifteenth and Sixteenth streets, the lease to which was negotiated through the office of the Frank K. Mott Company, will be practically the largest moving picture theater in the United States, especially constructed for this class of amusement.

With a seating capacity of approximately 1900, 1200 of which will be on the ground floor and 700 in a mezzanine, crowds can be accommodated comfortably and with ease under conditions that are not approached in any coast moving picture house.

No expense is being spared by Turner & Dahnken and their local manager, E. Kehrlein, to equip the house in the most complete and elaborate style, while the architectural construction of the building, which was entirely designed by Mr. C. W. Dickey, the well known local architect, combines every known device for ventilating and heating the interior.

ELECTRICAL EFFECTS.

The electrical effects and musical equipment are being specially designed for the new house, and within a month it is expected that the house will throw open its doors to the public as a model playhouse of its kind.

Realizing that in time there may be a necessity for vaudeville in this class of theater the lesses have provided a stage, which boasts of the largest proscenium arch opening in Oakland, the necessary structural additions having been made in skeleton so that in less than a day's notice complete stage facilities may be made use of.

WORTHY OF NOTE.

It is something worthy of note that Oakland has been selected as the place for the largest moving picture structure in the country, a fact which has already been heralded abroad, and which is causing the eyes of theatrical men and other investors to be turned in this direction.

The entrance to the theater will be of a spacious character, and, at the same time, one of the most ornate on the Pacific coast. It will not alone attract the attention of the patrons of the theater, but will also arouse the admiration of the passerby.

When the Oakland Photo Theater is opened to the public it is believed it will become at once a favorite with the people and enjoy a most lucrative patronage.

HARRISON SEES THINGS O'NIGHT

Chicago's Mayor Takes Nocturnal Ramble and Letter to Police Follows.

CHICAGO, Sept. 29.—Following a midnight ramble of Mayor Carter H. Harrison through the South Side "Bowery" quarter of Chicago, an order will go out from Chief of Police McWeeny today closing several obscene variety shows and "fake" auction salesrooms.

The mayor, following the example of the renowned Haroun Al Raschid, caliph of Bagdad, but disguised only by the dense crowd, walked along South State street and inspected carefully the attractions that savor of the levee. He was accompanied only by his brother. The inspections resulted in a letter to the head of the police department.

"In looking around town last night," the letter read, "I found conditions pretty rotten in State street south of Van Buren. One of the last acts of my administration before leaving office in 1905 was to give orders looking to the cleaning up of the old-time levee. Today State street south of Van Buren, while not so vile as it used to be, is a cheap imitation of a midway show. At 408 State street they advertise the 'grizzly bear' dance. They have also suggestive pictures of women in costume. They have a barker in front and regular midway music. This character of show has no place in a city."

AROSEMENA GIVEN ORDER TO RESIGN

Must Lease Office if He Would Seek Re-election in Panama.

PANAMA, Sept. 29. — The national assembly's hostility to President Arosemena and his scheme for re-election has evidenced itself strikingly in a declaration passed by a majority vote, insisting that the President must resign his office six months before the date set for the elections if he desires to enter the lists as a candidate.

The declaration issued in response to Arosemena's message convening the special session, gives the assembly's interpretation of the constitutional provision that no citizen may run for President who "has discharged the duties within the six months preceding the day of election."

Arosemena some time ago obtained a grant of six months' "vacation," which he planed to begin exactly six months prior to election day. His lawyers assured him that it would not be necessary for him to give up his office, as he would comply with the letter of the law by merely absenting himself on leave.

WICKERSHAM STILL IN THE RING HE SAYS

NEW YORK, Sept. 29.—"Well, I'm still in the ring," declared Attorney General Wickersham as he was skipping like a boy from the links of the Rockaway Hunting club and was reminded that the steel trust, through the Morgan-Gary statement issued Tuesday night, had boldly defied the government to attack it.

"This exercise is what keeps me in fighting trim," Wickersham volunteered with obvious pride, surveying the while the sight of his bared arms, which stood out like whipcords.

"Does President Taft's speech, delivered in Iowa, more fully and clearly define the government's policy toward the steel trust and all other big combinations referred to by you several days ago as corporations that were being watched, than has heretofore been done?"

POLICE IN KANSAS FOIL TAFT PLOT

Bomb Discovered Near Where President's Parade Started.

HUTCHINSON, Kas., Sept. 29.—What G. M. Duckworth, chief of detectives, believes to be evidence that there was a well laid plot for the assassination of President Taft in Hutchinson last Tuesday was discovered last night.

Back of a small eating house, not thirty feet from the point where the parade headed by the President, started, was discovered a bomb containing a stick of dynamite eight inches long and three ounces of nitroglycerine. It was arranged with a fuse more than a foot long.

K. C. Beck, county sheriff, received information a few days before the arrival of the President that a scheme was on foot to use an infernal machine against Taft. As a result extraordinary precautions were taken.

It is believed that the watchfulness of the officers thwarted the suspected plot.

BAKER WILL CONTEST TO REST ON MERITS

BOSTON, Sept. 29.—Heirs of Mrs. Mary Baker Eddy, the founder of the Christian Science denomination, are not necessary parties to the friendly suit of the directors to have the trustees convey to them real estate owned by Mrs. Eddy in this city and in Newton, which in her will she directed should go to the church, Judge Horton of the Supreme Court announced yesterday.

Assistant Attorney General Field, representing the commonwealth, claimed that the heirs of Mrs. Eddy now living outside the state should be joined in order that a final decision in the matter might be completed and preclude those heirs, in case they were dissatisfied, from bringing another proceeding. Involved in the case is the validity of certain provisions of the will under the act which prohibits bequests in which the income is more than $2000 annually being given to any one church.

The case will be heard on its merits at a later date.

RAIN BENEFITS ORANGES.

SAN BERNARDINO, Sept. 29.—The first rain of the season fell yesterday and raisin and wine grape growers may suffer heavy loss. The orange growers, on the other hand, are very much pleased, as the rain has washed the dust from te fruit and opened the pores. The rainfall up to 6 o'clock last evening was 18 of an inch.

DIFFICULT PLAY ON BOARDS AT STANFORD

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Sept. 29. — That "The World and His Wife," to be presented before the Stanford public tomorrow night, is the most difficult undertaking ever ventured by a Stanford cast is a fact beyond doubt. "The World and His Wife" deals with a group of people high up in the Spanish governmental service, including a man, his wife and a friend, but Nirdlinger, the author, treats the trio from an altogether unusual point of view. Instead of bringing some unpleasant and guilty intrigue into the play, and building around that, he takes the same conditions and establishes the absolute innocence of the parties, and shows how even innocence can lead by scandal-loving outsiders to the most terrible consequences.

SAN RAFAEL, Sept. 29.—Dominique Arhancit, a saloon keeper of this city, is lying near death at a local sanatorium as the result of having been thrown upon his head when the carriage in which he was riding collided with another rig between San Anselmo and Fairfax.

Arhancit was returning to his home after a banquet, accompanied by Robert Kappenmann of San Rafael, when his horse became unmanageable and plunged into a horse and buggy coming from the opposite direction and driven by Walter J. Matson of this city. All three men were thrown to the ground, but Kappenmann and Matson escaped without serious injury. The horses ran away and were not found until this morning. Arhancit's recovery is considered doubtful.

INSPECTS RESOURCES IN MT. OLYMPUS RESERVE

HOQUIAM, Wash., Sept. 29. — Having just completed a hard five-days trip over the snow-clad Olympic mountains in connection with the many protests from southwest Washington over the locking up of valuable resources in the Mount Olympus reservation, Chief Forester Henry Graves declared here last night that he believed the resources in government-controlled land should be developed as rapidly and fully as possible.

"It is not yet practicable to sell the timber in government reserves," he said, "but I believe funds should be issued against the time when this can be done. to build roads through forested areas the next step toward the development that must come."

To Be Missionary Will Go to China

MISS GRACE HERRIOTT.

FRUITVALE, Sept. 29.—Following in the footsteps of her brother and sister, Miss Grace Herriott, daughter of Rev. C. C. Herriott of the High street Presbyterian Church, has decided to devote her life to gaining converts for Christianity in China. Along with 50 other missionaries, Miss Herriott is now on the way to China on the Manchuria, just as her brother, Rev. Clarence Herriott, arrived home on furlough from Hanchow. She will first go into the missionary training school at Nanking for a year and will then take up missionary work at Hunan.

Miss Herriott's sister, Mrs. Arthur W. March, wife of Professor March of the Hanchow Presbyterian College, is also engaged in missionary work in that city.

BRIDE AND GROOM ARE BACK FROM TRAVELS

HAYWARD, Sept. 29.—N. Wesley Armstrong who surprised his friends in going to Marysville, Missouri, and getting married while he was supposed to be on a vacation in Southern California, returned home yesterday with his bride, who before her wedding was Miss La Vera Condon, of Marysville. The couple are now receiving the belated congratulations of their many friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Armstrong have been on a month's honeymoon, taking in several states and going into Mexico. While there they saw crowds of Mexican soldiers, but no fighting. The couple say they are glad to be here. During their long trip they experienced all kinds of weather, encountering violent rainstorms in New Mexico, where much of the land is under water. Several affairs are being planned in honor of their homecoming.

NOT IMPRESSED INTO GERMAN ARMY SERVICE

HAYWARD, Sept. 29.—A. C. Frank of this city, of whom it was reported there was a likelihood of his being sent to the front in the German army, has written his brother-in-law, Henry Phillips of Oakland, says he is suffering no greater hardships in Germany than any other traveler who happens for the time being to be in that country.

In a letter dated September 5, and sent from Herstelle on the Weiser, Frank says he and his wife are living comfortably and comparatively unaffected by the war. He says he has not been impressed into the service of the German army. The rumor that he was sent to the front, Phillips thinks, arose from the fact that Frank wrote to his attorney through relatives for his papers and passports. Mr. and Mrs. Frank expect to be back in Hayward as soon as they get out of Germany.

False Teeth Prove Embarrassing Trust to Honest Finder

HAYWARD, Sept. 29.—Who owns the set of false teeth which Hans Anderson found on the front lawn of his home on Second avenue yesterday? Anderson is looking for a claimant, but has given up asking people. He thought the set might belong to some of the neighbors and inquired.

Anderson met with such brisk denials of ownership and stony stares that he gave up the job and is trying to think of a less embarrassing way of disposing of his find. The undershot "clampers" are an upper set in perfectly good condition and it is hardly likely any one would throw them away. The question is how did they come to be on Anderson's lawn?

Some lovers' quarrel, perhaps; consequent gnashing of teeth and hey presto; out pop the false "pearls" and are lost in the dark. That's one supposition; there are others just as feasible. The finder, however, is mainly concerned in getting rid of the set.

WILL DEDICATE POLICE STATION

Big Flag to Be Raised at Ceremony to Be Held in Melrose.

MELROSE, Sept. 29.—Dedication of the new Melrose police station will be held in October. No date has yet been fixed, but the ceremony in which a number of Oakland heads of the police department are expected to participate, will take place as soon as the grounds of the station are laid out. A feature of the dedication will be the raising of a flag presented to the station along with a 40-foot flagpole by a number of the residents of the community. The flagstaff was the gift of A. Swarez, Fred Bammann, George Jannesen, William Schoening, C. U. Henderson, William Thornally and Captain Thorwald Brown. J. R. Talcott presented an American flag, while an eagle decoration was presented by Carroll Kremer of San Francisco.

Captain Brown is superintending the laying out of a lawn and garden around the police station, which will help to give the building more the appearance of a private residence than a police station.

The equipping of the emergency hospital at the Melrose station by a number of prominent people who are interested in hospital work has been taken under consideration by the police department. Several of the physicians in the neighborhood have volunteered their service. At present the emergency hospital lacks the necessary equipment.

YOUR GRAY HAIRS QUICKLY VANISH

A Harmless Remedy, Made From Garden Sage, Restores Color to Gray Hair.

A feeling of sadness accompanies the discovery of the first gray hairs, which, unfortunately, are looked upon as heralds of advancing age. Gray hairs, however, are not always an indication of advancing age, for many people have gray hairs quite early in life. Of course, it is unnatural, and indicates that there is something wrong with the individual, and that Nature needs assistance in correcting the trouble. The same is true of hair that is constantly falling out and becoming thinner every day. If everything is right with Nature, the hair, even in comparatively elderly people, should be long, thick and glossy, without even a streak of gray.

The ideal assistant to Nature in restoring and preserving the hair is Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy, a clean and wholesome dressing for daily use. It not only removes dandruff, but strengthens weak, thin and failing hair and promotes its growth. A few applications will restore faded or gray hair to its natural color.

Get a bottle today, and let it do for you what it has done for thousands of others.

This preparation is offered to the public at fifty cents a bottle, and is recommended and sold by all druggists.

Special agent, Owl Drug Co., 13th and Broadway, Washington and 10th streets, 16th and San Pablo avenue.

WHAT IS AND IS NOT A FRESH EGG?

Answer to Legislative Query Lurkes in Hiding Within the Shell.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 29.—The definition of what is and what is not a fresh egg by the recent legislature, according to the Sonoma County Co-operative Poultrymen's association, has received an interpretation by the San Francisco wholesale men that differs widely from the idea of the men who supply the eggs.

Tomorrow morning at Santa Rosa the association will hold a mass meeting to discuss the market conditions and the alleged attempt on the part of the big dealers of San Francisco to control the market.

The dealers in San Francisco say there is no foundation for the assertion that an "egg combine" exists here. A prominent dealer said last night:

"Some of the packers, who have cold storage facilities, may have kept eggs for an unusually long time, and placed them on the market advantageously. In fact, I believe this is true. Thirty days ago there were conditions of that kind here, but if they exist today—and I am in a position to know—I am not aware of it."

PIPPIN BOARD TO RECONSIDER CASE

Washington Orders New Finding from Courtmartial at Vallejo.

VALLEJO, Sept. 29.—Officials at Mare island were astounded yesterday to receive a telegram signed by the secretary of the navy stating that the Pippin court martial board must reconvene to reconsider their findings in the case of the accused paymaster, as well as that of his clerk, J. V. Fuller. The case will be reopened Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock, and speculation as to just what action will be taken is rife.

The only possible solution of the order is that the navy department has ruled that the recommendation submitted by the Mare island board was not in accordance with the voluminous amount of evidence submitted. The rumor has gained universal circulation on the navy yard that the board had recommended that Pippin serve seven years in prison and that his clerk, Fuller, be dishonorably discharged from the service. The notice to reconvene is a decided victory for Pippin.

RULES UNLOADED GUN IS CONCEALED WEAPON

Sustaining a judgment handed down by Police Judge Edgar of Berkeley, Judge William S. Wells, sitting in the criminal department of the Superior Court, yesterday held that an unloaded revolver carried in the hip pocket of a man's trousers was a concealed weapon within the meaning of the law.

J. P. Fifeley, a teamster in the employ of the Sunset Lumber Company, was stopped in Berkeley by Policeman F. H. De Pue, Jr. on August 30, while making a delivery, and asked to surrender his "gat." The teamster produced an unloaded pistol out of his hip pocket and seven cartridges to fit the weapon from his front trousers pocket. He was arrested and charged with carrying a concealed weapon.

Judge Edgar found him guilty and fined him $10, with the alternative of five days in the county jail. From this judgment Fifeley appealed to the Superior Court.

PIONEER DOCTOR DIES ACROSS BAY

Dean of Cooper Medical College Dead at Age of 71 Years.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 29.—Dr. Henry Gibbons, Jr., one of the best known physicians in the State and dean of Cooper Medical College since its foundation, died yesterday after an illness of a month at his residence in Twentieth avenue. He was 71 years old. Surviving him are six children and seven grandchildren.

Dr. Gibbons was a native of Wilmington, Del., but came to this State with his parents in the year following the discovery of gold. He entered the University of the Pacific at 16 years of age, after a course in the grammar and high school and graduated with honors with the class of '61.

Answering the call for volunteers of President Lincoln in 1863, he went to Washington and entered the army of the Potomac as a surgeon. After several months' service in the field he was assigned to the hospital corps because of unusual skill in surgery and remained in charge of one of the hospitals in Washington until the close of the war.

PIONEER RESIDENT.

He returned to San Francisco in 1866, after a visit to his old home in Delaware, and resumed the practice of his profession. In 1868 he was elected dean of the University of the Pacific, his alma mater, and when that institution amalgamated with Cooper Medical College in 1871, he became its first dean and continued in that position until his death. He was one of the founders of the Pacific Medical and Surgical Journal and with his father, Henry Gibbons, Sr., conducted the paper successfully for many years.

While not active in politics in recent years, he was one of the leaders for reform in the early days. As health officer from 1871 to 1876 he maintained a high state of efficiency in the health department and created many reforms in its personnel. He was emeritus professor of Stanford at the time of his death.

EMPLOYE OF NAVY YARD IS ARRESTED

Alleged to Have Distributed Obscene Pictures Among School Girls.

VALLEJO, Sept. 29.—Eric Okleund, an electrician at the Mare Island Navy Yard, was arrested yesterday on a complaint sworn to by Chief of Police William T. Sanford, charging the distribution of indecent pictures. Okleund is 36 years old, married and the father of two children. His arrest took place at the naval station following an investigation of a complaint made Wednesday by Mrs. Florence D. McKiernan, principal of the Grant school in South Vallejo. Okleund lives in South Vallejo near the school.

Okleund is alleged to have distributed the pictures where the young girls played at the Grant school.

Yesterday Mrs. McKiernan asked a committee of girls who were working in the interest of cleaning up South Vallejo, why they did not visit the Okleund home. She was told they were afraid of Okleund. Inquiries brought forth a revolting story.

Okleund is accused also of taking photographs of undraped school girls. His preliminary examination will be held tomorrow.

LEAVITT AGAIN WORRIES EDUCATORS OF STATE

SACRAMENTO, Sept. 29.—State Superintendent of Public Instruction Hyatt has been informed that Max E. Leavitt is again operating his Pacific Coast Teachers' agency in San Francisco, and is this year using the name of Edith Barton in his alleged impositions on school boards throughout California, Nevada and Oregon.

With this name Leavitt secures positions in as many schools as possible, and at the last moment, it is said, "Miss Barton" resigns in favor of some client who has applied to Leavitt for a job, paying a fee of $32 to secure it. This resignation is presented on the day school is to open by the substitute.

DRINKS LYSOL IN SUICIDE ATTEMPT

Mother Assigns as Reason the Fear Child Was to Be Taken From Her.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 29.—Fearing that she would lose the custody of her little two and one-half year old daughter Dina, and following, as she claims, an unpleasant interview with her husband, Mrs. Josephine Powers attempted suicide this morning by swallowing a quantity of lysol. "I lost one child and to lose the other would be worse than death," said Mrs. Powers this morning, at the Central Emergency Hospital, where she is recovering from the effect of her rash deed. "I would rather die than lose little Dina," she concluded.

Mrs. Powers was divorced from her husband some years ago, the custody of her boy being given into the hands of her husband. Later she married Peter Powers and early this year some difficulties arose and the couple separated, divorce proceedings being contemplated, according to Mrs. Powers' statement. She went to Los Angeles and claims that her husband repeatedly asked her to return to him, which she did three days ago, the couple going to live at 235 Clay street. This morning, according to her story, Powers told her that the reconciliation was off and saying that he would attempt to obtain her child, she made the endeavor to end her existence.

MILLION IN "DUST" COMING ON STEAMER

SEATTLE, Sept. 29.—The Northwestern, the last steamer to leave Nome next month, will bring out $1,000,000 in gold dust and will carry also all the persons who do not intend to winter in the northern camp. It is estimated that 2000 persons will remain in Nome as against 2600 last winter.

Practically all of the rich placer ground that could be worked by hand has been exhausted, and the big dredges must handle the remainder of the auriferous earth. In spite of the lateness of the season's begining, the dredgers have done well.

One concern paid 100 per cent on the capital stock. It is estimated that dredging operations near Nome will continue 50 years.

ACCOMPLICE TO TESTIFY.

NEW YORK, Sept. 29.—After a long conference between F. Tennyson Neely and Abel I. Smith, assistant United States district attorney, it became known last night that Neely will be used by the government as its star witness in the trial of Jared Flagg, the 52 per cent a year financier.

SALOON-KEEPER BLAMED FOR EFFECTS OF RUM

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Sept. 29.—If a saloonkeeper sells a man liquor, and the man, becoming intoxicated, smashes up the saloonkeeper's goods, the saloonist alone is responsible, according to a ruling by Judge Tyner, who discharged Peter Gross, charged with having broken a plate glass window in a local saloon, where he had been imbibing.

INHERITANCE TAX IS PAID BY KEITH HEIRS

SACRAMENTO, Sept. 29.—Inheritance tax to the amount of $3262.85 was received by State Controller Nye from the heirs of the estate of the late artist, William Keith, yesterday. The estate is worth $250,000. Because the inheritance tax was paid within six months the State gave a rebate of 5 per cent.

If you were to use, for each kind of washing, cleaning, scouring and scrubbing, one of the so-called special preparations which are made, you would have an imposing and expensive array of chemicals, washing compounds, cleaning pastes, etc.

There is one cleaner that has the virtues of all and the faults of none. Use Gold Dust and you have no need of borax, ammonia, kerosene or naphtha.

Do not use borax, soap, naphtha, soda, ammonia or lecsene with GOLD DUST. GOLD DUST has all desirable cleansing qualities in a perfectly harmless and lasting form.

DYNAMITE MYSTERY MAY BE SOLVED

FAIR SLAYER COLLAPSES IN COURT

Mrs. Olive Hagan Appears to Answer Charge of Murdering Lover.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 29.—Falling into the arms of her mother, who sprang to the rail of the dock to support her, Mrs. Olive Hagan, who shot and killed Crayton Putnam, collapsed today when she appeared before Superior Judge Cabaniss to answer to a murder charge.

Mrs. Hagan, a young San Jose matron, in a fit of passion shot and killed her sweetheart, Crayton Putnam, a month ago. Her counsel, Attorney Crawford, found a defect in the complaint against her, which failed to state that "she did then and there" commit murder. In consequence the district attorney was given until Saturday to file an amended information.

Mrs. Hagan and Putnam had been lovers in San Jose. The young woman, believing that Putnam had ceased to regard her with affection and angered at his refusal to furnish her with money in her extremity, came here and shot him in his room in an O'Farrell street boarding house.

MRS. KNOWLAND WILL LECTURE FOR WOMEN

ALAMEDA, Sept. 29.—Mrs. J. R. Knowland will speak at the meeting of the Missionary Society of the First Presbyterian Church on Friday at the home of Mrs. Edwin Fond James, when a musical program will also be part of the afternoon's entertainment.

Mrs. Knowland will talk on the work of the late Mrs. Wilson, wife of President Wilson, in the slums of Washington, and will also speak of the social life of Washington.

There will be musical numbers by an orchestra of young girls, with Miss Margaret and Miss Irene Smith, sopranos, and harp solos by Mrs. C. Brown.

Mrs. A. J. Burgner is chairman of the committee, which is composed of Mrs. F. L. Nash, Mrs. Edwin Fond James, Mrs. W. Underhill, Mrs. Waldo Parkuhrst and Miss Anna Fox.

SON OF STATE PIONEER GROWER PASSES AWAY

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 29.—Joseph C. Wolfskill died last night at his ranch near Manka Carner, Solano county. He was the son of the late Mathius Wolfskill.

Wolfskill crossed the plains with ox teams and wagons and is a descendant of the Wolfskills who settled in Missouri in 1809. He was born in Howard county, Mo., November 23, 1843. He married Mary Blake, in 1889, who, with three children, Mathias Reed, Jerena Loraine and Clarance, survive him. He was at one time a member of the California Legislature.

The Wolfskills were the first to raise fruit in the state, and trees planted in the early days have been photographed for use at the Exposition.

TRINKETS FOR 'MELTING POT' WORTH $3000

CHICAGO, Sept. 29.—Gold and silver trinkets valued at $3000, the first "melting pot" offerings from suffragettes in the west for a fund to promote a national suffrage campaign, was sent to the New York headquarters today by Mrs. Medill McCormick. The trinkets will be forwarded to the Philadelphia mint to be converted into bullion.

All on Board Tahoma Are Reported Safe

WASHINGTON, Sept. 29.—Commandant Bertholf of the revenue cutter service received word today from Unalaska that all the officers, members of the crew and other persons aboard the cutter Tahoma when she was wrecked on an Alaskan reef, September 21, have been found and are safe.

There were eighty-three persons aboard the Tahoma when she struck. The steamer Cordova picked up sixty and the remaining twenty-three were supposed to have made a landing on one of the numerous islands. Details of the rescue were not given in the message received by Commander Bertholf, but it was believed the remaining survivors were found either by the Cordova or the survey ship Patterson, both of which were deflected from their ordinary courses to search the Aleutian waters.

Hold Bank Cashier on Charge of Fraud

OLYMPIA, Wash., Sept. 29.—State Representative W. Dean Hays, cashier of the Olympia Bank and Trust Company, which closed its doors last Wednesday, was arrested last night on information furnished by State Bank Examiner W. E. Hanson, charging Hays with having received deposits after the bank became insolvent. Hays was released on $10,000 bond. The failure of the Olympia Bank and Trust Company was attributed to the recent failure of the United States National Bank of Centralia, Wash., in which the local bank carried most of its reserve.

"General" Jones to Lead Suffrage Army

NEW YORK, Sept. 29.—The pilgrimage of suffragists which is to pick up delegations at every town and city while en route to Rochester, where the state suffrage convention will be held on October 7, will start Friday from two points at the east end of Long Island.

Miss Rosalia Jones, who has led several suffragist marching expeditions from this city to Albany and Washington, will be commander-in-chief of the delegations of the women, who will travel to Rochester in automobiles.

Swedish Parliament Has Socialist Gain

STOCKHOLM, Sweden, Sept. 29, via London.—The final results of the general election for the Swedish parliament show that the Socialists have 57 seats, the Conservatives 86 and the Liberals 57. The Liberals lost fourteen seats to the Socialists. The Conservatives neither lost nor gained, yet at the conclusion of the war it is expected that a Socialist government will be formed.

New Revolution Averted in Mexico

CARRANZA TO YIELD TO FRIENDS

All Northern Chiefs to Be Eliminated as Candidates Is Belief.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 29.—With a general conference between the Carranza and Villa forces but two days off, Washington officials declared today that all differences are near settlement and that Mexico will not be subjected to another revolution.

General Carranza yesterday answered a message sent by General Francisco Villa's division of the army which, while protesting royalty, asked the first chief of the Constitutionalists to resign in favor of Fernande Iglesias Calderon, thus maintaining the honor of the Constitutionalist cause and preventing bloodshed, anarchy and possible intervention.

While the text of General Carranza's answer has not been made public, government officials are most optimistic regarding the results which it may have. It is semi-officialy stated that the general conference is to be held from October 1 to October 5, when all differences between Villa and Carranza will be amicably adjusted through an understanding that no northern chief shall be a candidate for either temporary or permanent president.

A feeling of optimism prevailed in administration circles where officials hoped the elimination of both Carranza and Villa as presidential candidates would heal the breach and bring peace.

BISHOPS PROTEST.

BALTIMORE, Sept. 29.—Following a conference today with Cardinal Gibbons, bishops in attendance on the convention of the American Federation of Catholic Societies adopted a report protesting against the recognition by the United States of any government in Mexico that does not guarantee religious liberty. This report was later adopted by the convention and it was decided to send a delegation to Washington this afternoon to lay the whole matter of alleged atrocities on Catholics in Mexico before President Wilson.

The resolution, it is understood, denounces the outrages which it alleges are being perpetrated against Catholics in Mexico; deplore "the silence of the press on the subject, calls on this government to right the wrongs," and urges the president not to recognize any government in Mexico, which does not guarantee religious liberty in its fullest sense.

TROOPS TO AID HILL.

DOUGLAS, Ariz., Sept. 29.—A brigade from Manzanillo has been ordered to Guaymas to participate in the Sonora campaign according to a massage to General Hill, the Carranza commander at Naco, which was relayed through here today. This force, formerly commanded by General Juan Cabral, has been instructed to co-operate with the force of 10,000 men under General Iturbide, which is supposed to be moving from Sinaloa.

Carranza officials at Agua Prieta received word today that the United States authorities at Washington had granted permission to General Hill to send the men wounded in the battle of Santa Barbara, Friday to Naco, Arizona or to this city for treatment.

Wilson Confers With Conciliator Davis

WASHINGTON, Sept. 29. — President Wilson conferred today with Hywell Davies, one of the department of labor conciliators, who drew the plan for mediation of the Colorado coal strike. It was said he was planning a definite move to bring about a settlement soon.

The President is reluctant to leave federal troops in the strike zone much longer and feels that the operators should accept the plan already agreed to by the miners.

AD MEN FORM BUREAU OF COMMERCIAL CLUB

Seventy-five new members to the Commercial Club marched in a body today when, at the joint luncheon of this noon, the Oakland Advertising Association became the Advertising Bureau of the Oakland Commercial Club. The luncheon today was the result of several weeks of negotiation, resulting in a unanimous vote of the organization for affiliation. At the luncheon today Edward L. Trefz, field secretary of the National Chamber of Commerce, addressed the meeting.

President Harmon Bell called the meeting to order, introducing B. A. Forsterer, chairman of the executive committee handling the membership campaign. Forsterer gave a brief account of the work, declaring that more territory is still to be covered, and many more members are still to be secured. "The club's financial success is assured," declared the speaker. "Already our income is several thousand dollars over that under the old system."

W. W. Cribbens announced the affiliation of the Advertising Association. A unanimous vote at once accepted the offering.

Trefz spoke on co-operation. "Your club today," he declared, "already ranks first of any commercial organization in the nation. Now you must work. Your city depends on you. Did you ever hear a man ask what he would get out of a good move? The question is not this. It is what will you put in?"

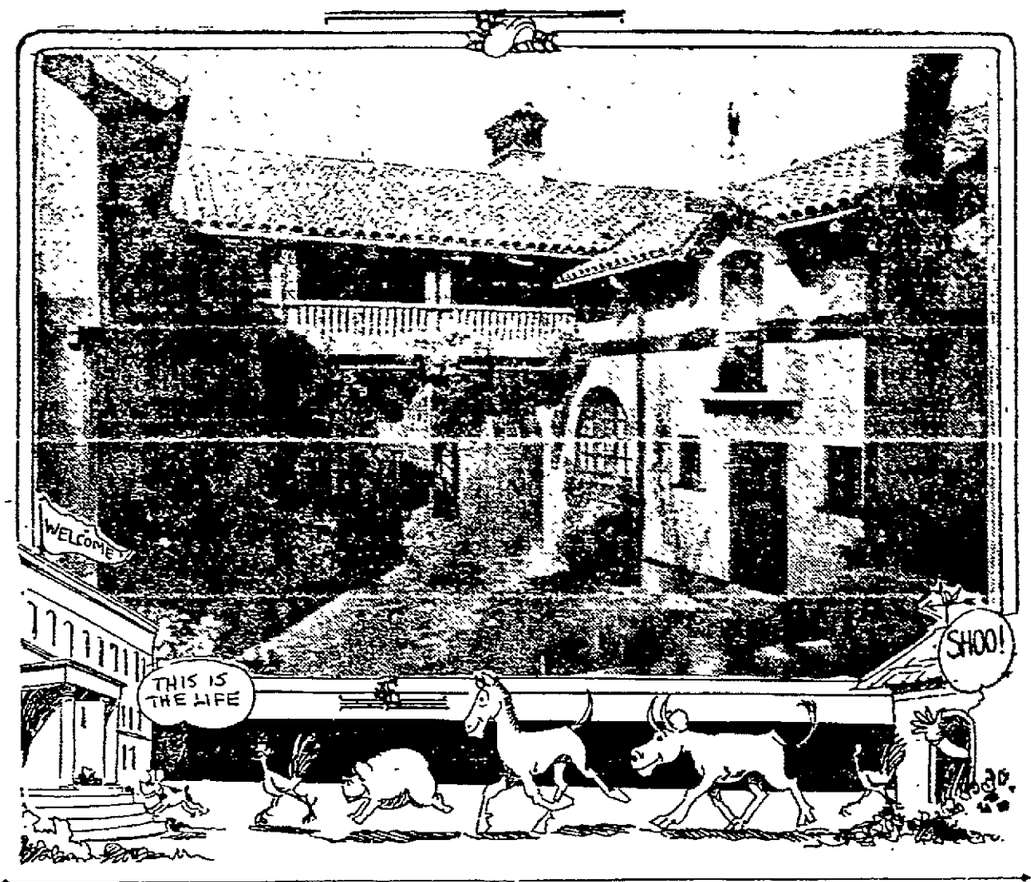

Trefz closed with an appeal to the members to work. "The cry of the modern city is 'Give us men!'" he declared. "Will you answer the call?"

The club will meet at luncheon again Thursday.

SUES AUTO RACER

Barney Oldfield Charged With Breaking Seven Ordinances at One Time.

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 29. — Barney Oldfield, automobile speed king who achieved fame as a record-breaker when many of the present racing drivers were schoolboys, added a new record to his string today when a suit charging him with having broken seven city ordinances at one time was filed against him.

It was also charged that the speed king, whose pace on a straightaway is over 100 miles an hour, struck a man on a motorcycle while traveling at the snail's pace of 30 miles an hour. Oldfield is asked to pay $60,000.

Chris Ringhousen is the plaintiff in the suit. He alleged as follows:

"On September 22, 1914, 4 p. m., I was riding a motorcycle west on Eleventh street. Oldfield was driving a machine north on Flower. We collided at the intersection.

"Oldfield was traveling 30 miles an hour, in violation of the 20-mile ordinance for the entire city, the 12-mile an hour ordinance for the district where the accident happened and the 10-mile an hour ordinance for street crossings. He also did not stop behind a street car discharging passengers; didn't blow his horn; failed to give right of way to vehicles approaching on the right at intersections; attacked me after the accident when he was accused of negligence, and then used loud, unusual and abusive language and called me names."

The damages are divided into a demand for $25,000 for personal injuries, $25,000 for being attacked and $10,000 for injured feelings from being called names.

Lad's Life Crushed Out by Automobile

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 29.—An automobile containing three prominent society women of this city which was being driven along Courtland avenue this morning ran over and killed James Dunn, the 8-year-old son of Harry Dunn of 497 Courtland avenue. The machine was driven by Ernest Williams of 1446 Filbert street and contained Mrs. William Haas, Mrs. Belle Schwabacker and Mrs. Samuel Lilienthal.

Little James Dunn had been sent to the butcher shop at the corner of Courtland and Andover street by his mother to buy some stock. He had made his purchase and ran out of the store and across the pavement without observing the speeding car. He was struck and his little body crushed. When picked up he was almost lifeless and succumbed within a few moments. Williams was arrested and charged with manslaughter.

FILE BANKRUPTCY PETITION.

NEW YORK, Sept. 29.—A voluntary petition in bankruptcy was today filed in the federal district court against the Atlantic Gas and Electric Company, a corporation incorporated in the state of Connecticut with offices in this city. The petition, which was filed by C. N. Phil, first vice-president, gives assets of $20,000 and liabilities of $2,478,212.

WILL BE HONOR GUEST.

Stable and Garage So Pleasing That Family Takes Possession.

"I love the cows and chickens—but they can't have my house!"

The "barn house" may become a society fad. To live in a barn isn't a preposterous plan, if the place is fixed up right. Any one who doesn't believe it has only to inspect the beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. Duncan McDuffie, on the Tunnel road, Claremont, to be convinced. There's a weather vane, hay chute, cow stable and garage. It's one of the prettiest of the Berkeley residences, according to architects, for all it was once a stable.

It all happened by accident, too. Mr. and Mrs. McDuffie planned an elaborate home, but built the garage and stable first, on general lines of the proposed mansion. Then, work not having been commenced on the home, they decided temporarily to live in the stable. Paper-hangers, decorators and other experts were called in. The garage was made into a dining room. The cow stable became a sitting room. There were all kinds of cubby holes in hay bins and harness closets. Decorations were added.

Hardwood floors and oak wainscoting finished the remodeled barn—and now the only remnants of its former nature are in the weather vane, with the rooster on top and the doors of the hay press and cow stable. Even these have brass trimmings.

And now no less than six new Berkeley homes are going up with weather vanes on them.

Senate Considers Anti-Trust Measure

WASHINGTON, Sept. 29.—Debate on the Clayton anti-trust bill conference agreement before the senate as the unfinished business was continued today. The fight on the measure is being led by Senator Reed of Missouri, assisted by Senators Nelson, Borah and Kenyon for the Republican side.

Senator Reed is making a vigorous attack on the bill, asserting that the conferees had so emasculated it as to repudiate the Democratic platform and the wishes of President Wilson as outlined in his trust message to Congress. The Republicans also contend that the measure has been emasculated. When consideration of the bill was resumed today, the opponents of the measure were ready to continue their attacks.

Senator Reed's fight took on the aspects of a filibuster. Calls for quorums and searches for absentees followed in quick succession. The Missouri Senator charges the conferees with having pulled the "teeth of the bill."

Three More Treaties of Peace on Way

WASHINGTON, Sept. 29.—Three more of Secretary Bryan's peace commission treaties are on the way to consummation. One with Greece will be signed soon, the Russian Ambassador will confer with Mr. Bryan tomorrow over the details of another, and still another between the United States and Sweden is being prepared.

SET "NEWSPAPER DAY."

A "newspaper day" for Oakland, at which all citizen will be asked to send a local newspaper to some friend in the east for the purpose of advertising the city, is the latest publicity plan of the Oakland Chamber of Commerce. The project was outlined at the last meeting of the Chamber of Commerce, when October 1st was set as "Oakland Newspaper Day."

RIGHT FAITH, BUT---

Bride Draws Color Line, and Judge Takes Minister's Place.

Because Police Judge Henderson of Sacramento was kind hearted Floyd Allson Hill of Oakland managed to get married, despite the anger of the bride-to-be, who for a time made it appear that there wasn't going to be a wedding at all. News of the affair arrived in Oakland today, and friends are wiring congratulations.

The judge was sleeping soundly on Saturday night when his telephone bell rang long and insistently. It was Hill. He said that he was in trouble and that he needed someone to marry him—right away. The judge, surprised, slightly mystified, but game, dressed and betook himself to the scene of the wedding.

"You see," explained the bridegroom-to-be, "I came here to marry Miss Esther Wilson, of 1227 E street. She wanted a Methodist minister, and I looked in the telephone book and picked one out.

"When he came we found that he was a colored man, and Miss Wilson got angry. Now I have to get a judge. I can't take chances on another minister; she's mad enough as it is now."

The judge performed the ceremony and returned here, followed by blessings showered on his head by the happy couple.

Mr. and Mrs. Hill will arrive in Oakland in a few days after a honeymoon.

Cigarettes, $47,610 in Value, for Orient

TACOMA, Wash., Sept. 29.—Cigarettes, 30,100,000 of them, valued at $47,610 are in the cargo of the Japanese steamer Panama Maru leaving here today for the Orient. This is one of the largest shipments of the kind ever sent from this port. It measures 602 cases and is for delivery at Hong Kong.

EFFORT MADE TO UNEARTH CULPRITS

Grand Jury and the Sheriff's Office Continue Inquiry Into Robbery.

MARTINEZ, Sept. 29.—That sensational developments may be expected within a few days in the reported dynamite plot exposed by the finding of explosives cached in various parts of Contra Costa county, was stated by the sheriff's office today.

Public statements and denials have flown thick and fast the last week, and the reported meeting of the grand jury in secret session, following the robbery of a Hercules Powder Company freight car loaded with explosives, has placed a cloud of mystery around the alleged plot.

WARRANT ISSUES.

J. C. Emerson, who was reported taken into custody on Friday by Contra Costa officials with a suitcase full of dynamite in his possession, has never been arrested and a "John Doe" Emerson warrant has just been issued, charging him with having high explosives in his possession, according to Under Sheriff William Veale.

Thomas J. Mooney, thrice acquitted in Contra Costa county of having high explosives in his possession, is reported to have appeared before the grand jury yesterday, charging the presence of a gigantic dynamite plot.

The district attorney's office denied that any action had been taken by the jury on these charges and that only routine business had been consummated.

Ship Burns at Sea; Two of Crew Missing

NASSAU, Bahama Islands, Sept. 29.—The American steamer Foxton Hall was burned off Watlings Island September 25. The members of her crew, with the exception of two men, who are missing, have arrived here.

The Foxton Hall was among the first vessels to take out an American register, since the outbreak of hostilities in Europe. She originally was a British steamer and the change of registration was made at Colon on September 17, on which date the Foxton Hall sailed from the isthmus for Perth Amboy, N. J.

The steamer was commanded by Captain Stevenson and was of 4247 tons and 363 feet long. She was built in 1902.

COUNCILMAN'S SON IS HERO OF ELOPEMENT

News of the elopement of Miss Glenna G. Pond of Richmond and Ernest J. Willis of that city, was revealed last night by means of a telephonic message to their parents. The bridal couple obtained a license in Oakland, where they were married.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. F. S. Pond of 1219 Barrett avenue, Richmond, and is a graduate of the Richmond High School. Willis is the son of City Councilman J. B. Willis of Richmond and is a clerk in the employ of the Standard Oil Company.

The couple are now enjoying their honeymoon trip. They will reside in Richmond.

Mrs. Prosser was granted the custody of their minor child, for whose maintenance she is to receive a sum of $80 per month permanently. She was awarded the property in San Anselmo, amounting to about $5000.

$800 IS NEEDED FOR BAND CONCERTS IN PARK

Public Spirited Citizens Called On to Boost Sum for Good Cause.

LAKESIDE TO ATTRACT CROWDS ON SUNDAY

Subscriptions to Be Asked That Music May Be Oakland Feature.

There yet remain about $800 to be subscribed by the public-spirited citizens of Oakland to make up the $1000 which is to be raised by the people of this city for the purpose of completing the fund of $3000 required for the giving of thirty band and orchestra concerts in Lakeside Park during the pleasant Sundays of the present and the coming seasonable weather of next year.

Cards suggesting subscriptions have been sent to the addresses of a number of leading citizens who are known to take interest in public matters, but thus far Secretary Vogt of the Oakland Park Commission has not received as many responses as he expected.

It is true, however, that there has as yet been little time lost and the friends of the move say that they have no doubt the sum sought, merely about $800, will be forthcoming as soon as the friends of refined and elevating outdoor recreation realize the importance of an enterprise of this kind, which will show, among other things, that Oakland is sufficiently able to entertain her people at home. This means that there will be attracted to this city people from other sections where music in the parks is not to be had and it will also serve to keep at home on Sundays hundreds of people who go elsewhere on this day and spend liberally of the money which they earn during the week and which should be deposited here or at least spent in this city and vicinity, where it could be kept in circulation practically among the same people.

SUBSCRIPTIONS ADDED.

Since the last announcement made in these columns there have been two more contributions to the fund, namely, that of James P. Taylor, the coal dealer, $20, and Joe Martin, a contractor and 'bus man, who subscribed $25.

The contributions to date are as follows:

Oakland Traction Company	$1000
City of Oakland	499
James P. Edoff	100
Pierce Hardware Company	25
Fred Seulberger	25
Morland, Bates & Ayer	25
Percy Walker	25
M. A. Gunst & Co	25
Laymance Real Estate Company	25

The sum above accredited to the city of Oakland represents half of the sum of $1000 which the city has promised, the other half being guaranteed when it will be needed for the purpose of inaugurating the enterprise.

Subscriptions may be forwarded to Commissioner J. P. Edoff of the local Board of Park Commissioners or to Henry Vogt, the secretary of that organization.

LION TAKES PROMENADE ON LONG BEACH PIKE

LONG BEACH, Sept. 29. — Hundreds of people who thronged the Pike Wednesday night did not know that their curiosity, which made them stop while watching the animal, prevented what might have been a serious accident, when a tame lion escaped from his chain and started down the walk.

Madame Del Ray, his owner, had hold of the lion's mane and attempted to turn him back to the theater, but he carried her along as if she was a child. Although almost white with fear, the plucky little woman retained her presence of mind, while the people who crowded the walk thought that she was taking the animal out on exhibition.

After sauntering down the walk until he became tired of the hard concrete the animal turned toward the sand and, finding a suitable place, lay down to rest. Then the other attendants had an opportunity to attach the chain.

MORGAN IN WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 29.—J. Pierpont Morgan, accompanied by his son-in-law, H. Y. Satterlee, arrived in town late last night and is stopping at the Arlington hotel. The presence of the distinguished financier so near to the Department of Justice is of considerable interest in view of the recent statement that the steel corporation is no violator of the law.

HANDS WOULD BURN LIKE FIRE

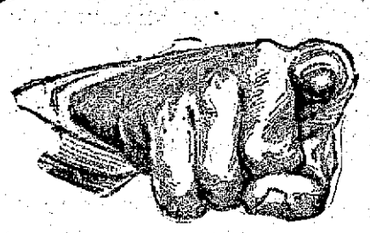

Could Lay Pin in Cracks. Four Long Years of Eczema. Only Relief in Scratching. Used One Set of Cuticura Remedies. Hands Entirely Well.

"I can truthfully say Cuticura Remedies have cured me of four long years of eczema. About four years ago I noticed some little pimples coming on my little finger, and not giving it any attention, it soon became worse and spread all over my hands. If I would have them in water for a long time, they would burn like fire and large cracks would come. I could lay a pin in them. After using all the salves I could think of, I went to three different doctors, but all did me no good. The only relief I got was scratching.

"So after hearing so much about the wonderful Cuticura Remedies, I purchased one complete set, and after using them three days my hands were much better. To-day my hands are entirely well, one set being all I used." (Signed) Miss Etta Narber, R. F. D. 2, Spring Lake, Mich., Sept. 26, 1910.

No stronger evidence than this could be given of the success and economy of the Cuticura Remedies in the treatment of torturing, disfiguring humors of the skin. A single hot bath with Cuticura Soap and a gentle anointing with Cuticura Ointment are often sufficient to afford immediate relief in the most distressing cases and permit rest and sleep when all else fails. Cuticura Soap and Ointment are equally effective in preserving, purifying and beautifying the skin, scalp, hair and hands.

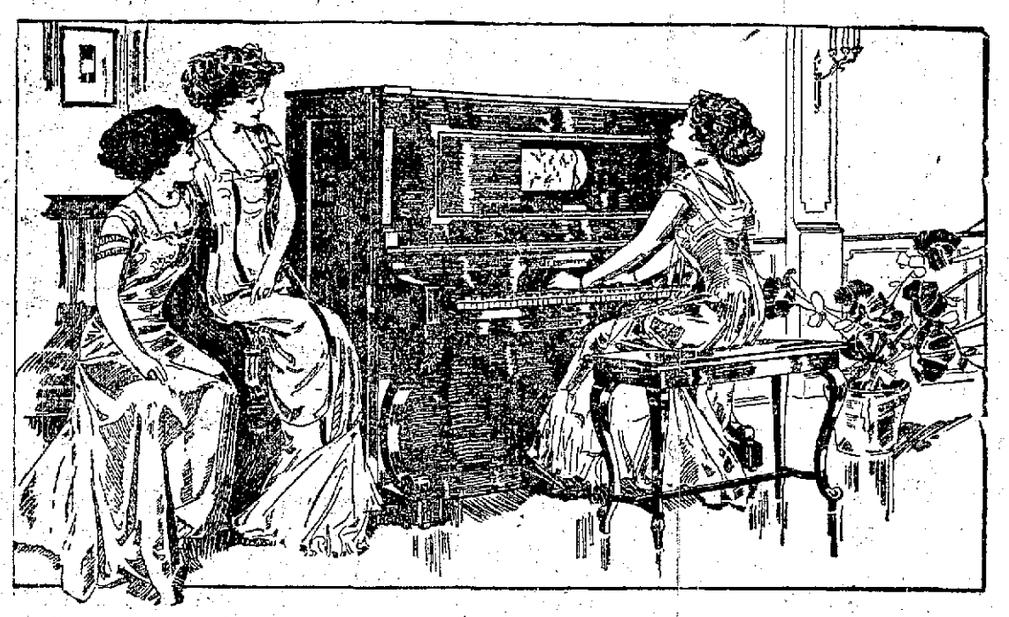

Although Cuticura Soap (25c.) and Cuticura Ointment (50c.) are sold throughout the world, a liberal sample of each, with 32-p. book on the skin and scalp, will be mailed free on application to Potter Drug & Chem. Corp., Dept. 4B, Boston, Mass.

IMPROVERS OPEN NEW CLUBHOUSE

Mayor Mott Speaks and Program Is Listened to at the Ceremony.

With fanfare of trumpets and the radiance of a thousand candle power of lights the Vernon Rock Ridge hall at College and Lawton avenues Wednesday evening was ushered into its usefulness. Before an audience which packed the spacious hall to its doors a program was rendered which in every way harmonized with the building and the occasion.

The decorations were simple and effective. The interior of the building is so artistic that but little is required to give a stately dignity to the scene. Finished in the rough with a dark stain, there is at once a pleasing delicacy of color and primitive beauty of architecture and workmanship.

Supplemented to this were baskets of ferns hung from projecting supports. The American flag served to set the stage apart from the main hall, and the background of a blue block stone fireplace sufficed to make a combination of bewitching elegance.

The program was complete in its choice and diversified in its parts. Mayor Mott made the principal address of the evening. Other speakers were H. A. Johnson, president of the Federated Improvement Clubs of Alameda county; Commissioner F. C. Turner, Harold Everhart and members of the club.

"The Star Spangled Banner," sung by the audience, served as a fitting climax to a splendid evening.

MAKES FACE LOOK YEARS YOUNGER

In the beauty column of the Washington Star we find the following, written by that eminent authority, Mae Martyn:

"Women who have been doping their faces with powder and vainly striving to attain beautiful complexions, will get the desired results by using instead of face powder, a good spurmax lotion. Such a lotion can be made at small cost, by dissolving 4 ounces of spurmax in ½ pint hot water, then add 2 teaspoonfuls glycerine. Or to make the lotion dry more quickly when applied to the skin, ½ pint witch hazel can be used instead of water.

"This simple lotion is unequaled for refining one's complexion. It makes the skin so soft, smooth and velvety and takes away that shiny, oily, sallow look. It does not show on the skin, nor does it rub off easily like powder. Those who use this lotion find it such a splendid skin whitener and complexion beautifier that they are seldom without it on their dressing table."

BERKELEY Gossip of Students and Residents in University Town AND Social and Personal Happenings of Day in the Island City ALAMEDA

EX-MAYOR IS BACK FROM EUROPE

Despite War, Makes a Quick Trip Back to This Country.

ALAMEDA, Sept. 29. — Former Mayor William H. Noy returned to this city Sunday after a trip lasting only two days, which is remarkable considering the amount of delay caused by the present war. Noy has been visiting in England and Cornwall and has had many thrilling and peculiar experiences during his stay in that country. He went to the old country for the explicit purpose of visiting old friends and relatives and more particularly his brother, who lives in Penzance, Cornwall.

Noy had procured a round trip ticket at the local offices of the Southern Pacific company and had gone as far as England with it and was planning to go on to France and Germany, but failed to do so and remained in London for some time. He was in this city before the war broke out and was fortunate enough to leave London the day before war was declared. He knew nothing of the coming outbreak, but what was rumored throughout the entire country, but upon visiting the tower of London a couple of days before his departure he says that he noticed the great activity among the different companies of troops in that place.

He then went to Penzance and arrived in that town without delay although if he had remained in London another day he would have been forced to remain there for some time as the government took control of the railroads and it was some time before the people stranded in that city could find transportation facilities so that they could get out of the country.

In Penzance he was among friends. The only perplexing difficulty that confronted the former was the time of departure of the Olympic, the ship he was supposed to take on his return to America. It had been scheduled to sail on September 9 but upon writing for the exact time of sailing he found that the ship had been held up and that it would not set sail until September 16, and then the exact place of sailing was not given. After using influence and much delay, Noy succeeded in finding out that the ship would sail from Liverpool on the 16th of the month.

HAD TRAVELERS' CHECKS.

He had several international checks in his possession which were supposed to be good at all times, but owing to the unforseen difficulties he could not convert them into money and it was only by the kindness of some of his boyhood friends in Cornwall that he succeeded in reaching a ship. The town was filled with refugees of all descriptions and all hostelries had been crowded to their capacity, so it was only after many hours of search that Noy at last succeeded in finding a place where he could spend the night, and it was not unusual to find persons that were unable to find rooms or even a bed under any condition.

Next day Noy boarded the Olympic and the voyage for the United States started. On the first day out the ship had gone 324 miles and was encountering very rough weather around the Irish coast owing to a very strong undercurrent at that time of the year.

Precautions were taken as to lights and the other telltale signs of a seacraft. All lights were put out at night that showed above the deck and those below were hidden by black paper which was put over all port holes. Only those lights required by law were permitted on the ship. The log was not given out and the course was changed so no one knew where the ship was going but the ones in command, and a rumor had leaked out that the ship was under direct command of the British admiralty and was closely followed by British men of war and were protected in case any unforseen circumstance came up.

UNABLE TO LEAVE.

Noy states that the German people who were unable to leave England had been well treated providing they did not molest the peace in any way and also the German prisoners he saw at Penzance were given all the comforts the government could allow them and were the same as children at school with only a person to watch them to see that they did not get into mischief. The recruiting stations were crowded and taken to capacity and thousands were hurriedly put into commission when the first call to arms came. Penzance was the scene of much drill and preparation as it was a sea coast town and handy for the recruits to drill.

Noy says that his naturalization papers saved him many trying experiences and he was glad he was a citizen of California, as the people of England call this part of the country. He also says that if the war was not in progress the people of the old countries would be here in force as the exposition is the topic of conversation among the people on the continent.

A Message to Thin, Weak, Scrawny Folks

An Easy Way to Gain 10 to 30 lbs. of Solid, Healthy, Permanent Flesh.

Thin, nervous, undeveloped men and women everywhere are heard to say, "I can't understand why I do not get fat. I eat plenty of good, nourishing food." The reason is just this: You cannot get fat, no matter how much you eat, unless your digestive organs assimilate the fat-making elements of your food instead of passing them out through the body as waste.

What is needed is a means of gently urging the assimilative functions of the stomach and intestines to absorb the oils and fats and hand them over to the blood, where they may reach the starved, shrunken, run-down tissues and build them up. The thin person's body is like a dry sponge—eager and hungry for the fatty materials of which it is being deprived by the failure of the alimentary canal to take them from the food. The best way to overcome this sinful waste of flesh building elements and to stop the leakage of fats is to use Sargol, the recently discovered regenerative force that is recommended to hungry, nervous physicians here and abroad. Take a little Sargol tablet with every meal and notice how quickly your cheeks fill out and rolls of firm, healthy flesh are deposited over your body, covering each bony angle and projecting point. Osgood Bros. drug store and other good druggists have Sargol, or can get it from their wholesaler, and will refund your money if you are not satisfied with the gain in weight it produces as stated on the guarantee in each package. It is inexpensive, easy to take and highly efficient.

Caution:—While Sargol has produced remarkable results in overcoming nervous dyspepsia and general stomach troubles, it should not be taken unless you are willing to gain ten pounds or more, for it is a wonderful flesh-builder.

NEW NATIONALISM SEEN IN RUSSIA

BERKELEY, Sept. 29. — How the European conflict has served to originate in Russia a new nationalism is told by Newton Booth Knox, a London mining engineer, in a letter to his mother-in-law, Mrs. Caroline H. Blossom of this city. Mrs. Knox is Mrs. Blossom's daughter, the former Miss Bessie Blossom of the university.

The Czar may be seen motoring about the streets of Petrograd, declares Knox, who has just returned to London from a business trip to Russia and Siberia, apparently with no more fear of his people than has President Wilson of Americans. Knox continues:

"I noted a wonderful change of feeling in the Russian people since my last visit. A new national spirit has spring into being. I met the first evidences of this in Siberia, where political prisoners were being liberated. Tolerance, for the first time, is being shown the Jews and there are greater liberties for all the people. I saw Emperor Nicholas driving in a motor car through the streets of Petrograd like a private citizen."

Mr. and Mrs. Knox and their small son expect to leave England some time this winter or in the spring for a visit of several months in this city.

SLAYS MOUNTAIN LION NEAR BERKELEY HILLS

BERKELEY, Sept. 29. — Is there a circus encamped somewhere about this region or have the good old days returned when the lion and the spotted leopard roamed their wild ways about the Berkeley hills, dodging pioneer nimrods? George Machado wants to know, and meanwhile he is claiming glory for having laid cold the first mountain lion killed in these regions for many years.

Machado is employed by the Peoples Water Company. Recently he was hunting the ordinary small game which abounds in the region of Orinda Park, which is just over the hills from Berkeley. Suddenly, in the midst of a wooded space on the Cunningham ranch, he came full upon two mountain lions. He dropped one of them, but before he could reload his single-barreled gun, the other had escaped.

At 4 o'clock the Alamedans resumed their journey, visiting Chittenden and going through the Chittenden pass to Watsonville then to Soquel and back by the Hotel de Redwood to Los Gatos and Saratoga and back to Alameda, arriving home late Sunday evening.

ONE OBJECTION TO STOPPING TRAINS

Berkeley Citizen Says Mayor's Proposed Action Would Hurt Prosperity.

BERKELEY, Sept. 29.—Despite the fact that it is two weeks since Mayor Heywood gave a line to the Key Route that it would have to pave the street or quit serving the Shattuck avenue trains, but one single protest from a citizen to this action has been received by the council. This came this morning from B. M. Newmark, a voting engineer.

"Officials who quarrel with public utility when this occurs, goodbye to the prosperity of this city," he declared.

Mayor Heywood declared this morning that the lack of other protests seemed to him a good indication of unanimity of public opinion in support of his stand. He continued:

"We have absolutely no intention of backing down in this matter. I have no idea so far what the company will do in the premises. It has not given us an answer to our last communication. Whatever happens, except it be a court action preventing, the city will have a sufficient force on hand Thursday morning at the town line to prevent the entrance to Shattuck avenue trains."

Police Chief Vollmer stated this morning that he was ready to enforce the Mayor's order to the letter. He would not say what means he proposed taking to stop the trains beyond the flagging of the first one that attempted entrance. More strenuous means would be taken, he intimated, to stop succeeding trains if this first one ran by the flag.

VISITORS RETURN.

ALAMEDA, Sept. 29.—Mrs. A. M. Fassett of San Jose avenue has returned from a visit to Mr. and Mrs. Nathan B. Frisbie, former residents of this city, who are now living at Redding. Mrs. Fassett returned with her son, Howard, who, with his wife and little daughter, motored to Redding about two weeks ago to be the guests of Mrs. Howard Fassett's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frisbie. While in Redding Howard Fassett and Mr. Frisbie made a trip to Mt. Lassen shortly after the last big eruption. They were away for two days and got within 1000 feet of the crater, after arduous climbing over rough country and sliding sand. The motor trip home covered 300 miles and took a day and a half with a stopover at Stockton for the night. Mrs. Howard Fassett and baby will remain for a longer visit with the Frisbies.

WILL DISCUSS PROJECT.

ALAMEDA, Sept. 29. — A meeting of the Civic committee of the Chamber of Commerce, headed by Dr. W. O. Smith, will be held tomorrow night and the question of the proposed natatorium will again be discussed. The members of the electricity commission will be present at this meeting to discuss some of the questions to be considered by the Chamber of Commerce.

VARSITY MAY MEET DEFEAT BY THE "FRESHIES"

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA, Sept. 29.—Will the "Babies" beat the Varsity? This is a matter of grave doubt on the campus, following the yonderful showing of the Freshman team in Palo Alto last week, and tomorrow's game between the freshmen and varsity teams is therefore the object of more interest than such an event has been for years. The game will be played at 4 o'clock tomorrow afternoon on California Field.

GRANDE TRAINING.

VALLEJO, Sept. 29. — Charles Grande started training yesterday for his coming four round bout a week from Friday with Harry Willis, the colored demon who is now in San Francisco. Grande will box Willis in the exposition city.

THOUGHT SHE COULD NOT LIVE

Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Unionville, Mo.—"I suffered from a female trouble and I got so weak that I could hardly walk across the floor without holding on to something. I had nervous spells and my fingers would cramp and my face would draw, and I could not speak, nor sleep to do any good, had no appetite, and everyone thought I would not live. Some one advised me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I had taken so much medicine and my doctor said he could do me no good so I told my husband he might get me a bottle and I would try it. By the time I had taken it I felt better. I continued its use, and now I am well and strong.

"I have always recommended your medicine ever since I was so wonderfully benefitted by it and I hope this letter will be the means of saving some other poor woman from suffering."—Mrs. MARTHA SEAVEY, Box 1144, Unionville, Missouri.

The makers of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound have thousands of such letters as that above—they tell the truth, else they could not have been obtained for love or money. This medicine is no stranger—it has stood the test for years.

If there are any complications you do not understand write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

COUNCIL TO CALL CHARTER ELECTION

Alameda to Establish Commission Form of Municipal Government.

ALAMEDA, Sept. 29. — The freeholders' election is to be held in this city as soon as the law permits, the city council so deciding at its executive session last night. At the meeting of the council next Tuesday evening the preliminary proceedings will be adopted and the date of the election fixed.

It is believed that the freeholders' election can be held shortly after the regular election in November. City Attorney Samuel Proman Jr. has been directed to have the proceedings [illegible] and data concerning the length of time necessary to elapse before the election can be held.

Following the election of the freeholders the body will proceed to frame a commission form of government charter. The voters of Alameda last year decided by straw ballot that such a government is wanted in this city.

The freeholders will consider the various kinds of commission governments in vogue and will frame a charter accordingly. This instrument will then be placed before the electors for adoption. If affirmed the charter will be taken before the 1915 legislature for ratification.

One of the matters that will be brought to the attention of the freeholders will be the necessity of providing permission for the city to do its own street work. The present charter prohibits the city from doing any work over $500 in cost. The council believes that the city can save considerable money by doing its own work.

DISTURBS MOURNERS; SENTENCED TO JAIL

ALAMEDA, Sept. 29. — Because he disturbed the mourners at the funeral of his brother-in-law, Harry Pearson, whose home is on Bank alley, was sent to the county jail for one month. Pearson went to the home of the late Antone Lopez last Saturday afternoon and caused such a disturbance while intoxicated. It is alleged, that he was thrown out and the police were summoned. Police Judge R. B. Tappan this morning lectured Pearson and sent him to the county jail for 30 days to think it over.

Bold Burglar Pays Woman for Breaking Window in House

BERKELEY, Sept. 9.—Mrs. L. Segelhurst of 2950 Linden avenue, Claremont district, heard a noise in her hallway yesterday afternoon and opened the door to investigate. She was confronted by a young man whose apparent immediate attention was to get out.

"What are you doing here?" Mrs. Segelhurst demanded.

"I came into your house to rob it," the young man replied, with little perturbation. "In doing so I broke a window. Here is $1.50 to pay for it."

With that he laid the coins in her hand, made a bolt for the front door, leaped a fence and was gone. When Mrs. Segelhurst reported the matter to the police they told her that it was probably the same man who has robbed recently a number of other houses in that vicinity.

U. C. STUDENTS TO GREET ARCHBISHOP

BERKELEY, Sept. 29. — Archbishop P. W. Riordan is to address the members of the New club, the organization of Catholic students of the University of California, at the clubhouse on Ridge road the evening of October 23. It was chiefly by assistance of the archbishop that funds for the building of Newman hall seven years ago were raised. A public reception to the archbishop will be held in the afternoon, the following committee having been named:

T. A. Dockweiler H. L. Knoop, M. A. Beeton, Miss Eileen Ward, Miss Virginia Mills, Miss Eugenia McCabe, Miss Theresa Meikle, J. E. Stanton, J. C. Costello, J. V. Kimber, Miss Pauline Ench, Miss Agnes Flinn, Miss Gertrude Quinn, Miss Dulcie Gawne and Miss Priscilla Cavagnaro.

ALAMEDA PIONEER DIES.

ALAMEDA, Sept. 29.—Captain John C. Lacey of 944 Eagle avenue, 87 years of age and a native of Milton, Del., died at the Kings' Daughters' Hospital late yesterday. Lacey was an old resident of this state, having lived here for more than thirty years. Deceased is survived by two children, Chas. C. Lacey and Mrs. George Lack, and was also the husband of the late Priscilla Lacey. He belonged to Endeavor Lodge No. 17, F. and A. M., of Milton, Del. No funeral arrangements have as yet been made.

TAX RATE FIXED FOR ALAMEDANS

Council Adjusts City Figure at $1.28; Combined Total $2.70 Per $100.

ALAMEDA, Sept. 29.—The city tax rate for the year 1914-15 will be $1.28, as determined by the city council at its meeting last Wednesday night. The state and county taxes total $1.42, making Alameda's combined taxes for the ensuing year $2.70 on each $100 valuation. The resolution passed by the council to fix the levy will not be signed by the mayor, but will become a law automatically within ten days after passed by the council.

Mayor Otis called the council into executive meeting last night to consider the proposition of adding money to the budget for street work. The mayor stated that he believed the thoroughfares should be improved immediately and that the expense should be included in the tax levy.

J. S. McDowell, Dr. W. O. Smith and E. J. Silver of the Chamber of Commerce addressed the meeting and urged that the council place more money in the levy for streets.

The council then considered the matter at length and it was decided by a vote of seven to one that the rate remain at $1.28. This amount includes $23,000, or 12 cents, for additional street work.

Councilman F. H. Bartlett voted in favor of additional street work, while Councilman George W. Stewart was absent. The remainder of the council voted against the additional street work.

Give the Voters a Chance.

It is announced that Governor Johnson will call an extra session of the Legislature shortly after the special election which will be held next month, to take up such legislation as may be made necessary by the adoption of any or all the amendments submitted to the electorate. As this announcement appears in the San Francisco Bulletin we assume it is authentic, as the Bulletin has special opportunities for learning the Governor's intentions in advance of the general public. However, it has been long known that an extra session would be called late in the year, hence the announcement is not specially significant.

The Governor should not confine his call to the questions presented by the pending constitutional amendments. There are two other matters which should be considered by the Legislature at the earliest possible moment. A redistricting bill should be passed and the primary law amended to permit the holding of a primary to ascertain the preferences of the voters in regard to presidential candidates. The latter demands more immediate attention than the former, but both require speedy action so long as the Legislature is to meet at an early date.

The method of selecting delegates to national conventions at present provided by law is grotesquely absurd and utterly wrong in principle. What is needed is a change in the law that will permit the election of delegates to state conventions of the several parties, which conventions shall meet and elect delegates to the national conventions which will adopt platforms and choose candidates for the presidency—a change that will provide for an expression of public sentiment in matters of such grave importance as the setting forth of party principles and the choosing of presidential nominees. As it now stands the law does not permit this, but does provide a way for juggling with the wishes of the people and with the selection of delegates to national conventions.

Unless the law be amended, the several county conventions which assembled to nominate local officers last year will have to be called together to select delegates to state conventions called to elect national delegates. Manifestly such a proceeding would be a travesty on popular rule. The county conventions which met last year did not have the presidency under consideration. The purpose which called them together had no reference to national politics. The delegates who constituted them were elected without reference to presidential candidates or national policies. They had no mandate from the voters to choose delegates to national conventions, and if they had that mandate would not reflect popular sentiment as it prevails today or will prevail next May. They will not be representative in any sense. They will not meet in response to the wish of the people nor with any authority given by the people. It is precisely as if a coroner's jury should be called together as a grand jury two years after being discharged.

The voters should be given a chance to express themselves at the polls. It is for them to say who shall represent them in the important matter of selecting presidential candidates and declaring national policies. When the county conventions assembled last year it was not known who would be aspirants for the presidency or what the dominant issues in national politics would be. It was not to consider such matters that the delegates to the county conventions were elected. They were empowered only to ratify nominations made at the polls and to declare policies relating to parochial government.

Canada is the third best customer the United States has, the United Kingdom being first and Germany second. It is not likely that the rejection of the reciprocity agreement will disturb the existing trade regulations between Canada and the United States, although the new government of the Dominion is pledged to preferential trade with Great Britain. It is possible, but not probable, that the Borden administration may attempt to erect new tariff barriers against trade with the United States. During the fiscal year ending June 30, 1911, Canada took $269,806,013 worth of American and shipped to us in return nearly $200,000,000 worth of produce. As the reciprocity agreement would have given the Canadian farmers a larger and better market in the United States, it is surprising that they should have rejected it. However, the trade between the two countries, already large, is increasing at a tremendous rate under the present system and, as the balance of trade is in our favor, Americans can afford to accept the result of the election philosophically. Nor is it likely that the Borden ministry will try to disrupt or disarrange the existing trade relations.

"Chump" Clark is what the Houston Chronicle calls the Representative from the Pike county district, State of Missouri. It has taken a Texas man to correctly measure the Bourbon Speaker.

William J. Bryan may not be able to come back, but he can still strike back. Moreover, he shows a decided disposition to do some striking back next year. Heretofore all the buffets have been coming his way. In case he decides to pass a few back the gaiety of the campaign is likely to become hilarious.

Prohibition In Kansas.

An example of the effectiveness of prohibitory laws in suppressing the sale and consumption of liquor is furnished by Wichita, Kan. Wichita is a prosperous city of 60,000 inhabitants. By law the sale of liquor is prohibited in the city and the county in which it is situated. Theoretically the liquor traffic has been completely suppressed there. Yet, strange to say, the national government has issued eighty-four internal revenue licenses for the retailing of liquor in Wichita.

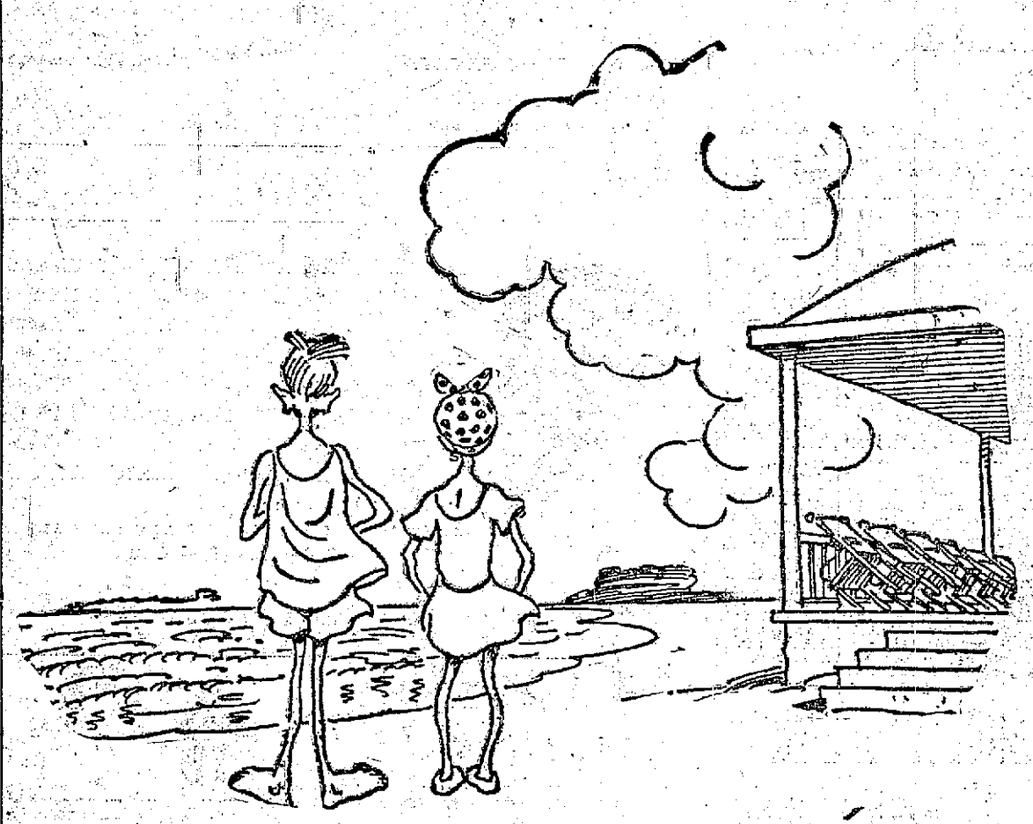

Here is positive proof that there are eighty-four places where liquor is sold at retail in Wichita. It is certain that liquor licenses would not be taken unless liquor was sold by the persons taking them out.

The federal government does not authorize the sale of liquor where it is forbidden by local laws and ordinances, but it collects a license from every person engaged in selling liquor. It does not in any way interfere with the enforcement of prohibitory laws, but it punishes all liquor dealers who fail to take out a license with such severity and certainty that men who sell liquor in defiance of local laws do not dare defy the national government. Therefore we find that Wichita is a dry town in theory only. During a former administration the number of federal liquor licenses ran up to 115, yet at that time a rigid prohibition law was nominally in force.

It is admitted by the prohibition organs that there is a strong sentiment in Wichita in favor of licensing the liquor traffic, and the failure or inability of the local authorities to suppress the business proves the statement to be true. That there is a large local demand for liquor is proved by the issuance of eighty-four internal revenue licenses in the town.

The situation in Wichita is typical. The same conditions exist wherever the sale of liquor is under the ban of the law.

A Regenerator on His Travels.

The following interesting item of news appeared in the New York Sun of September 21, 1911—don't forget the date:

"Rudolph Spreckels of San Francisco and Medill McCormick of Chicago came to town yesterday from Washington and after staying four hours at the Ritz-Carlton on Forty-sixth street went on to Boston. The politicians have it that the two are inquiring into the sentiment in the East in regard to the candidacy of Senator La Follette for the next Presidential nomination. They will come back to New York after looking over Boston."

On the day the Sun represents Rudolph Spreckels as being in New York intriguing in national politics, San Francisco was in the throes of a political campaign of vital import. On the result of that campaign depended the immediate future of San Francisco. The city was making a tremendous effort to right itself and regain its former prestige.

In that crucial contest one presence was conspicuously lacking. One man was absent from the fray. He let the issue be fought out by his fellow-townsmen while he slipped about the country trying to set up the pins for a Presidential candidate selected by the organization he helped to form to succeed President Taft. He did not figure in the great battle waged to retrieve the credit and good name of the city of which he at one time claimed to be the moral regenerator.

Perhaps that is one reason why the result is so decisive and gratifying. Had Rudolph Spreckels appeared as the keeper of the Ark of the Covenant and the custodian of the law and its ministers, the result might have been different—it certainly would not have been so sweeping or satisfying.

Hence there should be no complaint that Mr. Spreckels was absent and silent during the memorable campaign just closed. That was the only contribution he could make to the success of Mr. Rolph. Let us be thankful that he made it.

But what effect will Mr. Spreckels' activities have on the aspirations of Senator La Follette? Here again good fortune seems to be favoring President Taft. His antagonist is handicapped with the support of the worst hoodoo in California. Again let us give thanks.

It is perfectly natural that the Democrats should praise Senator La Follette for his efforts to smash the protective tariff, but is that a reason why Republicans should make him their candidate for President? Hardly. If we are to take up with Democratic policies, let Democrats be taken up to carry the policies out; let the responsibility be placed on the Democratic party. There should be no humbug and false pretenses about the matter. Either the Republican party stands for the policy of protection or it does not—it cannot be half-protection and half free trade, and it cannot accept the Democratic tariff doctrine without abandoning its traditional principles. The Republican party cannot change its principles to please La Follette or further his political ambition.

SAWS HEAD OF A BARREL ROLLER

Butcher Emphasizes Remonstrance With Implement of His Trade.

A small toothed meat saw was used by Joseph Burke, a butcher of 6350 San Pablo avenue, to prevent August Meter, an iron worker, from frightening the horse hitched to Burke's wagon by rolling loud-sounding empty kegs about the sidewalk. As a result of his efforts in this direction, Meter has a deep flesh wound vertically decorating his forehead, and Burke was arraigned before Judge Mortimer Smith this morning on a battery charge. The case was set for October 6 for trial.

Burke, who was this morning released from jail on bail of $30, is an advocate of the idea that the first blow counts. Yesterday afternoon Meter was engaged in removing some barrels from a wagon and rolling them up the street to be delivered to a place adjoining the Burke butcher shop. The barrels rumbled and creaked and groaned. Burke's horse became restive, and he narrowly averted a runaway.

Burke started to remonstrate with Meter but Meter took the rebuke in bad part and declared that he had a right to play tunes on the barrels. The upshot of the altercation was that Burke is accused of hitting Meter over the head with a meat saw. The plan of charging him with assault with a deadly weapon was abandoned after some investigation by legal authorities.

Best Poised Society Girl Rules Alone

THERE are scores of accomplished girls in society, but not one shares the accomplishment of Mary Hellman. She has a talent unique in the Greenway set.

It is to stand on her head, not as one learns to do in school gymnasiums, but as circus acrobats do, in that nonchalant easy way with their arms folded.

It is very startling. Miss Hellman has thrilled her friends on many occasions.

When some intimate afternoon party is dull, Mary Hellman is implored to stand on her head, and obligingly, she ties a ribbon about her skirts and complies.

They have asked her to appear in charity vaudeville shows, but Miss Heliman declines. Only her informal girl friends may see her "act."

Miss Hellman is decidedly a charming girl, which makes her accomplishment more interesting. She is a daughter of the George Hellmans and cousin by marriage to the Pages and Maillards.

When she was at school she won honors in athletics. A basketball star, and the keenest tennis player in her class.

It was at school she learned the difficult and dangerous stunt. All the polite accomplishments were acquired, of course, but gymnastics appealed quite as much as music to the athletic California girl who, it may be added, golfs and dances as well. It is merely an additional accomplishment to others she shares with girls of her set.

ADAMS-JACKSON WEDDING.

The wedding of Miss Gertrude Adams and Henry Eugene Jackson has been set for the evening of November 3. It will be a quiet home affair at the Adams residence in Linda Vista, with a limited number of guests present. Miss Pauline Adams will be her sister's maid of honor and a younger sister, Miss Mary Lillian Adams, will be flower girl. Robert Adams will be best man.

The families of both bride and groom are prominent and the young people have been entertained a great deal since the announcement of their engagement in the spring. Miss Adams, who is very dainty and attractive, is a graduate of the University of California. She is the daughter of Mrs. Adams and the late Arthur L. Adams. Her fiance is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry K. Jackson of Piedmont. After the wedding the young couple will occupy an attractive new home that has just been completed in Piedmont.

The club is one of the most picturesque country clubs in California, 40 miles from the railroad, and reached by a private automobile road. The membership is limited and members usually reserve the rooms weeks ahead for their visits. Among the prominent members are Templeton Crocker, William F. Whittier and Rudolph Schilling.

The first Hallowe'en party to be announced is a dance to be given by members of the Entre Nous Club on the last night of October. The club was entertained last Saturday afternoon by Miss Betty Carrick at her home in Linda Vista, the guests including Miss Mary Beebe, Miss Margaret Rand, Miss Ruth Fletcher, Miss Gladys Matthews, Miss Ruth Taylor and Miss Katherine Goodenough. My Daughter's Confident

LILLIAN RUSSELL.

NO office of the many enjoyed by the good mother is more important and far-reaching in its administration than that of being her daughter's confidante.

In too many instances the young girl fears to confide to her mother the story of her own little doings.

The mother who makes a companion of her daughter, who listens cheerfully and patiently to the little stories of the first love affair, who has a kind word of advice when she hears of schoolday troubles, soon wins the girl's confidence as the years go by. The girl goes to her mother with confessions she would make to no other living soul—confessions which if not made but harbored as secrets might change the entire course of the girl's life.

But the mother who enjoys this confidence must be careful as she hears these stories from the lips of the one who loves her most lest by chiding she ends these confidences.

Remember: Mother, you were young yourself once and made mistakes just as your daughter makes them.

Lillian Russell

Answers to Queries.

HASTE—I know nothing of the article you mention. I am sorry, but I cannot give information on proprietary articles. Be careful what you use on your hair to make it permanently wavy. I do not advise such treatment for the hair. There are curling fluids that will keep the hair in curl a few days at a time, but I do not advise the process for curling the hair permanently.

BROWNIE—There is positively nothing in peroxide and ammonia that will make hair grow. The peroxide will bleach the hair and the ammonia gradually kills the roots. It is a sure cure, but you must be patient and persistent in the treatment if you wish to succeed in removing the superfluous hair. If you care for the formula I shall be glad to send it to you, if you will send me a stamped, addressed envelope.

WORRIED ONE—There is positively nothing that will take the shine or luster out of hair of any shade. Red hair is beautiful and always has a luster. If you could take the luster out of it you would ruin your hair. Dead, lifeless hair has no luster. If your hair was dull it would show that it was lifeless; it would also fall. The girl with red hair must be careful what she uses on it. Bay rum excites the oil glands of the scalp and that makes the hair more oily. Castile soap is good for shampooing. Make a soap jelly by shaving a small bar of castile soap into a pint of boiling water. When it has dissolved, shampoo the hair with this. Rinse your hair thoroughly and dry by rubbing with soft towels.

SUBSCRIBER—Wrinkles that are not deep can be removed by massage with a good skin food. Always massage the wrinkles in the opposite direction in which they run. For wrinkles at the corners of the mouth and between the eyes, adhesive plaster may be worn to remove them. Cut a small half moon of adhesive plaster, lift the wrinkle and smooth it out, then apply the plaster. Keep it on all night. In time the wrinkle will be removed. For frown between the eyes cut a small piece of adhesive plaster, smooth the wrinkles out, and put the plaster across the wrinkles. Do this every night. If you care for directions for facial massage, send me a stamped addressed envelope and I shall send them to you.

L. M. B.: I would not advise you to use gasoline on your switch. It is best to take it to a good hairdresser and have it cleaned. You may ruin it if you attempt to clean it yourself.

OAKLAND'S BOYS & GIRLS

CHILDREN HEAR TALK ON DOMESTIC SCIENCE

Twenty-five boys and girls of the sixth grade of the Garfield school attended a lecture this afternoon on "domestic art" which was given in the Oakland museum by Mrs. D. W. de Veer, assistant curator of that institution. The children were escorted to the museum by Mrs. Carrie Ingalls, instructor in domestic art, who will conduct a number of parties to the various factories, where the children may learn the means how the articles are manufactured.

Today the little folks brought their lunches to the museum and ate the delicacies under the trees near Lake Merritt.

Yesterday morning Mrs. de Veer addressed the pupils of the Piedmont school and yesterday afternoon she gave a realistic talk on "Birds" in the Prescott school.

LOVE TRAGEDY ENDED BY DEATH OF SAILOR

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 29.—Within a few hours after ending a two days' search for his sweetheart, who, according to the police, had fallen into the hands of an unscrupulous man, John Mangan, a United States sailor at the Naval Training Station, was run down by an auto truck yesterday afternoon and suffered injuries from which he died a few minutes later at the Central Hospital.

Mangan secured special leave of absence Saturday from Lieutenant Prior to make a search for seventeen-year-old Marie Walhall of 33A McCoppin street, who had mysteriously disappeared from home. Unsuccessful, Mangan returned to his station and obtained permission to continue the search for another two days. Early yesterday morning, according to the police, he found her in company with Leo Thomas, a bricklayer, and after escorting her home he had Thomas arrested on the charge of contributing to the delinquency of a minor.

The case came up in Judge Sullivan's court and was continued until today. Yesterday afternoon as Mangan was returning to his post he was run down at Mission and Thirteenth streets by a truck driven by Albert Wise of 2455 Folsom street. He died half an hour later. Wise was charged with manslaughter. Mangan formerly lived at 33A McCoppin street, where he met and fell in love with the daughter of his landlady, Mrs. Maggie Carnes.

SUCCUMBS TO INJURIES.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 29.—J. E. Meyrick, the hodcarrier who last Tuesday made his sensational slide for life from the thirteenth floor of the New Clift Hotel, died this morning at the German hospital. Meyrick lost his balance and fell, but managed to grasp a cable on which he slid to the basement. His hands were badly cut and he received several fractured ribs but it was thought he would recover.

LOCKS BANK OFFICIALS IN VAULT; TAKES COIN

SALT LAKE, Utah, Sept. 29. — Within 100 yards of the Utah State Prison, a masked man held up George A. Goff, cashier of the Sugarhouse Bank, and Clifford Goff, a bookkeeper, locked the two men in the bank vault, took $1525 and escaped unnoticed forty minutes before the two men were able to get out of the vault and give the alarm.

The lock of the door did not turn completely, and the men were able to open it from the inside after forty minutes and to give the alarm. Officers took up the search for the robber at once, but are working against unusual difficulties, with a meager description.

FROM

Madame Ise'bell's LETTER BOX

Hazel—I have published exercises for hip reducing in previous lessons, but, if you have not saved them, I will gladly mail them to you. A hip measurement of 25½ inches is too much for a girl of 14 unless you are above the average in height, but I recommend the natural games and sports suitable for your age rather than special hip exercise. Play tennis; that is excellent for girls who want to grow and stretch out. Basket ball and swimming are also excellent. Every morning do stretching exercises for five to ten minutes. Lie on your back and stretch first one foot and then the other, exercising the legs from the hip joints. Then standing raise your arms as high above the head as they will go, palms of hands out, and then a little higher, and then bring them down to the sides keeping them taut all the time.

Most certainly I do not believe in rouge for young girls. Artifice is out of place on a young face. It makes a girl look years older and many people perceiving it would misjudge her moral character. If your face is inclined to get shiny, put a little good face powder on a clean chamois skin, or a clean handkerchief will do, and rub it over with that.

If you wish a personal answer to inquiries, send stamped and addressed envelope

School Girl—I do not like to recommend your using a face bleach that will take off the outer skin; even then it may not reach the freckles. Freckles are generally situated in the second skin and sometimes deeper. A harmless bleach that will work slowly, but which will improve the skin is sour buttermilk. Put it on at night and wash with luke warm water in the morning. Protect your face from the sun; it is a lot easier to prevent freckles than to remove them.

Mr. McC.—It is difficult to suggest a remedy for your incipient baldness without knowing what causes it. Most cases of baldness in men comes from dandruff. You have probably washed your hair too frequently and not paid sufficient attention to the condition of the scalp. If dandruff is present, shampoo as often as once a week with a pure soap, rinsing well afterwards and finish with a good friction of eau de Cologne or bay rum.

Mrs. N. T.—Stick rouge of the proper sort cannot possible harm or crack the lips. In the best laboratories the basis for it is much the same as the basis for a good toilet cream, so it is really soothing and healing to the skin.

DR. TAYLOR TO LECTURE.

Dr. Walter P. Taylor will deliver a lecture tonight on "Our Vanishing Wild Life," at the Garfield School, corner of Twenty-third avenue and East Sixteenth street. Dr. Taylor is secretary of the California Associated Societies for the Conservation of Wild Life and has taken some exceedingly interesting pictures illustrative of his subject. These show in a very graphic way some of the results of indiscriminate slaughter of our game and have a plea to make to the voters of California who are to vote at the election in November on the amendmena to the constitution affecting our game laws. The picture will be shown during the lecture tonight.

'I BOUGHT ALL THESE DARLING CLOTHES AND DIDN'T BOTHER ABOUT THE MONEY'

"Oh, I'll have plenty of money in a few weeks! But do you think I like to blossom out in gorgeous new attire a month after everyone else and just when the fashions are about to change again? This fall I bought my clothes at CHERRY'S. Yes, I USED MY CREDIT and I'm provoked to think I never did it before!

"Why, money is just about six times as valuable to a woman at the start of the season as it is at the end. If you have to wait while you save, you lose all the fun of 'sporting' new styles while they're NEW.

"But CHERRY'S know how to iron out the worry wrinkles for the woman who loves Clothes! Go to one of their stores any time and see what a lovely, refined sort of shop it is. The Autumn things are exquisite—such clever Suits and charming Dresses and smart, jaunty Coats.

"A little of the price is all they ask at first. You WEAR your purchase all the time you're paying for it. You'll love CHERRY'S line of Basque Dresses. They're unusually graceful. The address? Oh, yes! CHERRY'S exclusive store for ladies is at 515 13th street, between Washington and Clay, while just across at 528 is their store for men. They have two stores in San Francisco, one at 1009 Market, the other at 2400 Mission street."

HELPED SULZER, CLAIM WOMAN SEEKING $25,000

COUNTESS OF ESSEX at work for families of soldiers and sailors who have gone to war.

Asks Recompense for 'Furthering His Career'

NEW YORK, Sept. 29.—William Sulzer, former governor and now Prohibition candidate for governor, was made defendant in a suit for $25,000 brought by Mrs. Dorothy Agan Mason, one time beauty and wealthy barge owner. Mrs. Mason says she is now "rehearsing vaudeville performers." She asks recompense for "service rendered in furthering his political ambitions and furthering his career."

It developed last night that the suit of Mrs. Mason against Mr. Sulzer is for damages in settlement of a claim for political work. For a long time, she says, she did secret campaign work for him and was in many ways his confidential agent. Sulzer, when asked about the case at his office here, said: "She hasn't any claim of any kind on me."

ASKS REDUCTION OF RENTALS DURING WAR.

LONDON, Sept. 29.—In an effort to increase the comfort of the families left behind by British soldiers, the Countess of Essex, president of the Watford division of the Soldiers and Sailors' Families Association, today appealed to the authorities to reduce rents during the war. According to the Countess, rentals take more than half of Tommy Atkins' salaries, leaving but little for food and clothing.

SAYS THREAT WAS TO BURY HER ALIVE.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 29.—"She told me that if I tried to escape she would take me to the country and bury me alive," sobbed out little Loy Gum, a comely Chinese "slave girl" yesterday in Federal Judge Dooling's court, he was testifying against Mrs. Wong Sam, who was on trial on the charge of peonage. Although now only 20 years old, Loy Gum told of four years in slavery in Portola alley. For the last year she has lived at one of the rescue missions.

The girl said she had been sold in China for $4000 to become the wife of a mythical rich merchant in the local Chinatown. Wearing her brother's clothes, she was smuggled aboard one of the Pacific liners and hidden among the rice bags deep down in the hold on the voyage over. Almost starved she was brought ashore as a "boy." Later when picked up by immigration authorities as being illegally in this country, it was "proved" that she was born in the United States.

According to Attorney Hettman, a putative father for Loy Gum, was "dug up" at Bakersfield, who testified that the girl was his daughter. In lieu of a mother, the headstone of a departed Chinese woman was brought to the hearing and identified by the accommodating old Chinese as that from the grave of his wife. With a father and mother acounted for, the girl was not deported.

Loy Gum declared she had worked out the price of her purchase, but that her ancient caretaker, Mrs. Wong Sam, would not let her leave the place unless she paid another $4000. Not once, but many times, she said, the threat of burying her alive was made.

Although the law dates back to the Civil War, Mrs. Wong Sam is the first to be tried in this city on the charge of holding a human being in involuntary servitude.

NEW YORK, Sept. 29.—Dr. Eugenio Cantero Herrera, Spanish Minister to Cuba, was married yesterday to Miss Patrocinio Cambella y Montero of Cuba. Mayor Mitchel performed the ceremony.

WOMAN ACQUITTED OF SLAYING HER BETRAYER.

PORTLAND, Ore., Sept. 29.—Freed by the jury which had heard her own story of her betrayal by Bernard C. Lindstrom and of how she shot her betrayer to death because he refused to right the wrong he had done her, Mrs. Della Marsh walked forth from jail late Sunday in company with her former husband, J. E. Marsh, who declared he would remarry her as soon as necessary arrangements could be made.

The jury before which the case was tried returned its verdict after twenty hours' deliberation, having been locked up Saturday. Upon being notified that a verdict had been reached, Judge Morrow went to court to receive it, and then discharged the prisoner.

"We are going back to our country home and begin life over again," Mrs. Marsh said, as she and her mother left the courthouse with her former husband. "I have suffered worse than death, and I think I have atoned for my insane act."

Mrs. Marsh, who is 23, told the jury that Lindstrom had won her love after she had gone to work in his office to help her husband. After persuading her to get a divorce and promising to marry her, she said, Linstrom refused to keep his word. The tragedy occurred after he had forcibly ejected her from his apartments.

Ladies' Hair Dressing in London and Paris

By Constance.

When I was in Europe this year I found both cities so thickly dotted with hairdressing parlors and hair goods stores that I wondered if the women ever had time for anything but care of the hair. Personally I was chiefly interested in finding a really good shampoo and I found that they never use makeshifts but always some item made for shampooing only, and I was happily surprised when several inquiries each brought the suggestion that our own American made canthrox shampoo is best. They like it because in addition to being perfectly safe and making the hair free from all dandruff, excess oil and dust, it is so simple to get canthrox from any druggist and just dissolve a teaspoonful in a cup of hot water, knowing you will then have a preparation that makes the hair not only entirely clean but so fluffy that it appears very heavy. Canthrox stimulates the scalp to healthy action, making the head feel good, and the hair look good.

NOT A 'CURE-ALL'

Separate-Remedies, Each Devised for the Treatment of a Particular Ailment.

There is no "cure-all" among the Rexall Remedies. There are different and separate medicines, each one devised for a certain human ailment or a class of ailments closely allied. For instance, Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets are recommended for the positive relief of stomach irritation, indigestion, flatulency and dyspepsia. They are rich in Bismuth-Subnitrate, Pepsin and Carminatives. They are prepared by special processes which perfect and enhance the great remedial value of these well-known medicinal agents. This remedy sells for 25 cents, 50 cents and $1 per package. Every one suffering from stomach disorder should try Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets, inasmuch as they cost nothing if they do not satisfy.

Remember, the Owl Drug Co., Inc., Tenth and Washington, Thirteenth and Broadway, Sixteenth and San Pablo, is the only store where these remedies may be obtained, and every one in need of medicine is urged to investigate and take advantage of the frank and generous manner in which they are sold.

AVAST, YE LUBBER! LISTEN TO THESE

Here's Codfish Which Could Get Rid of a Quid With Best of You.

BOSTON, Sept. 23.—A codfish which chewed tobacco and an electric skate which smoked, are among the fish landed this week at T wharf, called by Bostonians the world's greatest fish market.

The schooner Oliver F. Hutchins captured the eccentric codfish. When her cook opened a ten-pound cod for dinner he found a full sized cigar in perfect condition and a much chewed quid of tobacco. The exhibits were brought to port as evidence.

The electric skate was brought in by a power dory. The skipper related that when he opened the skate he found a bone-stemmed corn pipe filled with half burned tobacco that still smoked. He accounted for the smoking pipe by the theory that the pipe was dropped overboard while it was still going and that the natural respiration of the fish kept it lit.

YEAR'S METAL OUTPUT IN THE STATE IS $27,020,405

Production of Gold in California for 1910 Is $19,715,440 as Against $20,237,870 in 1909

The mine output of gold, silver, copper and lead in California in 1910 had a value of $27,020,405, according to figures compiled by Charles G. Yale and just made public by the United States Geological Survey. The production of gold was $19,715,440; that of silver, 1,840,085 fine ounces, valued at $932,646; that of copper 48,709,756 pounds, valued at $6,194,996; and that of lead 2,876,977 pounds, valued at $126,323.

These figures show a decrease in the output of gold, silver and copper as compared with the figures for 1909, but a large increase in lead. The 1909 figures are as follows: Gold, $20,237,870; silver, 2,098,253 ounces, valued at $1,091,093; copper, 57,388,281 pounds, valued at $7,447,476; lead, 1502,597 pounds, valued at $64,612.

1,079 MINES IN STATE.

There were 1,079 mines producing gold, silver, copper, or lead in California in 1910, of which 564 were gold placer mines. Of the deep mines, 485 were gold mines, 9 were silver mines, 10 were silver-lead mines and 11 were copper mines. Of the placer producers, 168 were hydraulic mines, 72 were dredges operated by 41 companies, 139 were drift mines in ancient river gravels, and 185 were sluicing mines. Measured by the number of producers as well as by tonnage and metal output, deep mining decreased somewhat in California in 1910. Among the placers sluicing decreased also, but dredge and drift mining increased.

In 1910 there were 2,897,885 short tons of ore from deep mines sold or treated in California, with an average total recoverable value of $6.71 per ton, against 3,041,885 tons in 1909, with an average recoverable value of $8.41. Of the total recovered value in ores in 1910 milling ores yielded $10,605,190 in gold and silver; and smelting ores, $1,663,603 in gold and silver, $6,194,996 in copper, and $126,323 in lead. Placers produced $8,888,795 in gold, of which $625,493 was from hydraulic mines, $316,939 from drift mines, $7,550,254 from dredges, and $186,114 from sluicing mines, the yield from dredges alone being over 38 per cent of the total gold output from all sources in California in 1910.

DREDGING INCREASED.

Gold dredging has been of constantly increasing importance in California since 1899, when the yield from this source was $206,302. In 1910 it was $7,550,254. The total gold output by dredges in California to the end of 1910 was $40,313,775. The three great dredging fields are those of Yuba, Sacramento and Butte counties, of which the Yuba county field showed an increased output of $780,567 in 1910, while the production from Butte county decreased $501,038 and that of Sacramento county decreased $164,642.

A table is given showing the mine production of California by counties in 1910. Of the total gold placers furnished $2,468,509 from Butte county, of which $2,380,225 was from dredges; and $1,384,637 from Sacramento county, of which $1,369,684 was from dredges; and $3,159,952 from Yuba county, of which $3,172,476 was from dredges. Dredges also produced $191,900 in Calaveras county, $213,980 in Merced and Stanislaus counties combined, and $109,182 in Siskiyou county. Hydraulic placers produced $179,106 in gold from Siskiyou county and $828,154 from Trinity county. Drift mines produced $147,599 in placer gold in Nevada county and $151,743 in Placer county. Surface or sluice placers produced $28,709 in Plumas county, $22,338 in Siskiyou county and $27,476 in Yuba county, and smaller amounts of gold in most of the other producing counties of the state.

The largest increases in gold production by counties in California were $547,461 in Amador, $80,815 in Mono, $122,865 in Sierra, and $734,408 in Yuba. The largest decreases were $499,288 in Butte, $292,806 in Calaveras, $78,885 in Mariposa, $126,752 in Nevada, $273,940 in Sacramento, and $310,977 in Tuolumne. The Mother Lode in Amador, Calaveras, Eldorado, Mariposa, and Tuolumne counties produced 1,170,497 short tons of ore in 1910, with a total recovery in gold and silver valued at $3,436,562, or an average of $3.78 per ton, against 1,238,160 short tons yielding $4,854,355, an average of $3.60 per ton, in 1909.

'NOODLES' SPEAKS AT HIGH SCHOOL

Famou Newsboy Advises Students Not to Do Half a Job.

"Noodles" Fagan, world's famous newsboy, now appearing at the Bell theater, delivered another of his talks yesterday at the Fremont High School under the auspices of THE TRIBUNE. "Noodles" spoke to the Fremont school on his last trip here and the boys and girls all remembered him, for the ovation that he received would have made an aspirant for national honors think that he was already elected. But "Noodles" just smiled and instantly the whole room was lit up with sunshine, for all the boys and girls endeavored to follow his example.

After being introduced by Superintendent McClymonds, "Noodles" started off with his rapid-fire delivery of 356 words a minute. His subject was "The Advantage of An Education." He told them not to miss one school session and remember that finished work is a guiding line toward success.

DO A GOOD JOB.

"No one likes to see a half job," said he, "so when you are doing your lessons remember that a perfect and clean job is the thing. You have the best teachers and instructors, not mentioning the thousands of books and school paraphernalia to edudate you, and why make a 5 crooked or draw a U upside down when it is just as easy to make it correct?"

He told them of the successful schools of this country and said: "The averages of all studies in Fremont high is in keeping with all the big schools in America." "Noodles" lauded Principal Rossiter for his work.

"I like a man in school work who can always be a boy and never be a grown-up. Mr. Rossiter is indeed that. Another man that I would like to mention who has made big success because he understands and is a boy always is Superintendent Francis of the Los Angeles schools.

"Here we have Superintendent McClymonds, for 20 years superintendent of schools. Is not that a remarkable record, boys and girls? Mr. McClymonds must feel proud to meet the business men of this city and leading men of all branches of business who have gone to school under his long administration.

MENTALLY EQUIPPED.

"Boys and girls, I am only drawing this picture for you to show you that school boards select good people to teach you and yet lots of boys and girls like to stop school right in the middle and go to work. Take this from me, a diploma with a finished education is a million in your hands if you only know the great value of being mentally equipped to work at any position."

"Noodles" warned the boys, as usual, against using cigarettes, strong drinks and keeping bad company. He said:

"Start now, for the boy today is the man tomorrow."

BACCUS LOPS OFF ONE MORE HEAD

Adds Scalp of Street Department Foreman at Melrose to His Belt.

J. C. Spaan, a foreman in the street department in the Melrose district, was discharged at noon Wednesday by Commissioner of Street Baccus under charges of dishonesty. Baccus at the same time filed a communication with the civil service commission giving his reason for discharging the man, and making the temporary appointment of a substitute from the class of deputy foremen.

It is alleged by Commissioner Baccus that Spaan in his position as foreman attempted to "knock down" on the time schedule of one of the laborers in the street department, thereby attempting to gain $1.25. Baccus states that he has not been informed whether Spaan, who has been an employe in the street department since 1909, intends to ask for a formal hearing in the matter before the civil service board.

"The attempt was made by Spaan as street foreman to obtain $1.25 by giving in wrong time for the laborers under his supervision," said Baccus this morning. "A laborer by the name of S. J. Blodgett was allowed sick leave, and a substitute placed in the position for seven and one-half days. Spaan told the man to put in time for eight days, and he would endorse this if the man would give him $1.25."

This is the second case of a discharge of this kind int he street department in the past two weeks.

OPPENHEIM'S APPEAL TO BE HEARD SOON

SACRAMENTO, Sept. 29. — According to information coming from the Attorney-General's office, it is likely that the appeal case of Jake Oppenheimer, the convict in Folsom Prison who recently killed Francisco Quijada, will come up before the Supreme Court of the United States at the October term. This is the case by which it will be determined whether Oppenheimer shall hank for attempting to break prison. It is not thought that the decision will be rendered before December at the earliest.

—and the inside is a great deal more exciting than the outside. Insurgency, as La Follette sees it, goes back a good ways, and will always go forward. This narrative sparkles with pictures of prominent men now in action and with events still happening —all of which La Follette saw, and a great part of which he was.

RUGBY GOSSIP

Ever since Rugby was developed, the Oakland High school has always put crack rugby teams in the field. They have been contenders for the championship time after time and they have turned out more or as many stars as any other school in the State.

This year's team promises to be better than ever. They have a far better backfield and the scrum of Oakland is made up of a bunch that includes three of the fastest forwards in the state, that is for prep teams.

"Pat" Howell, Johnny Black and Murray are the above three mentioned. This trio, together with such men as Atwater, Millican, McNeil, Crawford and Weisiander represents a pack that is bound to be heard from.

Behind this array of stars is Chubby Gimbal, regarded as the best prep school halfback in the state. He is considered a cinch to figure as the all-star northern halfback this season. Nuff said about Chubby.

The Oakland back-field is composed of stars of all different calibre. Fowler is a slashing youth who tears through a team like a rifle shot, while on the other side is Ike Krone, a boy whose boot is worthy of mention, and who is always trying and fighting for the team.

Sterrett and Ike, the two guys, are players of the Von Menderschied method. They were quick to learn and Von thinks that these boys will develop into players that will be of credit to an All-Black team. Heynes, the center three quarter, is a peppery individual who can squirm through the slightest openings like a worm, while Jolly is one of the most tried and seasoned players on the squad. Coach Von has been fortunate in having such an excellent amount of material on hand, and according to the spirit shown by the student body in supporting the team, [illegible] and Manager Murray behind him and the former, who is acting as fullback and the rear-rancher, Murray, are only a few of the players who are an example for the younger aspirants on the team.

CHALLENGES BANTAMS

Word has been received at THE TRIBUNE office to the effect that Bud Clark, a former Oakland boy, recently won a decision over Kid Penley at Ce Blum and later fought a fast draw with Young Tommy Burns at the same place. Clark is under the management of P. A. McOy and is open to meet anybody at 118 pounds.

REPRESENTS SCHOOL.

VALLEJO, Sept. 29.—Morgan Ashin represented Vallejo high school at the meeting of the delegates of the Sonoma, Napa and Solano county athletic league, which was held at Santa Rosa. Vallejo and Napa will compete in the southern division of the league for the football honors.

AMATEUR BASEBALL

BAY CITIES LEAGUE.

Sunday ended the Bay Cities League schedule, the last game going to the Great Western Power company, 6 to 2, against the runners-up, the Alameda Woodmen.

The four teams to stay through the season ending as follows:

	Won	Lost	Pct.
Great Western	14	1	.933
Alameda Woodmen	8	6	.571
Berkeley Wawona	6	8	.429
Oakland Maccabees	5	8	.385
Rock Ridge	....	....	Dropped out
Key Route	....	....	Dropped out

There will be a meeting of the directors of the Bay Cities league at the home of Secretary Woodward Thursday evening at 8 p. m., to complete plans for the season, which is eight teams. The following clubs have asked to be considered for membership, and their managers have been invited to attend the league meeting at 1444 San Pablo avenue, Thursday evening: Seminole Club Metropolitan Life, Boyle & Lawler, Laurel Club.

Frances Weber, captain of the Power Company team, gave the following list as the regular lineup: Miller and Raab, catchers; Loomis and Weber, pitchers; Ely, first; McKee, second; Hester, third; Smith, short; Kavanaugh, Abrams, Brown and Flynn, field.

Next Sunday the Favorite Service Club will play their fifth game with Chanel's Inn Gold team on the Dreamers club of Emeryville.

In a close game between Port Costa and Antioch on the former's grounds the Port Costa won by a score of 5 to 3. Olcott's one-handed stab of a long drive was a feature of the game. Pitcher Eagan of the locals held his hits well scattered. Catcher Rockstraw and third strong. Putting them off at second, [illegible]

TELEGRAM IS CAUSE OF TROUBLE

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 29.—[illegible] Herzog, manager of the Cincinnati Nationals, was indefinitely suspended today by President Tener because of an insulting telegram received at the executive office of the league in New York from the Cincinnati manager. Herzog was suspended for three days as the result of an altercation with an umpire in Boston, when it was said he had used unbecoming language. That suspension, it is alleged, caused him to send the telegram to President Heydler. Go erno Tener who was in this city last night, stated that Herzog will remain under suspension until he has made a suitable apology.

THERE'S STILL A CHANCE FOR HITTERS

New records can be established for the world's series this fall without endangering major or minor league records, says Ernest J. Lanigan in the St. Louis Sporting News. All that a pitcher has to do to shatter a previous red letter mark for a blue ribbon game is to dispose of his opponents without a safety. Edward Marvin Reulbach of the Superbas has the distinction of having pitched the best game in a world's series.

In 1906, while wearing the uniform of the Cubs, Reulbach let the White Sox down with one safe smash, made by "Jiggs" Donohue, who died about a year ago, in the sixth inning. The Hitless Wonders scored a run in this controversy but Donohue's safety had nothing to do with the tally.

Men who have twirled two hit games in world's series are Mordecai Brown, Ed Walsh and Eddie Plank. The three-fingered marvel accomplished his feat against the White Sox, Comiskey's one time man of steel selected the Cubs as his victims and the veteran southpaw picked the Giants. Brown and Walsh whitewashed their opponents while they were limiting them to a brace of hits, while Plank missed a shutout because of an error by Frank Baker and a piece of boneheaded base running by Arthur Shafer, who, according to a sarcastic member of the Baseball Writers' association of America, ought to be awarded a Chalmers car because he has done more for the Braves than any other player.

The three hit games reeled off in the annual classic now number five. Bill Dineen pitched the first of these in 1902 for the Red Sox against the Pirates; Jeff Overall, the second in 1908 for the Cubs against the Tigers; "Chief" Bender, the third in 1910 for the White Elephants against the Cubs; Jack Coombs the fourth in 1911 for the White Elephants against the Giants, and Hugh Bedient, the fifth for the Red Sox in 1912 against the Giants. Of these stunts by far the best was that performed by Coombs, for the Ironmonger traveled 11 innings against McGraw's cohorts.

The four hit contests total 14, Christy Mathewson, "Chief" Bender and Mordecai Brown each having pitched two, and these men each one: "Deacon" Phillips, Bill Dineen, Eddie Plank, Nick Altrock, Jack Pfiester, Jeff Overall and "Rube" Marquard.

These are the men who have made four hits in world's series games:

October 1, 1903—Leach, Pirates, two singles and two triples off Young, Red Sox.

October 8, 1903 — Beaumont, Pirates, four singles off Dineen, Red Sox.

October 13, 1906—Isbell, White Sox, four doubles off Reulbach, Pfiester and Overall, Cubs.

October 14, 1906—Hahn, White Sox, four singles off Brown and Overall, Cubs.

October 12, 1908 — Cobb, Tigers, three singles and one double off Pfiester and Overall, Cubs.

October 25, 1911—Doyle, Giants, two singles and two doubles off Coombs and Plank, White Elephants.

October 26, 1911—D. Murphy, White Elephants, three singles and one double off Ames, Wiltse and Marquard, Giants.

BOTH BOXERS CONFIDENT, REPORT

Jack Murray and George Chip both completed training yesterday for their 20-round encounter tomorrow night at Coffroth's Eighth street arena. Chip and his manager Jimmy Dime, figure nothing but rejuvination of the result of their last meeting, as Murray and Kearns are not a [illegible]

Betting this afternoon stood 10 to 6 in favor of the Easterner. Up until yesterday the odds had favored Chip only slightly, the price being 10 to 8, but all was turned on the market, resulting in the change.

Despite the odds many have signified their willingness to take a chance on the California middleweight. In the last encounter up until Chip landed the telltale wallop, Murray was way in the lead on points. His followers now argue that with the battle apparently won, he grew reckless and left an opening with the result that is now history.

From both the training camps comes the report that each man is within hailing distance of the specified 158 pounds, and neither is expected to have any trouble in scaling as per agreement.

Both Murray's and Chip's training was wound up yesterday with light work. Murray sparred 3 rounds with Eddie Moy, and Chip confined his work to 4 rounds of boxing with his brother Joe. From now on until it is time for them to leave for the arena, both will simply lounge around the camps.

Kearns is planning to bring Murray over to San Francisco this evening and take him to a show to relieve his mind of the fight and have a change from the training camp grind. Chip and Dime are expected to do the same thing.

From the advance sale there is expected to be as large, if not a larger crowd than attended the last Chip-Murray struggle.

WHEELMEN TO SEE BOUTS.

Everything is in readiness for tonight's three-round boxing show at the Wheelman Athletic Club pavilion. All the participants have been training earnestly and from the training camps comes the reports that they are all in excellent condition.

These bouts are a regular affair in Oakland and in the past they have proven a good attraction. They run similarly to the four-round shows in San Francisco.

Local fans are now anxiously awaiting to see if Frankie Burns will sign up for a return engagement with Joe Azevedo, since Promoter Coffroth has matched Eddie Moy with Young Saylor, instead of the Oakland boy. Terms have been made Frankie, and now that he has no other engagement in sight, he might accept them. Azevedo is more than anxious to get another crack at the local boy, and declares if he once enters the ring again with Burns that he will not use rough tactics that characterized his last fight here.

Along with the announcement that Moy and Saylor have been matched for a 20-round fight comes the word that a double attraction will be staged by Sunshine Jim Coffroth, the other attraction being between Red Watson and Fighting Dick Hyland, who fought a four-round draw last Friday night. Hyland had the better of the bout, and on account of the showing Watson was prevented from getting a chance at Saylor. Hyland, after a long lay-off, has been coming to the front again, and this will be his first long fight for some time.

Fans will remember Dick as a candidate for the lightweight championship several years ago, and his 23-round fight with Battling Nelson, in which he was knocked out, is a matter of history.

SAIL FOR AUSTRALIA.

Al Lippe and his stable of boxers, including Jeff Smith, another claimant of the middle-weight title, Frank Dougherty and Jimmy Coffey, lightweights, sailed on the steamer Ventura for Australia today. Smith is under contract to box for Snowy Baker.

Pat Bradley, the San Francisco middleweight, who made a good impression in Australia recently, is also returning on the Ventura today. Bradley has signed to box three men for Snowy Baker. He does not know who his opponents are, but as he is open to meet anybody of his class in the world, it does not matter.

BUSHROD VICTORY.

The Bushrod All-Stars took another game yesterday from the Argonauts, now having won 10 and lost 1.

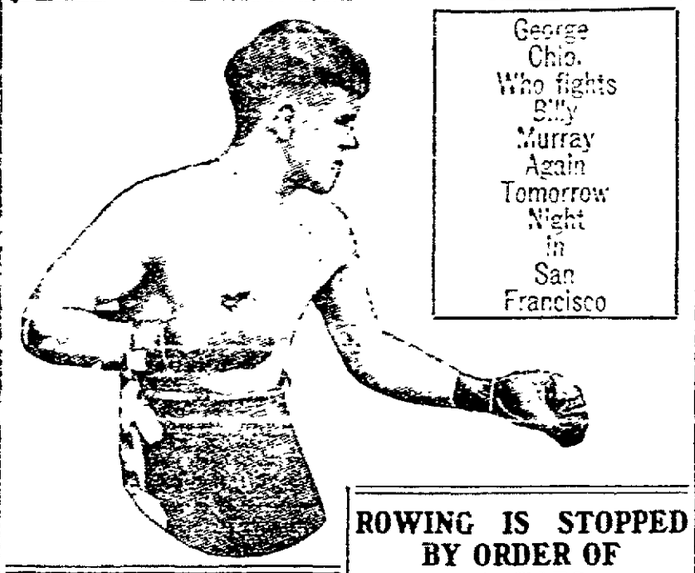

Vic Corbett, who has been twirling for Ellery Arms, mounted the hill for his brother's team but took his departure in the third inning, leaving with ten runs and 9 hits tallied against him. Bert Peacock took up the job and allowed five hits and one run in the remaining innings. Incidentally Bert hit a triple, scoring two of the Argonaut's three runs. Bushrod stole 13 bases on Petersen.

Red Mitchell and Mansing and Crosswaite composed the Bushrod battery and were touched for six hits and three runs.

FRESNO CARNIVAL IS OPENED WITH BIG RACE

FRESNO, Sept. 29.—The Fresno cross-city race, the first number of the four-day athletic carnival, is being staged during the noon hour today in the Raisin City. A record entry list will come to scratch for this race, which is being run through the streets of Fresno for a distance of five and three-quarter miles. The race starts at Roeding Park and finishes on the mile racetrack in the district fairgrounds.

San Francisco has two men entered in this race who are expected to finish in the money. Bobby Vlught and Oliver Millard will wear the Olympic Club colors and are expected to fight it out for first place with Albert Ray, a full-blood Hopi Indian, running under the emblem of the Los Angeles Athletic Club. The struggle for mastery between this trio is expected to be one of the carnival's sensations. The ability of the San Francisco men to go over the long route is well known, though Ray's races have all been run in the south and little is known here for his powers of speed and endurance.

Today's races open a four-day carnival of athletic events. Tomorrow the high schools of the San Joaquin valley will hold a series of relay races, on Thursday the all-around championships will be staged, while on Friday the big number of the meeting, the track and field meet, is to be held. Many followers of amateur sports from this section expect to attend the Fresno meeting and it will surprise few to see many records broken.

OLYMPIC GAMES WILL BE HELD IN BERLIN

NEW YORK, Sept. 29.—That the Olympic games of 1915 will be held in Berlin despite the European war is indicated in a letter received by the American Olympic Committee today from Baron Pierre de Coubertin, president of the International Olympic Committee.

ROWING IS STOPPED BY ORDER OF DOCTORS

MADISON, Wis., Sept. 29.—Participation in intercollegiate rowing contests by the University of Wisconsin crew was ordered discontinued by the faculty as the result of an investigation by the medical faculty showing that a large number of crew candidates had developed hypertrophied hearts. Twenty-eight of 56 freshmen and 20 of 23 "W" men showed this condition.

LONGHORN SQUAD IS NOW IN AUSTIN

SAN MARCOS, Texas, Sept. 29. — The football squad of the University of Texas have broken camp and left for Austin, where they will enter upon their regular duties as students in the university.

Coaches Allerdice and Patterson and Trainer Disch all expressed themselves as highly pleased with the progress the squad had made while in camp here and said it was one of the most successful training seasons that they had ever spent. There has been absolutely no sickness in camp and all the men are in the best of physical condition.

Much time has been spent in developing the physique of the huskies as they face the hardest and most gruelling schedule that the university team has ever had.

Never in the history of the university has there been gathered together the wealth of brawn and muscle that had been displayed here this year and with the progress that they have made in mastering the finer points in the game the coaches have little fear that when the season is over the teams of the university will have made a record that has never been equaled in Texas.

BANTAM HOLDS TITLE.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 29.—"Kid" Williams of Baltimore, bantam-weight champion, tonight stopped "Kid" Herman of Pekin, Ill., in the fourth round of what was to be a six-round bout.

HOPPE LOSES IN ENGLISH GAME

NEW YORK, Sept. 29 — Melbourne Inman of Twickenham, Eng., world's champion at 18.2 balk line cards, scored 602 points in the first session of the international match here last night. Willie Hoppe of this city, holder of the world's title for balkline billiards, who was Inman's opponent, made 2.4 points. The first game was played on a 5x10 English table and Hoppe's showing was fairly promising considering his unfamiliarity with the English style.

The match which was begun last night [illegible] a series of five to be decided here and at Chicago, Montreal, Toronto and Winnipeg, Canada. The match here and the Chicago contest, which will take place two weeks hence, will consist each of eleven games, five of 600 points each at English billiards and six of 500 points each at 18.2 balk-line billiards.

A money stake of $1000 a side will be involved in each match and the winner and loser will divide the net gate receipts on a basis of 65 to 35 per cent.

HIGH SCHOOL TEAMS WILL CLASH TOMORROW

Tomorrow afternoon, 3:45, Eighteenth and Wood streets, the annual Oakland-Oakland Poly game will be decided. On paper the Oakland High team is figured to win. Both teams have an even chance, and the Poly admirers will not be surprised at all if their boys come out on the long end of the score.

Outside of the game, a special feature of the contest will be be between different yell leaders. George Vestal, yell leader of Poly, promises a rooting force of about 700, while Bill Macdonald of Oakland High has stated that the school will score the Poly players away by their voices, outside of the Oakland High team's playing. The line-ups:

Oakland—Forwards, Howell, Millican (Chen), Black, McNeil, Atwater, Murray, Crawford, Weislander; half, Gimbal; fives, Hall, Stenet; three-quarters, Heynes, Krone (Jolly), Fowler; fullback, Hook.

DISTINGUISHED SPEAKERS HEARD AT GREAT BANQUET LAST NIGHT

MORE THAN 300 IN HALL AT IDORA GATHERING

Catholic Ladies' Aid Delegates Guests of Oakland Branch.

Three hundred and ten members of the Catholic Ladies' Aid society and many distinguished guests of honor attended the brilliant banquet given last night at Idora park. Branch No. 1 of Oakland was the hostess of the evening and had planned the details on an elaborate scale.

Mrs. Thomas P. Hogan presided as toastmistress and introduced each speaker in brief but charming manner. The banquet room was decorated with red dahlias and streamers of red tulle and the place cards were red hearts. At each place was a corsage bouquet or a boutonnier in the prevailing color.

Seated at the speakers' table were Rev. Father Jerome B. Hannigan, Mrs. D. F. Ragan, past grand president; Mrs. P. J. Moore, grand president, and the grand directors, Mrs. L. Spellman, Miss M. Daley, Mrs. Don Compbell, Miss K. Byrne, Mrs. A. M. Martins, Mrs. A. E. Ward, Mrs. H. E. Magee and Mrs. Lozier of Stockton.

Among the specially honored guests were Father F. X. Morrison of Berkeley, Father E. P. Dempsey of St. Mary's, Father Maher of St. Patrick's, Father E. Doyle of St. Anthony's, Father Lawrence Serda of Sacred Heart and Father Joseph Galli of Portuguese church.

FOUNDED ORDER.

Mrs. M. A. Byrne, sister of the late Mrs. Paul Lohse, who founded the order 25 years ago, was another guest of honor.

Father Morrison gave a short, interesting address congratulating the Catholic Ladies' Aid on the splendid work they had done in the past and said that they had laid the foundation for a successful future.

The Worthy Grand Chaplain, Father Hannigan, read letters of regret from the Most Reverend Archbishop Riordan, and from Bishop D. O'Connell, bringing to the women greetings and congratulations and adding that the faithful work and splendid results achieved had heightened the respect of the outside world for the Catholic church.

Mrs. Hogan announced that as President Taft could not be there, his representative, Rev. Father Keef, of Alcatraz, would represent him.

Others who spoke briefly were Mrs. D. F. Ragan, Mrs. P. J. Moore and Miss Mary Carr, all of whom gave short, interesting speeches.

MUSICAL NUMBERS.

Miss May Kerlin sang, "Call Me Back," and gave an encore, "Because I Love You, Dear." By special request Miss Alice Lyng sang, "The Meeting of the Waters," and responded to an encore with an Irish ballad. A. L. Kofore, a baritone, sang "Song of the Soul," and "Drink to Me Only With Thine Eyes."

The banquet was in every particular a success and the guests assembled included representative and prominent Catholics from all parts of the State. The local committee who planned the affair deserve great credit for the hospitable manner in which they entertained the visitors.

It was also decided to operate a booth at the sisters' fair for the orphans in San Francisco next December, in charge of the grand directors.

Tuesday afternoon's session was adjourned out of respect to the memory of the late Mrs. Margaret Deane of San Francisco, a benevolent worker in the society who was known throughout the State. Mrs. Deane was president of the society for ten years, following the 13th grand council, when she was also elected to a life membership on the board of grand directors.

BERKELEY, Sept. 29.—The Catholic Ladies' Aid society, grand council, is completing the election of officers and grand electors this afternoon, following the choice of yesterday of Mrs. P. J. Moore of San Francisco as grand president for the third time and the re-election of Mrs. Mary J. Smith of San Francisco as grand secretary-treasurer for the sixth term. Many nominations have been made for the remaining officers to be elected this afternoon. The conclave may hold an extra session tomorrow morning on account of unfinished business.

EAGLE BANQUET A BIG SUCCESS

State President Carpenter Talks on Erection of New Clubhouse.

ALAMEDA, Sept. 29. — The Eagles' banquet, given last night in Woodman hall, celebrating the sixth anniversary of the Alameda Aerie, was a success and far eclipsed all expectations of the committee in charge. F. J. Smith was chairman of the entertainment committee. The principal discussion was on the new clubhouse of the aerie to be erected at Alameda avenue and Oak street, about the first of the year.

Dr. Tom Carpenter, State president of the Eagles and toastmaster of the evening presented an able address on the advantages to be derived by the order on the completion of the building and urged upon the members the necessity of helping the cause by purchasing shares in the hall association.

Dr. H. E. Mehrmann of Oakland, past State president of the Eagles was one of the principal speakers of the evening and gave an interesting talk on the "doings" of the various aeries about the State.

President H. Simpson of the aerie, Judge R. B. Tappan, E. J. Probst, Past President E. O. Putzman and Secretary Edward Ward and Al Kilin spoke on the new hall.

CAPTAIN ORTON, NEW COMMANDER

Company A, Fifth infantry, N. G. C., has again a full complement of officers as a consequence of the election which was held in the armory of the command on Twentieth street, near Telegraph avenue, last night. The election was occasioned by the advancement of Captain Leon Francis, the former commander, to the position of major of the Third battalion, to fill the vacancy caused by the death by drowning of Major William M. Simpson of Alameda.

The new commander of the company is Captain Carroll J. Orton, who for a number of years has served as first lieutenant of the organization. In his stead as first lieutenant, Second Lieutenant Edward Carr has gone a grade higher, and Sergeant Hewett Bond has been elected to the position of second lieutenant.

FORGED FATHER'S NAME, IS CHARGE

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 29. — Charging that he forged his father's signature to a check for $250 on the Anglo-California Trust company, a warrant has been issued for the arrest of Philip Gallick, the son of Max Gallick, the local auctioneer. The Burns Detective agency is searching for Gallick.

"AUTO ARISTOCRACY" IS OF THE PRESENT

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA, Sept. 29. — "There was no kid glove and automobile aristocracy in those days," said Horace Davis in telling the students of life at Williams College sixty years ago, at the university meeting in Harmon gymnasium this morning. Dr. Davis, who is 80 years of age, is a former president of the University of California, and now a member of the board of trustees of Stanford University.

DR. LYMAN CAPTURED IN DASH FOR CANADA

Accused Wildcat Promoter Yields Peacefully Despite His Previous Threats. May Be Indicted Today

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 29. — The Federal Grand Jury is expected to return indictments this afternoon against Dr. J. Grant Lyman and all the other persons connected in his sensational escape from Providence Hospital, Oakland, Sunday night. The accusation against Lyman, it is expected, will be bribery or attempted bribery of Deputy Marshall Courtright. Lyman's companion, L. P. Thornet, it is expected, will be accused jointly with him, and other indictments returned against the participants of the escape, whose names have not yet been learned. Lyman, who was captured by Sheriff W. J. Snyder, at Lakeview, Oregon, will arrive here some time tomorrow in custody of two deputy marshals.

Manuel C. Galindo, father of Lawrence Galindo, the Oakland youth who drove Lyman to Sacramento after the latter's escape Sunday night, said today that his son was compelled at the point of a revolver to aid the promoter in his flight.

"The two men, Lyman and Thornet, held the weapon at the boy's back during most of the trip," said the elder Galindo, "and he was told that he would be killed if he did not obey their wishes."

CHASE IS ENDED.

After an exciting chase of four days through California and Southern Oregon, Dr. Lyman was arrested last night by Sheriff W. W. Snyder of Lake county just as he was about to continue his dash for the Canadian border. Although he was heavily armed and had made threats of giving the officers battle if caught, the fugitive peacefully surrendered when the officers appeared on the scene and was led away to jail to await his return to San Francisco to face the charges made against him by the Federal authorities. L. B. Thornet, his man Friday, who aided him in his escape, was also taken into custody.

The capture of Lyman was accomplished through the efforts of United States Marshal C. T. Elliott of this city, who flooded the northern section of California and the southern portion of Oregon with telegrams asking the authorities to lok out for Lyman and two confederates who were pushing across the Oregon line in an automobile toward the mountains.

Lyman appeared somewhat worn out by his four-day unsuccessful dash for liberty, but otherwise kept up a bold front.

Lyman has been at liberty four days. After escaping from the Providence Hospital Sunday night, he and his companion, Thornet, arrived in Sacramento Monday morning. Here Lyman continued to keep his identity concealed, while Thornet hired a taxicab for seven days with which to continue their journey. A plentiful supply of firearms was also put in the taxi. Leaving the capital shortly after noon, the fugitives directed their course to Marysville, where their taxicab broke down son after their arrival at 3 o'clock in the afternoon. They lounged around the hotel until 5, when they hired another auto and started for Redding.

The officers were now on their trail, so the fugitives kept away from the larger towns and were reported to have directed their way toward the mountains of Modoc. Instead, they pursued their way directly northward; but several breakdowns retarded their flight, with the result that they did not cross the State line until yesterday. Their capture at Lakeview followed.

AGED MOTHER SUES HER SON

Maria Anna Goebels, 78 years old, filed suit today in the superior court against her son, Rudolph Goebels, for the purpose of forcing him to contribute to her support in accordance with an alleged agreement entered into between Rudolph and his brother Joseph in 1900, by which the latter transfered certain property to Rudolph with the understanding that he and his wife would provide a home for their mother for the remainder of her life.

According to the amended complaint, the aged woman was soon the object of inattention on her son's part and she was ordered to leave the house. Not being able to do so, her personal effects were thrown into the street and set on fire by her son, it is further alleged. This was in May, 1906. Since that time she has got along as best she could with assistance from a daughter, Mrs. Mary Buchan, who lives on a little ranch near Lafayette, and her other son, Joseph.

It is now asked of the court that Rudolph be enforced to pay her $25 a month for support. The son is employed as an art glass worker and makes, it is said, $30 a week, while income from the property that was turned over to him by his brother brings in $20 a month.

Action is directed against the alleged delinquent son for the reason that the other children are not able to support their mother.

CLEARING WEATHER AIDS RAISIN CROP

SAN BERNARDINO, Sept. 29. — Signs of clearing weather after a rainfall of .25 of an inch early today, brought hope to the raisin dryers, much of whose crop would have been seriously damaged had the rain continued.

The rain, which was heavy in the mountains was of great benefit to orange groves and pastures. It is still sprinkling slightly here, but indications are that the storm is ended.

NEW ROOMS TO BE DEDICATED

The rooms of Oakland chapter, American Institute of Banking, in the Perry building on Thirteenth street, between Broadway and Franklin, will be dedicated this evening and the officers for the ensuing year will be installed as follows: Golden L. Downing, deputy receiver of the Bank of California, president; Lester H. Heacock of the Security Bank and Trust Company, vice-president; George W. Ludlow of the Oakland Bank of Savings, secretary, and J. Ernest Smith of the Union Savings Bank, treasurer.

A Clever Bill At New Berkeley Theater

"First nighters" have nothing but words of praise for the really splendid bill which Manager Langley last night presented to a packed house at the Berkeley theater. There was diversity in abundance, but it was pleasing even to the most blase because of that fact. In a program of four vaudeville acts and three reels of first run photoplays it would be hard to select the headliner. The turns were all above the average. The four Lubins, premier juvenile dancers and singers—that word "juvenile" may cover the four as far as age and size goes, but their work was far above that class.

Wilfred Small, "the boy wonder with the violin," earned the applause he received.

Walsh and Rand sing several high class songs in perfect voice.

Bernard and Jones, the German comedians, present what they call a "Legal Mixup," and the audience certainly took part in the same.

The local branch of the Catholic Ladies' Aid Society entertained the conclave delegates by giving a theater party tonight.

AUSTRALIAN BOYS AT THE ORPHEUM

After a strenuous two weeks of entertaining and visiting here and there, the Oakland Orpheum of the Sons and Daughters of St. George, on Monday evening, October 9. Aside from the usual excellent Orpheum bill, which, by the way, the larger portion of it will be of English talent, the boys themselves will entertain the audience with a number of their own selections.

The plan at the present time is to have the boys march through the main streets of the city, from Fifteenth and Broadway to the Orpheum.

The net proceeds of the sale of tickets are to be turned over to the boys' Treasury. These boys are doing the same as the Columbia Park boys of San Francisco did last year, working their way around the world by giving entertainments and band concerts. The lodges of the Order of Sons and Daughters of St. George in San Francisco, Oakland and Alameda have consolidated to make this party a grand success.

Elaborate preparations have been made to make this one of the most enjoyable affairs tendered the boys since they left Australia, for the Sons and Daughters of St. George have left nothing undone to make the boys feel that they are indeed the guests of loyal subjects to the mother country.

Tickets can be secured from any member of the order, and can be exchanged at the box office of the Orpheum on and after Monday, October 2, or at Geo. Fake's, 1163 Broadway, or A. S. Dingle, 425 San Pablo avenue.

POLICE SPECIAL LOSES HIS STAR

Cecil Hitchcock, a special policeman handling the Grand avenue district, was before Commissioner of Public Health and Safety Fred C. Turner and Chief of Police Adelbert Wilson on charges of insubordination and, after being given a hearing, his commission as special officer was revoked and all connection with the city police department severed by order of Turner. Hitchcock, according to Chief Wilson, had too large a "beat" to cover adequately and this was divided in two and another special officer given permission to solicit patronage from the householders. Hitchcock refused to abide by this order and his commission was withdrawn.

Beauty and Vigor Should Be Synonymous Terms

(Copyright: 1911: By Lillian Russell.)

ONE of the good signs of the times is the constant advice of the fresh air devotee. Learn how to breathe, keep yourself clean, be careful of your diet and nine-tenths of the work of beauty culture is done.

Theodore Roosevelt was asked once to speak his views on vigor of body, and he said: "I believe in it for its own sake, but I believe in it still more as an aid to vigor of mind and above all to vigor of character. But I do not believe in it at all if it is made an end instead of a means, especially if play is permitted to become a serious business of life."

This is exactly what I have been trying to say about physical beautifying. I do not believe in it at all if it be made the end of all one's thoughts. There is a trinity in every personality—mind, body and soul (I believe I have said this once or twice before, but it will bear repeating.) To cultivate any one of these to the exclusion of the other two is to become deformed.

However, vigor and beauty of body are perhaps the most important. People have been known to have lived without mind or character, but no one can live without strength and vigor of body. To have this vigor of body you must understand that air is the first and greatest life-giving quality.

One of my readers asked me the other day to explain why we breathe. Scientific explanation of this is entirely beyond me, but of course everyone knows that while we can live for a day or two without food or water we are practically dead the first minute without air.

During these days of sharp, tangy air of fall the seeker of beauty must make resolution. Some part of each day must be spent out of doors, and remember you must walk on the balls of your feet, breathe through your nostrils and step along with an alert mind, ready to be interested in all of the little affairs of life you see about you. Above all, do not indulge in these walks spasmodically, but keep up the habit throughout the winter and you will be surprised at the health and vigor you have stored up.

The cultivation of beauty means the possession of perfect health, the acquirement of charm, good taste in dress and cleanliness and good grooming.

A clear skin, bright eyes, white teeth, a good figure, beautifully-kept hair, attractive hands and a graceful carriage can be the possession of those who want them badly, but to obtain them and keep them one must not do for them and neglect them spasmodically.

Remember, some women are so afraid of doing wrong they won't do anything.

Lillian Russell

MARION—If the toenails are not cut squarely across, but are rounded, pressure on the center of the nail causes the ingrowing toenail. This may be remedied by cutting a notch in the middle of the toenail, or by thrusting under the side of the nail a bit of cotton to force the nail up and outward.

MISS R.—Practice the following exercise to develop the calf of the leg: Sit in a chair, place the foot flat on the floor; then press forward, throwing the weight on the ball of the foot; press hard against the floor. Relax the foot and repeat many times. Do not wear shoes while doing this exercise. If you will send me stamped, self-addressed envelope and again ask for it I will send you instructions for the treatment by which a number of my friends develop their busts.

MRS. S.—The enlarged knuckles may be caused from a gouty condition of your system; if so try drinking at least one quart of buttermilk a day. In addition to drinking the buttermilk, massage the knuckles every time you get a chance during the day, using a good cold cream. To do this you should begin at the finger tips and work down to the base on both sides, front and back. To fatten the wrists there is nothing better than gentle massage with a nourishing skin food. Under separate cover I am sending you recipes for the cold cream which I use almost constantly in the theater and for the skin food which I have used for twenty years.

A CONSTANT READER—Practically the only cure for pimples and an oily skin is a careful diet. Fruit, salads and fresh vegetables must be substituted for candy and sweets, cheese, rich pastry, fried meats and other indigestible foods. Do not eat pork. An indulgence is sure to make the complexion greasy and dull looking. If you will send me a stamped, self-addressed envelope and request I will forward you recipes for an inexpensive astringent lotion which will help to remedy the olliness and for a soothing, healing salve for pimples.

P. M.—To prevent blond hair from turning darker it should be washed at least every two weeks, and you should be careful to wash all the soap out of it. Once a month add a tablespoonful of peroxide of hydrogen to the last rinsing water, and once a month, alternating every two weeks, with the juice of a lemon in the last rinsing water. If you will send me a self-addressed, stamped envelope and letter asking for it I will send you a recipe for the shampoo I use to retain the golden glints in my own hair. It is harmless and leaves the hair bright and lustrous. I am sure you will be pleased with results if you give it a trial.

OAKLAND'S BOYS AND GIRLS

TEACH MANNERS, IS PRINCIPAL'S DICTUM

James E. Addicott, principal of the Prescott school, has issued the following call for the teaching of etiquette, which is to be enforced in that school:

"Our boys and girls are careless about their manners when meeting or addressing teachers. Please have a talk with your class and try to teach all how to address a teacher.

"In speaking of a teacher please impress the good manners in using the title Mrs., Miss, and Mr. Girls should always recognize a teacher when passing and boys should lift the hat even if no word is spoken. It is not polite to shout a 'good day,' etc.

"'Excuse me,' when interrupting a conversation or passing in front of a teacher, etc.

AUSTRALIAN VISITORS TO EXHIBIT PROWESS

Bushrod Park playground will be the rendezvous for the Australian boys Saturday, October 7, when there will be a series of baseball and basketball games between the boys of Bushrod and the Australians. The program for the celebration has not as yet been announced.

VACCINATION--VACATION; CHILDREN HAVE CHOICE

FRESNO, Sept. 29.—All school children that have not been vaccinated will be barred from the Fresno city schools next Monday morning. This is the ultimatum issued from the office of the city superintendent. There has been a great deal of controversy over vaccination between parents and the school authorities, owing to the new law.

The city health department reports that there have been several cases of smallpox, and the order to have all children vaccinated has been the result. Dr. Snow, of the State Board of Health is here for a few days on a trip of investigation.

DANCING, FEATURE OF O. E. S. PARTY

ELAINE HILL.

Singing and dancing were features of the Childrens' party given last evening in Masonic Temple, under the auspices of Oak Leaf Chapter, Order of Eastern Star. A company of talented boys and girls furnished the entertainment, which consisted of a variety of acts. The clever pupils of Miss Hilma Butler appeared in a number of artistic dances. Among the performers were Kirby Hughes, Florence Laufer, Thelma Stark, Evelyn Reeves, Helen McGregor, Horton McDonnell, Fred Seulberger, Elaine Hill, Walter Plunkett, Tynda Wight, Clifford Nellie and John Fant.

GRANT GIRLS TO BE IN CHARGE OF FESTIVAL

The girls of the Grant schol will make the candy to be sold at the fete October 7, when the youngsters will seek to swell the fund for the purchase of gymnastic apparatus for the school ground. Sweets, which will be manufactured in the domestic science department of the school under the direction of Miss G. Wackler, will be in demand on that day.

Jellies, which have been made by the young women, will also be placed on the tables and disposed of by the pretty maids and matrons in charge.

Most of the entertainment for the fete will be provided by the boys and girls, who declare that the festival will be one of the most interesting ever held in this city.

FANNING ISLAND CABLE CARRIED LAST MESSAGE

VANCOUVER, B. C., Sept. 29.—"There is a man-o'-war coming in with three funnels and flying the French colors. I am going down to meet it. Will be back shortly and let you know."

This was the last message received at Suva, Fiji, before the Germans captured Fanning Island, according to Captain Alastair, Mackenzie, late of the Gordon Highlanders, who has just arrived here on the Makura, and who participated in Earl Roberts' famous march to Kandahar, for which he holds the Afghan medal.

The cable repair ship was immediately dispatched when the cable stopped service but eventually the Germans must have wrecked everything for nothing has yet been heard from Fanning Island or its operators.

That the German cruisers in the Pacific at early stages of war could easily have raided Fiji was another of the captain's statements. Preparations for defense were, however, made under the captain's direction to repulse any bombardment from the sea, and the arrival of the New Zealand soldiers en route to capture Samoa relieved the colony from danger.

DENY SINKING OF FRENCH WARSHIP

WASHINGTON, Sept. 29.—Official denial of the sinking of a French warship by the Austrian forts at Cattaro was made today by the French admiralty through the embassy here.

The French secretary for the navy has made known that this news is entirely false and there is nothing to justify such a report.

"Up to date (September 28) no French warship has been touched by an Austrian projectile," said the admiralty statement, which attributed the report to the Cologne Gazette.

CLUB OPPOSES DOCKWEILER.

The city council received a communication from the United Improvement clubs east of Lake Merritt requesting that the position of city expert on water rate matters, now held by Engineer J. H. Dockweiler, be declared vacant. This is the third communication of this kind received since the proposition to renew the contract with Dockweiler was made known. A request was presented to the city council today that Mayor Mott be delegated to represent Oakland at the conference of mayors to be held in Philadelphia October 12 to 14 to consider bringing about uniform electric service and rates.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 29.—Secretary Garrison tomorrow will enter into all of the ardors of army camp life at Rouses Point, N. Y., for four days, where he will inspect a maneuver camp consisting of three infantry regiments and a cavalry regiment from the eastern department. Major General Leonard Wood is commanding and Secretary Garrison will share all of the ups and downs of real field duty with his former chief of staff.

SOLD BOY CIGARS, CHARGE.

Mrs. Mary Lodnego, 2128 Hopkins street, was arrested today on a charge of selling tobacco to minors. Luttrell Will Demand Nomination of Party

Hiram Luttrell, who was defeated by William R. Geary for the Democratic nomination for congressman from the Sixth district, will probably bring mandamus proceedings against Secretary of State Jordan to have his name placed on the ballot for the November election. County Clerk Cook today received word from Sacramento that owing to the peculiar situation resulting from the primary election that Luttrell, the only Democrat running, would not go on the ballot for this reason: Geary, Progressive candidate, lost the nomination in his own party but took away the nomination from Luttrell in the Democratic party. Geary was a candidate in all three parties, but although he won in the Democratic his name cannot go on the ballot because he is a Progressive and lost the nomination of his own party. He also lost the Republican nomination and is out of the race, while Luttrell believes he can force the issue in his own behalf.

WHEAT ADVANCES ON CHICAGO MART

Reported Closing of the Dardanelles Causes Prices to Find Higher Level.

CHICAGO, Sept. 29.—Wheat advanced sharply today on the reported closing of the Dardanelles. The start, which ranged from [illegible] to 1¼c up, was followed by a slight reaction, but then prices rose higher than before.

A large increase of the world's available supply total resulted later in a setback for prices. Selling increased also because of assertions that the Dardanelles would reopen within a few days and that the Russians had captured the fortress of Przemysl. The close was weak, ⅜c to ⅝c under last night.

Corn advanced a little with wheat. After opening [illegible] off to a like advance, the market scored fractional gains.

Bearish crop estimates led afterward to weakness. The close was heavy at 1¼c to 1⅜c@1¼c net decline.

Assertions that the government of Greece was purchasing oats on a large scale made that cereal firm.

Provisions lacked support. An advance in the hog market was virtually ignored.

Closing: Wheat—September, $1.06⅞c; December, $1.09; May, $1.15⅞.

STABBING OF ALAMEDAN VEILED IN MYSTERY

WOUNDED MAN MAINTAINS SILENCE

Companion Declares He Was Hurt When He Stopped to View Street Fight.

Harry la Jeunesse Declines to Tell How He Received Serious Injuries.

ALAMEDA, Sept. 29.—Police investigation has thrown no further light on the stabbing of Harry La Jeunesse, a Grand street merchant, in San Francisco Tuesday night.

Although Dr. W. J. Hosford, who is attending La Jeunesse, says that he will live, the injured person is still refusing to make any statement to the police. H. D. Thompson of 1239 Park avenue, a friend of the injured man, who accompanied him to San Francisco Tuesday night, says that he was injured in a fight at 2 o'clock Wednesday morning.

Thompson says that he and La Jeunesse went to San Francisco to get the election returns and missed the last boat for Alameda. They decided to take the newspaper boat at 2 o'clock in the morning. While waiting at the ferry the attention of the two men was attracted, according to Thompson's story, to a fight on East street. La Jeunesse mixed in the fight and was stabbed. He did not think his injury was serious, and after leaving the train, walked to his home at 2531 Webb avenue, in this city. One of the knife wounds penetrated the intestines.

The police today investigated the report that La Jeunesse had been stabbed during a quarrel with his business partner, William Lewis, but the report was found to be false.

Lieutenant G. F. Thompson of the Thirteenth Infantry, residing at 2330 Webster street in Berkeley, complained to the Oakland police this morning that a thief stole his open face gold watch somewhere near Twelfth and Jackson streets. The watch is valued at $30.

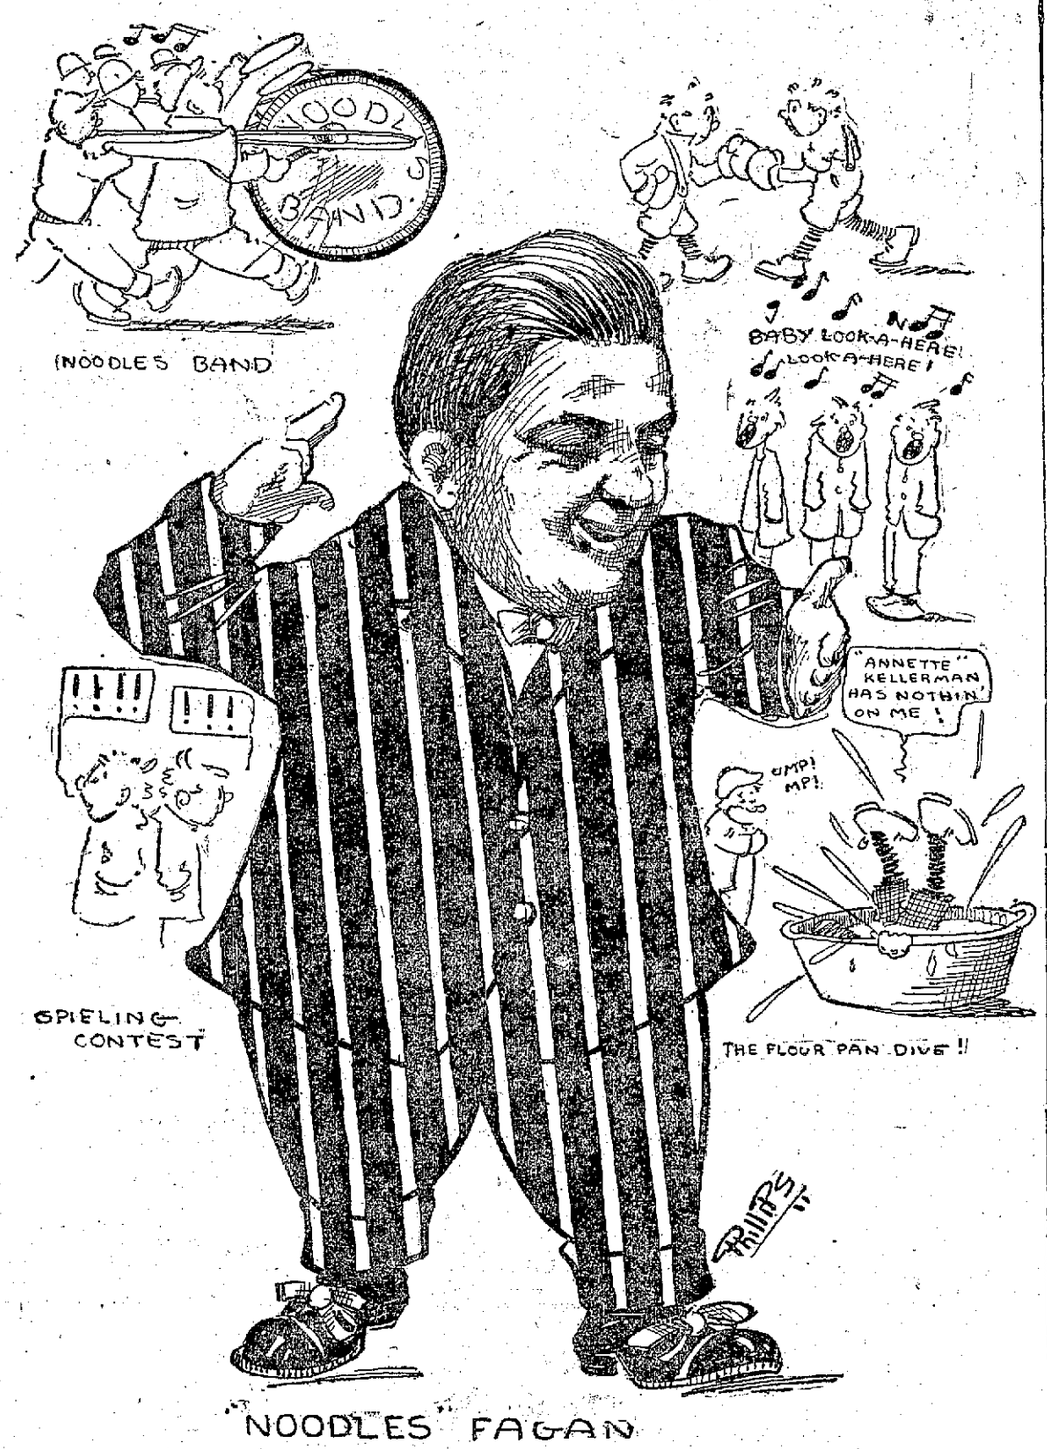

Gong Wah of Thirteenth avenue and East Sixteenth street reported to the police this morning that burglars had entered his laundry through a side window during the night but that they had been frightened away after having stolen 35 cents in coin and one razor.

HUNDREDS OF TRIBUNE NEWSBOY GUESTS HEAR 'NOODLES'

"NOODLES" FAGAN

Six hundred TRIBUNE newsboys paraded Broadway with horns, red fire and a big brass band last night and ended in the Bell theater, where they held the stage after the second show for the great newsboys' carnival under the direction of "Noodles" Fagan, Frank Vessa assisting.

Fagan has his cohorts working like a machine, obeying the word of command with soldierly promptness and marching, halting, turning, making a racket and silencing it at the signal.

The Bell was crowded for the carnival and nearly everyone stayed till the last number on the newsies' jubilee was finished. Barrel-boxing, gang-fighting with heavy gloves, the flour dive, the cracker-eating contest and other famous Olympian games brought down the house as they successively appeared. The Bell never had a show before that produced so much enthusiasm. "Noodles'" act was the hit of the show.

START OF THE PARADE.

The boys gathered at THE TRIBUNE office at 8 o'clock to be inspected and to get their military equipment. It was an exclusive function for TRIBUNE newsboys, so that each candidate for a place was looked over and certified to be the real article before the outfit of a badge, horn, banner and red fire torch was given him. The band played all the ragtime in the music world.

Quite a few quacks, who sought a fellowship in the glories of newsboys last night without previously qualifying by practical experience in that field of endeavor, were detected and cashiered. A newsboys' professional jealousy exceeds that of a lawyer or physician. No matter how good natured and easy-going a newsy is, he is always ready to expose a pretender who takes upon himself the titles and dignities of a paper boy without having ever pursued that lawful calling.

So no Pinkertons or finger-print experts were needed last night to show up the impostors, and only the choice and prime of the young news merchants and route carriers marched under the red fire and witnesses or participated in the exciting scenes at the Bell.

FAGAN HEADS PROCESSION.

Fagan took charge of an army of young veterans, boys that had had experience in obeying orders and doing the thing right. For that reason there was no hitch in the parade, no break in the ranks or unsteadiness in the marching order. Not a suggestion of the awkward squad or the raw militia appeared in the two thin red lines that stretched out in parallel columns two blocks long.

A good sized crowd was awaiting the parade and it multiplied when the host came in sight. The horns had an able accompaniment in an Indian yell or rebel yell. There was no dormant lung power in either file. Even the soda fountains were temporarily deserted while the procession was on.

At the Bell the newsboys occupied the balcony. "Noodles" gave them a little heart-to-heart talk before the curtain rolled up, called their attention to the fact that they would not kick over the piano or destroy other valuable property if they were having a party at a neighbor's house. Therefore, "Noodles" told them that they were likewise to recollect that now they were out for an evening in society.

With a little more 327-a-minute verbal speed-burning on the allied topics of etiquette and good form, "Noodles" got a promise from his retinue to put the soft pedal on the horns and on the conversation during the whole performance, and they kept the promise to the letter. "It wuz some show, too," said the kids.

But the carnival was the headliner for the evening. All the newsboys the stage would hold were crowded on it at the close of the regular show. The first number was a sparring match in barrels.

THE PROGRAM.

A couple of little fellows almost wholly concealed in the barrels went to it hammer and tongs with padded mitts. The winner was the first to tumble over the other fellow and his barrel three times. A big atlas of the world showing every known continent and islands, the nations, cities, towns, villages and hamlets and all about them, was presented to the victor. Maser Breeding gave a cornet solo. He was a big hit.

The next barrel fight was about the best event on the card. It took place between two little "tads," who each had room in his barrel for a comfortable home.

The program follows:

Harry Hirshman vs. Chocolate Turner, three-round go. Billie Ryan vs. Fusco, two-round go. Oakland Tribune Newsboys' quartet. Russel Breeding, cor-

NEW RAILROAD IN CHINA CAUSE OF TROUBLE

Returned Missionary Says the Threatened Uprising Will Be Most Violent.

Coolies Who Oppose Building of Line Likely to Cause Serious Conflict.

SEATTLE, Sept. 29.—Mrs. E. D. Gamewell, wife of the engineer who planned the defenses of Peking during the Boxer rebellion, looks for another outburst in the Sze Chuen district in China even more violent than the one which recently sent the United States gunboats up the Yangtze river to protect American lives. Mrs. Gamewell, who is a missionary, and has lived in China thirty years, arrived from China yesterday. She said:

"The real cause of the Sze Chuen disturbance is the railroad which is being constructed between Ichang and Chengtu, the capital city and commercial center of Sze Chuen. Chang is 400 miles up the Yangtze and beyond this point there is practically no trade except by dangerous water route. One-half to two-thirds of the vessels which take freight up the Yangtze beyond this point are wrecked each year. Where water transportation ends freight must be moved on the backs of coolies. The coolies realize that the railroad will take away their only means of support and they are responsible for the uprising.

"One thing which will aggravate the situation is not generally known. The Chinese who have been building the 1000-mile railroad are doing it with money borrowed from British and German financiers, who, disgusted with the slow progress of the work, have decided to take it over themselves. The coolies hated the idea of the Chinese building the railroad, but the thought of the detested Europeans constructing it will, I fear, drive the Chinese to further outrages."

DES MOINES, Sept. 29.—Des Moines' reception to President Taft today was non-partisan in character. The Greater Des Moines committee, which was host to the chief executive and his party at the Grant Club breakfast, also had charge of the arrangements at the Coliseum, where the public meeting was held.

Senator Albert B. Cummins, who did not join the President's party yesterday, was on hand at the union station here to meet Mr. Taft today. With him was former United States Senator Young. The President was not quite dressed when the train entered the station, but a moment after it came to a halt the two Senators were asked aboard. The greetings between them and the President were brief, but apparently cordial.

After the greeting Senator Cummins started to leave the President's car for the waiting automobile ahead of the President.

"Will you follow Mr. Cummins?" some one asked the President.

"Yes," Mr. Taft is quoted as saying, "I'm always glad to follow Mr. Cummins."

Governor B. F. Carroll and his staff, who had escorted the presidential party from Council Bluffs and from Waterloo and other Iowa cities, immediately on the arrival of the train here joined the local committee in according the distinguished visitor a cordial welcome. The local committee was composed of leading citizens of nearly all shades of political belief.

President Taft and his party left Des Moines at 11:55 a. m. for Albia and intermediate points.

GIVEN WARM WELCOME.

The President received a rousing, non-partisan welcome from many thousands of the citizens of Des Moines this morning when he passed through the street in an automobile parade.

Mr. Taft's principal address at the Coliseum was devoted to the peace treaties. The big crowd in the building broke into applause when he announced his subject and he was frequently interrupted by them.

VACANCY IS FILLED IN CHARITIES BOARD

BERKELEY, Sept. 29. — H. C. Macaulay was this morning appointed by the city council a member of the Berkeley charities commission. He takes the place of Rev. Philo H. Phelps, recently deceased.

The appointment of E. L. Johnson to be special officer and caretaker of Live Oak park, caused some discussion. Commissioner Hoff energetically refused to have his salary given him as a special officer as the money would have to come from the already attenuated police salary roll. It was finally decided that the wages would be paid out of the street department fund.

Provision for supply water for use in Live Oak park was considered possible by the use of a natural spring which the city owns at Eunice and Spruce streets. This water for many years has been pouring down the hill and running to waste on Spruce. The city engineer was directed to plan for its capture and diversion to the park.

The name of Spring street, from Cedar to Bay View place was ordered changed to Scenic way and from Eunice north to Grant avenue.

M. E. CHURCH CONFERENCE ANNOUNCES APPOINTMENTS

Week's Session Comes to Close With Many Surprises and Some Disappointments

One of the most important features of the California conference of the Methodist Episcopal churches, which opened a week's session last Wednesday in the First Methodist Episcopal church, Twenty-fourth and Broadway, was the announcement of appointments made last evening by Bishop Francis J. McConnell who presided over the conference which closed last evening. According to reports there were many disappointments with regard to the appointments, which came as a surprise to many of the Methodist preachers. There were many candidates for the positions of district superintendent of Oakland and San Francisco churches. There is much regret manifested over the transfer of Rev. James H. N. Williams, pastor of the College Avenue M. E. church to the First Methodist Episcopal church of San Jose. Dr. Williams is one of the most beloved clergymen on this side of the bay. He will be succeeded in the College Avenue church by Dr. S. D. Hutsinpiller, who retired as district superintendent of the Oakland churches.

BERKELEY'S WATER LITIGATION TO END

Corporation and City Agree to End Proceedings in the Circuit Court.

BERKELEY, Sept. 29.—Following the conference with directors of the Peoples Water Company, members of the city council announced this morning that a compromise had been effected between the corporation and the city, through which litigation in the circuit court will be dismissed by the former.

The rates of 1910 are to continue in force, according to the arrangement, taking the place of the decreased rates fixed by the city council last June, for the ensuing year.

The old minimum rate for private consumers was $1.50, while the new was placed at $1.25. The city, however, will gain a lower rate for fire hydrants. The old rate for street sprinkling is 15 cents per 1000 gallons.

An agreement is to be drawn up by attorneys representing both sides and presented to the city council.

Representing the municipality in the compromise proceedings were Councilmen Hoff, Turner and Norton.

Lack of funds for the defense of a suit caused the city officials to favor an agreement to dismiss the litigation, which began with an injunction obtained by the water company, restraining the city from enforcing the new rates. The corporation claimed that the rates would not produce a revenue commensurate with the capital invested.

NEWLYWEDS TO END HONEYMOON IN OREGON CITY

MRS. GLENN O. TAYLOR.
—Bushnell Photo.

BERKELEY, Sept. 29.—Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Osborne Taylor have departed for a honeymoon trip which will include a visit at the Lodi home of the groom's parents and will end in Medford, Ore., where the couple will reside.

The wedding of Taylor, a Medford attorney, and Miss Mary Gertrude McGaw, a teacher, took place Tuesday evening at the home of the bride, 1641 Stuart street, Rev. R. S. Eastman, pastor of Know Presbyterian church, officiating. There were no attendants, the simple ceremony taking place in the presence of relatives and a few intimate friends. A wedding supper followed the nuptials. The McGaw home was decorated in green and gold.

The bride is a graduate of Manitoba, B. C., University, and took a graduate course at the University of California, later becoming vice-principal of the Lodi high school. While in Lodi she met and was wooed by Taylor, and was afterward a teacher in Fremont high school, Oakland. She is a daughter of William McGaw, a Berkeley building contractor.

STRIDE IN MANLY SCIENCE.

One made the discovery that by telescoping himself into the barrel a good deal of punishment could be escaped, and his adversary soon mastered this improvement in technique, with the result that the tear-in method of scrapping was succeeded by style, strategy and science. They beat each other good, however, in spite of the invention of the cyclone cellar plan of getting out from under when it became too hot.

GOES TO A DRAW.

Neither was able to empty the other from the barrel and Fagan called it a draw. Some thought that Fagan should have given recognition to a stride in advancement of the fine arts by giving the decision to the chap who originated the dive out of harm's way. Still the wisest disagree. For fighting each other to a standstill, each drew a prize.

Then came the cracker-eating contest. The winner was he who was the first to take his nourishment without letting a crumb escape and to prove that the process was completed by whistling. All but one disqualified by letting crumbs escape, except one who ate as neatly as the nun in the Canterbury tales and was able to whistle in due time. Fagan's decision was protested by several of the defeated candidates, but the evidence against them in fallen crumbs was too utterly damning to admit of argument.

PAPER YELLING CONTEST.

The audience enjoyed better than anything else the paper yelling contest. Every newsboy on the stage was given a chance to compete. Each was to cry in his best voice:

"Evening TRIBUNE; all about the big fire."

The audience was the judge's stand. There were to be five winners, each to be named by acclamation. It was all done vox populi. The first prize should go to the boy who got the biggest hand, and then there were five other prizes to be awarded in the same manner.

STRATEGY TAKES PRIZE.

The first prize went to brains instead of lungs. A midget in a red sweater stole it. When his turn came, he flabbergasted "Noodles" by piping, "Evening TRIBUNE; all about the suicide."

This bit of originality carried the house. "Suicide" won, hands down. The four others were chosen from those who shouted the loudest.

The next competition was that of worrying out with the teeth a little note bearing the words, "THE TRIBUNE," which was hidden at the bottom of a plate heaping with flour. Some startling effects were obtained by a young pickaninny who entered the match.

The cracker contest, participated in by fifteen boys, was won by "Peanuts" McCarthy. Boxing in barrel, won by Mooney, the midget newsboy. Championship yelling contest to decide boy with loudest voice in Oakland, was won by Irish Mike. Monkadoo contest, won by "Spider" McFinch. Flour dive, won by Lucky Dolan. Other contests participated in were hotly contested.

All the way around it was the most exciting performance ever given at the Bell. Never audience waxed more enthusiastic. Each new feature of the carnival got a rousing reception. Fagan finished by making the rafters ring with three cheers for THE TRIBUNE.

"Noodles" gave his usual talk on tuberculosis.

"Noodles" said this morning, "The American people are jst waking up to the great problem. You will be surprised to know that there are over a million people suffering from this disease in America and over one hundred thousand children going to school affected with the disease and still the people of this land when called upon to help assist in stamping out this terrible disease, sit back.

"Now, if the President of the United States would announce this afternoon that there were 1,000,000 cases of smallpox, the entire nation would arise and stamp it out immediately, and yet here is the terrible white plague eating into the homes, sapping the lives of the youths in all American cities. Japan has an emergency fund of $6,000,000, and many other countries have funds prepared to fight the white plague. The most sensible thing for us to do and do today is to join the anti-tuberculosis societies of each town and lend our assistance and spare moments to help save the nation.

"Fresh air is needed in all places, factories, schools and everywhere. The greatest practice to save yourself is this: Sleep with the windows wide open; don't spit upon the sidewalk, and if you see anyone else doing it, do like they are doing in Philadelphia, step up and tap the person on the shoulder and explain in a polite way that Oakland people are now doing their best to eradicate tuberculosis and this is one of the important steps in such a campaign."

"Noodles," when asked a question as to what he thought started tuberculosis, said: "The cigaret evil among the youth of this country, and can you imagine as you read in the papers that some women are smoking cigarets and call it 'style.' Take this from me, there is no style that breaks in on good health."

Tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock the children of the city and their parents will be the guests of THE TRIBUNE at the Bell Theater, where "Noodles" will deliver his famous talk, "Around the World," with illustrated slides and moving pictures. Special music and singing program. Clip the coupon out of THE TRIBUNE or get free tickets at THE TRIBUNE office.

MISERIES OF GHETTO CHILD.

Hear "Noodles" tell of the miseries and suffering of the ghetto child. The melting pot of the world. The big Christmas dinner for the Bowery poor. Child life on the great East Side. The child of the sweat shop. The schools in the poorer districts of New York. He will recite the late President McKinley's great masterpiece, "My Visit to the Great East Side." Remember this lecture will be free. Remember, THE TRIBUNE invites everybody. This is not a newsboys' affair, but every man, woman and child is invited to attend. Tickets and coupons both good.

"Noodles" draws word pictures that can not be equalled, as he takes them from his own experiences. What he tells in his talk he has seen, not as a casual visitor, but as one of the residents of the district known the world over as the great East Side of the metropolis.

PICTURES OF SLUMS.

World-famous magazines and newspapers unite in praising this lecture as one of the strongest ever given on this subject. Fagan pictures the slums, the children of the ghetto, the sweat shop victims—children bent with toil—the horrors of the slums where mothers often watch their offspring dying from lack of water, pure air and food in summer, and from cold and disease in the winter. He tells vividly of the horrors of tuberculosis as it affects the immigrants and poor huddled in the vast tenements of New York, hidden from the light and pure air and dying by the hundreds. It was "Noodles'" own experiences as a boy with the ravages of this horrible disease that prompted him to raise considerable money to fight the great white plague during his recent years on the stage.

CUT IT OUT.

Through the courtesy of THE TRIBUNE, "Noodles" Fagan, the world famous newsboy, will deliver an address on "Travels of the World," illustrated by moving pictures and lantern slides, at the Bell Theater Saturday morning at 10 o'clock.

THIS COUPON ADMITS ONE.

DR. BROOKS AVERS RACE IS FACING STARVATION

General Strike, Such as, Attempted in England, Would Have Us Crazy With Hunger in Few Days,' He Says

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA, Sept. 29.—The threatened strike on the Harriman lines makes particularly interesting the statement which Professor John Graham Brooks made to his class during the present week.

"The race in our climate is only a few months from starvation," he said. "We are all tied up by transportation and by all kinds of electrical communication. A general strike such as was attempted in England a short time ago would have the race crazy with hunger within a few days. If the strike in England had continued, in a few days there would have been starvation. A general strike means just stop working. If men did, I do not know just how long people in the city would live, but it would be just two or three weeks at the utmost.

"A general strike would paralyze the whole capitalistic world, but it would paralyze the working class first. A general strike in Stockholm developed everything except what was expected. In Holland, the results under a general strike were the same. In Belgium a general strike was pulled against the iniquity of not giving fair suffrage. If the general strike can be used against political wrongs it has great possibilities, but if carried further it presents grave difficulties. The railroad strike in England compelled 600 women spending the day at a seaside resort to walk thirty miles to their homes. If the strike had continued much longer than it did, such a storm would have broken as would have compelled calling off the strike. To paralyze capitalization would paralyze in a very short time those who least ought to suffer."

WHAT IT MEANS.

"The assumption of the general strike is that the laboring classes are able to take over the control of the railroads. If I believed that the democratic world was able to take over the railroads, I would believe in the general strike. I have seen plenty of places where I would use it as a threat. If the labor world was really able to take possession of things so as to get rid of the monopoly privilege, I would be in favor of anything. The labor world will suffer many things before it is ready for this. General strikes in the cotton and tobacco trade were disastrous. A general strike as the extremist teaches would be insanity."

Professor Brooks in the same lecture discussed the conflict of interests that socialists claim exist between the capitalist and laboring classes and said:

"I believe the socialists are perfectly right in trying to solidify the class consciousness of the laboring group as a method of propaganda. When it is carried beyond the immediate exigency of a present need, difficulties arise."

8 TO 15 AT TOP.

Professor Brooks gave a description of the economic world in which he said eight to fifteen very wealthy men are to be found at the top; underneath a much larger number of men in great business, then men in small business and in farming. The number of little farms in the United States, according to the professor, is 6,000,000.

"Next," he said, "come the intellectuals, the professional men of all sorts. Bernard Shaw is himself one of this class, though he ridicules it and has made lots of money by his course. In labor unions are found two million men. Beneath are ten times as many laborers not in unions. The conflict of interest is almost as bitter at one end of the list as at the other. And if the capitalistic function is accepting interest, as the socialists claim, this runs clear to the bottom, where we find the negroes with six hundred millions of property accumulated since the Civil war. Conflict exists between the producer and the consumer, between the country and the city. Only very roughly can the two classes, capitalists and laborers, be pitted against each other."

"We get ethical," declared Professor Brooks, "in proportion as we act for a larger unit, giving us a larger ethics. We get civilized just in proportion as we act for the inclusive good of many. Mazzini tried to get his followers to act from the whole human side. Alaska and Mr. Pinchot illustrate this spirit of world patriotism, while Seattle wants the coal opened up, no matter how. Pinchot asks 'How about the next generation?' and says it is not god for the nation to mine the coal without regard to the future as we have cut our forests and skimmed our soil.

"'You are an ethical person,' Feuerbach declared, 'just in proportion as you act for the good of all society.'"

SAYS POVERTY IS NOT A FATALITY

Dr. John Graham Brooks Says Problem of the Poor Can Be Solved.

BERKELEY, Sept. 29.—The last sessions of the conference on social problems, in which clergymen and educators are participating, were held in the First Christian church today.

A symposium on "The Problem of Poverty and Its Cure" was led this morning by Rev. F. S. Brush, pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Alameda. Mayor J. Stitt Wilson spoke on "Bible Socialism."

Speaking on "The Problem of Poverty" at the high school auditorium last evening, Dr. John Graham Brooks, lecturer on social economics at the University of California, said in part:

"Poverty is not a fatality, and can be solved. Society rests on the patience of the poor.

"The generally successful, achieving, lucky classes of the world have a lurking, poisonous contempt for the poor. The strong and successful show disdain for poverty. The reason is that we have a vicious theory that the poor are responsible for poverty. The poor are asking for justice, not charity.

"Some of the curses of poverty are due to human frailty."

CONQUERS FORCES.

Answering the question, "Is There a Cure for Poverty?" Mayor Wilson said:

"Man conquered the forces of nature and has made great machinery do his bidding. There is no poverty in man's ability to produce. Did that ever strike you, or are you in that cocoon state which looks out upon nature but does not see its beauty and abundance? If you are, shake yourself a little and, behold the Titanic marvel about you. The brain of man has conquered these Titanic forces. Labor is planting all the food of the world, harvesting it, threshing it, milling it and serving the bread upon the tables of the non-producing few. Their hands, and muscles and brains do not lack.

"Who digs the coal and operates all the machinery? Who runs the trains and ferry boats? Mr. Kruttschnitt can't run a train. He may run his men. The trains that are this night passing each other at the rate of sixty miles an hour are handled by laboring men. One of these days these trains may stop; then you will find out who was running them. There is no poverty in the results of labor. The poverty is of the laborers themselves. The poor girl that works in the shirt waist factory is laid off when there is too much stock on hand. She hasn't even enough money to pay for one of the shirt waists she has made."

BERKELEY COUNCIL PLANS FOR PARKING

BERKELEY, Sept. 29.—The city council today voted to park an area on Shattuck avenue near Rose street, which has been used as a terminal yard by the Southern Pacific for its steam local trains, which are soon to be removed, electric trains being substituted.

CHARGES WIFE WITH THROWING THINGS

When W. M. Smith was lying in bed seriously ill with malaria and later with ptomaine, he charges in his suit for divorce filed today, that his wife, Jennie G. Smith, took occasion to remain away from home and to abuse him, in one instance throwing a heavy brush and striking him in the face. This and other forms of abuse was more than he could stand, he said, and he desires a separation. The couple were married in Russ, Cal., July 9, 1909. Smith has two children by a former marriage. The Smoth home is at 1806 Oregon street, Berkeley.

A Quartette of Dark Town Fun

Well, here is something that the children will especially enjoy. Three of the cutest little colored kids who can sing, dance and cut capers in great style. "Phina" is the best colored singing and dancing act that has come to Oakland in a long time. They are a bunch of cute kids all right and are especially delightful to the young folks though all acknowledge their cleverness. So bring the young folks tomorrow. Besides "Phina" the Bell has a number of good things on its bill, especially "Noodles" Fagan, the witty newsboy, who is a whole show in himself.

TO DO STUNTS IN GLARE OF BONFIRE

Students Will Hold Pajamarino Rally in the Greek Theater Tonight.

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA, Sept. 29.—Dressed in fantastic garb, students will perform stunts as weird as their costumes at the annual pajamarino rally in the Greek theater this evening. The affair is to have no connection with athletics, and will make its appeal principally to the carnival spirit among the students.

Music will be furnished by the glee and mandolin clubs, the university band, a male quartet and a string sextet. Yell Leader Quinn will be presented with a cane.

The program will include speeches by Prof. T. H. Reed, Prof. W. A. Setchell, Coach James Schaeffer, Captain Amos Elliott and "Shook" Cerf, assistant football coach of last year.

Freshmen will gather wood this afternoon for an immense bonfire, around which the festivities will take place. The students will be seated according to classes.

SCHOOLS TO READ AMENDMENTS

Superintendent Hyatt Asks That They Be Distributed to Students.

ALAMEDA, Sept. 29. — Superintendent of Public Instruction Edward Hyatt has sent the following communication to Superintendent of Schools Will C. Wood asking that the proposed constitutional amendments be distributed in this city:

"To the Superintendent: The legislature of 1911 by formal statute has instructed my office to distribute copies of all the constitutional amendments to the schools and educational institutions of the State.

"The object of this is to stimulate interest and study of these amendments by addresses, debates and discussions. These documents have been placed in my hands this day by the Secretary of State and I hasten to transmit your share. They will be voted on October 10.

"Will you kindly take such steps to distribute them in your territory as may be wise and practicable?—Edward Hyatt, Superintendent Public Instruction."

Superintendent Wood will distribute the amendments to the civics class of the high school and the principals of the schools.

EIGHTEEN ARE HURT IN NEW YORK ACCIDENTS

SUBWAY IS CHOKED BY FIRE

Flames Rage for Hours After Crash of Trains

Fourteen Persons Suffer in Double Collision on Bridge

NEW YORK, Sept. 29.—Three collisions of subways and surface cars sent eighteen persons, more than half of them women, to hospitals today. Two of the injured are said to be mortally hurt.

Four persons were injured in a crash between subway trains at Forty-second street and Lexington avenue. The subway was blocked and tens of thousands of persons were delayed on the way to work.

Six persons were victims of a collision between surface cars in the center of the One Hundred and Forty-fifth street bridge over the Harlem river.

One car that had been struck, deserted by crew and passengers and not held by its brakes, then shot down the incline of the bridge and crashed into another trolley car at the end of the bridge. Eight more persons were taken to hospitals as the result of this accident.

TRAFFIC BLOCKED.

The traffic congestion that followed the collision in the subway was the worst in the history of the city. At several stations more than 5000 persons crowded on the platforms and those nearest the rails were forced entirely off and in some cases walked along the tracks between stations in perilous proximity to the deadly third rail.

Surface cars were crowded till people sat in the windows. Milk wagons, trucks and delivery carts of all descriptions were packed by the thousands waiting to get down town and a stream of these vehicles, laden to overflowing with men and women, rolled south through the chief thoroughfares during the early forenoon.

Adding to the difficulties of the situation was the stubborn fire that blazed up when the trains crashed. For ten blocks along Lennox avenue every manhole belched bellows of black smoke. Firemen tried to fight the blaze by placing their hose through these thirty-inch openings, but made little headway.

The underground fire continued for two hours.

Twelve Watches Begin Fortune of Millions

CHICAGO, Sept. 29.—Richard W. Sears, founder of Sears, Robuck and Company of Chicago, who died yesterday at his summer home, near Waukesta, Wis., left a fortune estimated at $25,000,000. It was learned today. He will be buried from the home of his parents in Minneapolis tomorrow

Sears, according to business associates, was the originator of the mail order enterprise. He began his business career in 1884, while working as a railroad telegraph operator, making a purchase of a dozen watches. He was then 21 years old and retired at the age of 45. He was 51 years old at his death

Hart Ordered Freed in Dale Murder Case

George T. Hart, named by Harry E. Dale, who yesterday gave himself up after murdering his wife and step-daughter, was arrested last night at his home, 521 Center street, and removed to the City Prison, although there was no crime of which he was suspected. Hart was arrested by Patrolman Tillotson and Special Robinson and was held in detinue until he had been questioned today as to whether Dale had any reason to be jealous of him.

Hart proved that he had not been at the Dale home 520 Lewis street, on the night Dale killed his wife and step-daughter, and had not, in fact, been at the Dale home for the past five months. He was ordered released, after being questioned by Inspectors McSorley and Wood.

HEIR TO MILLIONS BEGINS LIFE WORK IN STOCKYARD MUD

CHICAGO, Sept. 29.—A very rich young man arose before dawn today and at daylight was trudging about in the mud of the cattle pens at the stockyards "learning all about it."

The very rich young man is Philip D. Armour III, grandson of the founder of Armour & Co., and following the rule laid down by the late head of the house, if he expects to enter the business at all he must learn it from the ground up.

His work today is but a sample of what he must follow for months, until he becomes qualified as a buyer. Some day it is planned by his uncle, Ogden Armour, that he shall be president of the company. He is 21 years old and a graduate of Yale.

SEYD HAVENS SUED FOR DIVORCE

The honeymoon ship of Seyd Havens and his bride, the former Sue Miller, which was wrecked five days after it set sail from Oakland on June 25, 1913, was cast up on the rocks of divorce today, deserted and forlorn save for memories of one of the most romantic courtships and marriages that has taken place in the Oakland smart set for many years. Mrs Havens filed her suit today. More than a year having elapsed since the love ship floundered at Calgary, Canada, in a squall of matrimonial discord, the complaint, which has been placed on the secret files of the Superior Court merely recites the incident of the storm and the farewells which took place when the young groom surreptitiously went over the side and made his way alone to New York, where he has since remained.

NO MAKING UP.

After a month's stay with relatives at Calgary, Mrs. Havens returned to Oakland and to the bosom of her family. Rumors had it at the time that a reconciliation was to take place; that the bride had gone to the home of her husband's parents, awaiting his return, after which all would be well. But the prodigal returned not and weeks went by. The deserted bride spent some time in Sacramento and then came rumors of divorce. That was last November, when the warmth of June was all but forgotten. Still the months went by with no homecoming and no divorce. The year elapsed and nearly two months more, until today the legal action was commenced.

For a month prior to the wedding there had been rumors that the young clubman and the belle of the smart set were engaged. The reports were intermittently affirmed and denied until on the morning of June 26, 1913, when it became known that the wedding had been quietly performed the night before at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. K. Miller, on Twenty-eighth street.

The couple departed that night for

Must Reregister to Vote on November 3

Persons who have changed their place of residence within the last thirty days will have to re-register between now and Saturday night, at which time the rolls close for the general election of November 3d. County Clerk Cook announced today that the registration office would remain open between 7 and 9 o'clock evenings, including next Saturday evening. It is estimated that as many as 1000 persons have changed their address. There have been nearly 2500 new registrations since the primary election

Seeks Probate of Will After 30 Years

Thirty years after it was drawn, an olographic will made by the late Thomas F. Graber, an attorney who died in Berkeley three weeks ago was filed for probate in the Superior Court today, together with the petition of his widow, Mrs Ada Graber, who was named as executrix to act without bonds. A will disposes of a considerable estate to the widow, who is represented by Attorney Charles L. Colvin, former law partner of Attorney Graber.

Germans Evacuate Line of Defense After Battle

Forces of Enemy Overwhelming; Chinese Blow Up Bridge

By Associated Press.

WEI HSIEN, Shang Tung, China, Sept. 29, 6:20 p. m.—Chinese troops today blew up and destroyed the railroad bridge at Tayu-Ho, six miles west of here. The sound of the explosion could be heard in this city.

The foregoing dispatch is the first indication that Chinese troops have taken any active part in opposing the military operations of the Japanese in Shang Tung province in the latter's campaign against the Germans in the leased territory of Kiao Chow.

To facilitate this campaign the Japanese landed in Chinese territory. At this time China protested, but the protest was ignored by Japan. Recent dispatches from Peking said the Chinese believed the Japanese intended to capture all the railroad stations to the west of Wei-Hsien. Three hundred Japanese cavalrymen left Wei-Hsien recently, going west along the railroad.

EVACUATE LINE OF DEFENSE.

By Associated Press.

PEKING, China, Sept. 29.—The Germans in Kiao Chow have evacuated the Waldersee line of defense before an overwhelming force of the enemy. Tsing Tau is now completely invested. The German losses were small.

This information is contained in a dispatch received here from a German source at Tsi-Nan, Shang Tung, which evidently is a wireless communication from Tsing Tau. It adds that the Japanese armored squadron bombarded Tsing Tau Monday without doing any damage.

Japanese official reports corroborate the foregoing and explain that the engagement occurred Monday morning. They declare, further, that the Germans are now back on their main line of defense, five miles from Tsing Tau, and that Japanese troops occupy heights commanding the lines

BEGIN EXCHANGE OF GERMAN AND BRITISH PRISONERS

By Associated Press.

LONDON, Sept. 29, 2:20 p. m.—The British and German governments have begun exchanging lists of prisoners of war. This is being done through Walter H. Page, the American ambassador in London, and is preparatory to arranging an actual exchange of prisoners. The first lists passed through the American embassy today.

They were not very extended, but additional lists are expected shortly. Up to the present time these exchanges have been arranged only for women and children and men over 55 years or less than 18 years, or those physically disabled. The war office promises a speedy publication of the lists of English prisoners in Germany to relieve the anxiety of relatives.

U. S. Consul's Family in Rheims Wine Cellar

By Associated Press.

PARIS, Sept. 29, 2:45 p. m.—William Bardel, American consul at Rheims, his wife, his daughter and his son are the only Americans left in the French city.

They have spent most of the time during the last two weeks in a wine cellar 100 feet under ground, the opening to which is within half a block of their dwelling.

Major Spencer Cosby, the military attache at Paris has just returned from Rheims, where he went with Whitney Warren of New York to take money to the consulate.

Boston Is National Pennant Winner

NEW YORK, Sept. 29.—The Boston club is the pennant winner of the National League for 1914. Boston defeated Chicago in Boston today and when the New York Giants lost to Pittsburg in this city by a score of 5 to 2, Boston became winner of the pennant. With a nine-game lead, Boston could lose all her remaining games and still finish first in the race.

Emden Deals Out Disaster to Vessels of Great Britain

Four Steamers and Big Collier Are Sent to Bottom

By Associated Press.

LONDON, Sept. 29, 4:07 p. m.—The Official News Bureau announced today that the German cruiser Emden has sunk four British steamships and a collier.

The statement of the bureau is as follows:

"The admiralty announces that the German cruiser Emden, during the last few days, has captured and sunk in the Indian ocean the British steamers Tumeric, King Lud, Riberia and Foyle and captured the collier Bursk.

"The crews of the above vessels were transferred to the steamer Gryfedale, which also was captured, but later released in order to take the crews to Colombo, where they arrived this morning."

The Emden has been operating in the Gulf of Bengal. She was reported recently at Madras where she conducted a brief bombardment of that port and later at Pondicherry.

Dardanelles May Soon Be Reopened

By Associated Press.

LONDON, Sept. 29, 8 a. m.—A dispatch from Constantinople to the Reuter Telegram Company says there is good reason to believe that the Dardanelles, ordered closed yesterday, will be reopened to navigation in two or three days.

In reference to the closing of the foreign postoffice, an understanding has been reached before the British, French and Russian embassies and the porte, according to which the postoffices will close on October 1, but the staffs will be transferred to the respective embassy buildings, where they will continue to receive European mails on October 25, though they will discontinue the dispatch of mail from Constantinople on October 10. The Austrian, German and Italian postoffices will close on October 10.

25,000 NAVAL RESERVES RUSHED TO BRUSSELS TO MAN KAISER'S FLEET

By Associated Press.

LONDON, Sept. 29, 3:42 p. m.—In a dispatch from the Antwerp correspondent of the Evening News says the shelling of Malines, Belgium, by the Germans continued throughout last all of last night. Most of the streets are encumbered with wreckage of burned buildings.

Cardinal Mercier left Malines at 6:30 o'clock last evening.

The few remaining inhabitants also left the city yesterday.

GERMANS PLAN ANTWERP SIEGE.

By Associated Press.

ROTTERDAM, Sept. 29, via London, 10:50 a. m.—The activity along the Belgian frontier indicates that the Germans are planning for a big siege of Antwerp within a few days. More than 25,000 men of the German naval reserve have been brought from the North sea towns of Kiel and Hamburg to Brussels and are being held in readiness to man an improvised German fleet should Antwerp and Ostend be taken.

BOMBS DROP, CONVENT IS DAMAGED

By Associated Press.

LONDON, Sept. 29, 2:49 p. m.—A Central News dispatch from Amsterdam says that further attacks have been made by Zeppelin dirigible balloons.

Four bombs were dropped on Deynze, nine miles southwest of Ghent, and two thrown on Thielt, fifteen miles southeast of Bruges.

At the former place the convent of St. Vincent was badly damaged.

Higher Passage Fare Is Suspended

WASHINGTON, Sept. 29.—Cancelation by transcontinental railways generally of existing tariff provisions permitting the routing of passengers via the Denver and Rio Grande railroad and Salt Lake City for Ogden, Utah, thus increasing materially the passenger fares, was suspended today by the Interstate Commerce Commission until January 15, 1915. An investigation of the matter by the commission is alleged to have shown that the proposed fares would be excessive and unreasonable.

U. S. Academies May Abandon Their Game

WASHINGTON, Sept. 29.—Because of the failure of West Point and Annapolis to agree on cities for the army and navy football game, Secretary Garrison today recommended to the West Point authorities that the game be abandoned permanently.

As a direct result of this move the Dutch authorities along the Scheldt have increased their watchfulness, for during a siege of Antwerp England might like to send reinforcements through the Dutch Scheldt, which would be a breach of neutrality, while on the other hand a German victory would bring danger of an attempt on the part of Germany to use the mouth of the Scheldt as a base from which to attack the British naval forces in the North Sea. Communications with Antwerp have been almost suspended. The town can be reached by automobile, while one small freight line from Rotterdam maintains a desultory daily service. Only those provided with extraordinary passports and first-class credentials are admitted.

NO LONGER FEAR SPIES.

The fear of German spies has somewhat subsided. Meantime, however, all German and German subjects have been expelled and even those who are of German and Austrian descent but who have been Belgian subjects for many years have been placed under strict military guard in and around the triangle formed by Ostend, Ghent and Antwerp.

The moment for the actual siege of Antwerp, according to the best information circles, will depend on the outcome of the present battle in Northern France. Should Germany win in this battle the attack on Antwerp will be pushed at once, while in case of a German defeat the troops now holding the line of the Scheldt will be used to resist any Belgian attempt to cut the route of the retreating Germans.

It is impossible to get correct figures regarding the strength of the German troops, but according to the best information to be had from Brussels enough German troop trains have passed through that city since last Monday to bring the number up to 150,000 men.

TO USE AUSTRIAN SIEGE GUNS.

The large German siege guns have all been removed to the Aisne battlefield and the guns which Germany intends to use for Antwerp are of Austrian make and were brought to Belgium on Austrian railway trucks.

WAR SUMMARY

By Associated Press.

The terrific battle, now in its eighteenth day, in the Aisne district to the north of Paris continues to date, but its violence is generally held to portend a decisive result in the near future. Furious hand-to-hand fighting is going on and the losses to both the allied and German armies are enormous.

Several times the Germans hurled their masses of troops against the French left wing, but in every case they were repulsed, according to the official statement issued by the French war department this afternoon. In the center it is asserted a heavy cannonading is going on, while between the Argonne forest and the River Meuse the allies have made some progress.

The German general staff, Berlin advices say, claims that the situation on French soil has not changed, and it is emphatically denied that the battle at any point of the line is going in favor of the allies.

Galicia has been almost cleared of Austrians, according to an announcement at Petrograd, and the Russians, crossing the Carpathian mountains, have entered Hungary and are driving back the Austrian reinforcements sent against them. The invaders swept across the mountains into the Ughvar district, which is about 180 miles northeast of Budapest, the Hungarian capital.

Germans estimated to number 150,000 are reported from Rotterdam to be preparing for a siege of the Belgian fortress of Antwerp. Austrian siege guns have been brought up to take the places of the large German guns which are now being used in the fighting in the French district of Aisne. A Belgian official communication states that German heavy artillery fire directed at two forts ten miles from Antwerp ceased when the forts rpelled to the bombardment.

The activity of the Zeppelin dirigibles stretches over a wide area. Six bombs were hurled today at two Belgian towns, in one of which a convent was damaged, and another German airship created a panic at the town of Bialystok, sixty miles across the Russian frontier.

The Japanese are drawing the military cordon closer around the German territory of Kiao-Chow in the Chinese province of Shan Tung.

An official Japanese statement today announces that the Japanese are driving the Germans toward Tsing-Tau and that the Japanese fleet, aided by the army, has bombarded the Ilis fort

Russia has extended the suspension of bank payments for another month.

FRENCH CLAIM THAT ATTACK ON THEIR LEFT WING IS REPULSED

By Associated Press.

PARIS, Sept. 29, 3:01 p. m.—"On our left wing along the river Somme," the French official statement issued this afternoon says, "the Germans attempted numerous attacks which the allies repulsed."

The text of the statement is as follows:

"First—On our left wing, to the north of the Somme and between the Somme and the Oise, the enemy, both by day and by night, delivered several attacks, which have, however, been repulsed.

"To the north of the Aisne there has been no change.

"Second—On the center, in Champagne and to the east of the Argonne, the enemy has restricted activities to heavy cannonading.

"Between the Argonne and the Meuse there has been slight progress on the part of our troops, who are confronted by strongly organized positions on the heights of the Meuse.

"In the Woevre district, and on our right wing, in Lorraine and the Vosges, there has been no notable modification in the situation."

"Generally speaking, our line runs from the east to the west, through the region of Pont-A-Mousson, Apremont and the Meuse, through the region of Saint Mihiel, along the heights to the north of Spada and through a portion of the heights of the Meuse to the southeast of Verdun. Between Verdun and Rheims the general front is indicated by a line passing through the region of Varennes to the north of Souain and the Roman roadway which runs into Rheims, the outposts of Rheims, the road from Rheims to Berry Au Bac and the heights known as the 'Chemin Des Dames.'

"On the right bank of the Aisne this line then draws near to the Aisne and continues into the region of Soissons. Between Soissons and the forest of L'Aigle it runs over the first plateau of the river bank of the Aisne. Between the Oise and the Somme this line runs along the front from Ribecourt (which belongs to us) to Lassigny (occupied by the enemy) to Roye (which belongs to us) and to Chaulnes (in the possession of the enemy).

"To the north of the Somme the line continues along the plateau between Albert and Combles.

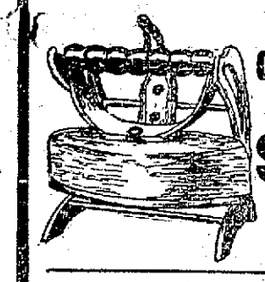

"We again took many prisoners during the day of yesterday. They belong principally to the Seventh active corps and the Seventh reserve corps of the German army and also to the Tenth, Twelfth, Fifteenth and Nineteenth German army corps."

ENCINAL CITY RESIDENTS TO CELEBRATE ON SUNDAY

MR. AND MRS. C. C. VOLBERG of Alameda, who will celebrated their golden wedding on Sunday next. —Webster, Photo.

ALAMEDA, Sept. 29.—A reunion of their family and intimate friends will be held by Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Volberg Sunday to celebrate their fifty-fifth wedding anniversary. Although the couple were married in San Francisco September 29, 1856, they decided to observe their anniversary Sunday. Volberg came to California from New York in 1854, and Mrs. Volberg came west two years later, their marriage immediately following her arrival. The ceremony was peformed at the German Lutheran church of San Francisco by Pastor Moschache.

Volberg served as president of the Altenheim, the German Old Peoples' home at Fruitvale, for 12 years. He has always been keenly interested in civic affairs and was a city trustee when Superior Judge John Ellsworth was city attorney.

The pioneer resident is an extensive land owner, purchasing considerable property in this city when he first settled here 39 years ago. He was president of the Alameda Building and Loan society for 30 years. Three children and three grandchildren will participate in the anniversary celebration Sunday. The children are Frederick L. Volberg, Mrs. E. Gottfried of this city and Mrs. H. Bruns of San Francisco.

BROTHER MICHAEL DIES ACROSS BAY

Treasurer of St. Mary's College Passes Away at the Age of 57.

Brother Michael, treasurer of St. Mary's College, died in a San Francisco hospital yesterday at the age of 57. His death occurred on the eve of the feast day of the saint whose name the dead man had borne.

The deceased educator will be remembered by his effective work as superintendent of St. Vincent's Roman Catholic orphanage in Marin county. His term of office extended from 1894 to 1906, and during that period he labored for the welfare of the homeless and motherless boys committed to his care.

His efforts to secure good positions and desirable environment for his charges when the time came for them to leave the asylum were thorough and successful. As a result of his endeavors many of the former orphan boys now fill positions of trust and prominence in and around San Francisco.

Brother Michael was in charge of the preparatory department of St. Mary's College from 1906 to 1908. This institution, known as St. Joseph's Academy, is in Peralta Park, Berkeley. Ill health obliged Brother Michael to give up this position.

The funeral of Brother Michael will be held tomorrow morning. A mass of requiem will be chanted in the chapel of St. Mary's College, after which the remains will be interred in St. Mary's Cemetery.

PARK ST. BRIDGE WILL BE CLOSED

Traffic to Be Suspended That Needed Repairs May Be Made.

Park street bridge is to be closed to traffic for ten days, commencing Monday morning, by order of the federal authorities, according to a communication received by the city council this morning from Lieutenant Colonel Thomas H. Rees of the United States corps of engineers, composing the local rivers and harbors board. The suspension of traffic is to give an opportunity for replacing the planking.

Commissioner of Public Works Harry S. Anderson suggested that signs should be erected on the streets leading from Central Oakland to the bridge to save heavy traffic going twice unnecessarily over the city streets. The council acted upon this suggestion favorably, referring the matter to the street department.

WOULD SET ASIDE SEILER DIVORCE

Stipulation Filed Asking Court to Change Its Ruling in Case.

By a stipulation filed in the Superior Court late yesterday, it is asked that an interlocutory decree of divorce which was granted Florence Helene Seiler from Walter L. Seiler on June 19 this year be set aside.

In her complaint for divorce Mrs. Seiler told the court that her husband had repeatedly told her that he did not love her any more and had insisted that she return to the home of her parents. She refused and was informed that all her clothes would be put out on the porch. Then she packed up and left. This performance was repeated several times.

The couple were married in March, 1910, and it was May 23, 1911, that the plaintiff left their home at 1123 First avenue for the first time.

which is still under the immediate control of the Belgian government, is perfectly quiet. All cities and villages along the frontier at night are kept in absolute darkness to avoid attacks from Zeppelins, which are cruising over this territory almost every night.

The fortifications of Antwerp are considered among the strongest in the world. The city has been fortified since the middle of the sixteenth century. In 1860, twenty-eight years after the taking of the city by English and French troops, Brialmont, the noted Belgian fort builder, supervised the reforunication of the city, and since 1877 it has had a line of forts well out from the inner defenses.

The growing efficiency of modern siege guns, however, compelled the Belgians, if they desired to preserve their neutrality, to modernize their defenses. In 1907 the government decided to do away with the inner line of walls and replace them with an inner line of forts on the right bank of the Scheldt. The plan involved the barricading of the intervals between the eight forts with iron barricades and permanent redoubts.

EARTHWORKS PLANNED.

At the north and northeast great earthworks were planned for infantry and ditches which can be inundated from the Scheldt were dug in front of these earthworks.

The forts on the left bank of the Scheldt are to supplement this inner line of defenses.

The greatest importance is attached to the outer works. They consist in part of new fortifications, in part of old forts rebuilt. The work was begun in 1913.

It is probable that this ideal was realized and that the fortification system is now practically complete. Of the new forts on the outer line, [illegible] Gravenzel, Oeleghem, Broechem, Ressel and Konigshoyck. There are six redoubts to the west and two more protect Eritbrand and Brazohaet in the north, while three new forts, Breen Donk, Liezele and Bornhem, have been erected on the south. The fort Haesdonk, protected by two redoubts, also has been erected on the west.

This outer chain of forts lies from ten to eleven miles outside the city and has a front of about eighty miles.

Floods Interfere With Operations in Extreme East

By Associated Press.

PARIS, Sept. 29, 6:20 a. m.—The comparative calm on the French battle line yesterday after Sunday's storm of shot and shell was a surprise. It was supposed that the extreme violence of the attack meant a determination to finish the campaign on the Aisne by breaking the allies' lines at all costs, and the pressure, it was expected, would continue, especially on the allies' left, where the Germans had brought up reinforcements.

The center, however, was the only point seriously attacked, probably on the supposition that the line here had been weakened to reinforce the left. One theory is that the armistice of four hours granted by the French for burying the dead was not sufficient, and that the invaders needed the entire day to get rid of the bodies encumbering the trenches and another is that further shifting of troops is in progress preparatory to a violent shock elsewhere, all efforts against the left having failed. In any case, the opinion is prevalent here that the Germans are losing valuable time, and that a return of the bad weather would perhaps find them still burrowed in the chalky clay of the Aisne district, and that they will again be forced by invading floods to uncover themselves.

The military operations in the extreme east of Vosges and in Alsace have been hindered by bad weather, as there is snow on the heights and floods in the valleys. The Rhine is much swollen, while the Doler, Thur and Ill rivers have overflowed. The plain between the Muelhausen and the mountains is under water to a great extent, and it is impossible to move heavy artillery, which gives an advantage to the allies, who have comparatively light guns.

Both sides, however, are handicapped and if the bad weather continues it will have the result of prolonging the campaign on both sides of the Vosges and in the Ardenne region.

The French people are busy preparing winter underclothing for their soldiers in the field.

GERMANS LOSE HEAVILY.

By Associated Press.

LONDON, Sept. 29.—According to information from the front the Germans suffered enormous losses in the last engagements, says the Bordeaux correspondent of the Reuter Telegram Company. The message continues: "German prisoners state that some companies of the guards have dwindled to one hundred men and are commanded by young officers as they have lost all their former officers since the beginning of the war."

which the Germans now hold. Three German warships inside Tsing Tau harbor and two Japanese aeroplanes participated in the fighting.

Chinese officials would not say tonight whether the blowing up of the railroad bridge at Tau Ho, six miles west of Wei-Hsien, by Chinese troops had been ordered by the government or not.

It has been learned, however, that the Japanese minister here informed the foreign office yesterday that the Japanese intended to occupy the railroad into Tsin-Nan, the capital of Shang Tung province. To this the foreign office refused to agree.

The information was obtained in high quarters today that it is the wish of President Yuan Shi Kai to avoid trouble with the Japanese. The military men of China, however, are under German influence and a large number of Chinese troops recently have been mobilized in Shang Tung province.

OCCUPY WEI-HSIEN.

LONDON, Sept. 29, 5 p. m.—The Exchange Telegraph Company publishes a dispatch from Shanghai saying that the Japanese have occupied Wei-Hsien and control the Tsin-Nan-Fu-Kai Chow railroad. This action was taken, the correspondent says, because of the discovery of a German mine outside the zone of hostility and as an offset to this German violation of Chinese neutrality.

JAPANESE VICTORS.

By Associated Press.

TOKIO, Sept. 29.—An official announcement today concerning the progress of events in Kiao Chow says:

"Japanese forces during the day and night of September 27 drove the enemy in the direction of Tsing Tau.

"The Japanese casualties were 150. The German losses are not known, but 50 men and four machine guns were captured. This action, which was speedier than anticipated, has accelerated the general attack.

"The fleet has attacked the Iltis fort, effectively aided by the army."

JAPANESE VICTORY.

"A British warship joined with the Japanese in the bombardment September 28 of two of the Tsing Tau forts. One of the forts replied, but without effect. The result of this bombardment is not known, but a building, believed to be a barracks, was demolished and the defense works were damaged.

"The work of mine sweeping continues successfully despite the fire of the defenders on shore. One Japanese boat was hit and two men were wounded.

ANTI-KAMNIA TABLETS FOR ALL PAIN

"The efficiency of any drug" says Dr. C.P. Robbins, "is known to us by the results we obtain from its use. If we are able to control pain and disease by means of any preparation, we certainly are warranted in its use. One of the principal symptoms of all diseases is pain, and this is what the patient most often applies to us for, i. e. something to relieve his pain. If we can arrest this promptly, the patient is most liable to trust in us for the other remedies which will effect a permanent cure. One remedy which I have used largely in my practice is Anti-kamnia Tablets. Many and varied are their uses. I have put them to the test on many occasions, and have never been disappointed. I found them especially valuable for headaches of malarial origin, where quinine was being taken. They appear to prevent the bad after-effects of the quinine. Anti-kamnia Tablets are also excellent for the headaches from improper digestion; also for headaches of a neuralgic origin, and especially for women subject to pains at certain times. Two Anti-kamnia Tablets give prompt relief, and in a short time the patient is able to go about as usual." These tablets may be obtained at all druggists. Ask for A-K Tablets. They are also unexcelled for headaches, neuralgia and all pains

BURGOMASTER IS GIVEN FREEDOM

Indemnity Paid by Brussels After Arrest by Military Governor.

By Associated Press.

LONDON, Sept. 29, 9:50 a. m.—Burgomaster Max of Brussels, arrested on the order of the German military governor on the charge that he had ordered the banks to refuse to pay an installment of the indemnity which was due, has been released, according to an Ostend dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph Company. The release followed the payment to the Germans of 20,000,000 francs ($6,000,000).

The war tax levied against Brussels after the Germans had occupied the Belgian capital was said at the time to be $40,000,000.

AGAIN MEDIATES.

BRUSSELS, via London, Sept. 29, 10:21 a. m.—The release of Burgomaster Max again gives the picturesque mayor of the captured Belgian capital a chance to serve as intermediary between his people and the Germans, a position which he has filled with extraordinary originality.

When the invaders entered the city he procured liberal terms from them by guaranteeing good behavior on the part of his people. By means of posters distributed over the city M. Max conveyed orders and war news to his people after the regular press had been suppressed and when this was forbidden he mounted the steps of the town hall every morning and read out the Belgian version of the war news which did not always correspond with dispatches printed in official German papers.

Burgomaster Max was put in jail, from which he has just been released, over a dispute on the question of the payment of the indemnity demanded by the Germans.

REMAINS OF THE LIBRARY AT LOUVAIN AFTER THE BOMBARDMENT OF THAT CITY BY THE GERMANS.

By Associated Press.

LONDON, Sept. 29, 4:10 p. m.—A Reuter dispatch from The Hague says that a Dutch committee has been formed under the presidency of Dr. Frun, keeper of the state archives, for the purpose of restoring the library at Louvain, which was destroyed by the Germans. Many of the country's prominent persons have been invited to co-operate in the work.

RUSSIANS CROSS THE HUNGARIAN FRONTIER AT SEVERAL POINTS

By Associated Press.

LONDON, Sept. 29, 11:35 a. m.—An official communication issued at Buda Pest, according to a Rome dispatch to the Exchange Telegram Company, admits that the Russians have succeeded in crossing the Hungarian frontier at several points in the Ung district despite the fact that reinforcements have been sent against them. Ung is a county in the northeastern part of Hungary.

Russians and Germans Battle Desperately in Czar's Polish Province

By Associated Press.

PETROGRAD, Sept. 29.—The following official communication from the chief of the general staff, regarding the Russian operations, has been given out here:

"Russian troops are driving fast on the offensive in the forests of Augustowo, in Russian Poland, Province of Suwalki. The Germans are using heavy seige artillery in the borbardment of the fortress of Ossowetz. An attempt by the German infantry to close in on the fortress has been checked.

"On the front of Silesia the enemy has been greatly reinforced and shows much activity.

"Sorties of the garrison of Przemysl have not been successful. Many prisoners, a number of cannon and some stores of ammunition have fallen into our hands.

"As the Austrian retreat in Galicia continues great confusion is noticeable in the ranks."

REVOLUTIONIST ARRESTED.

LONDON, Sept. 29, 2:50 p. m.—A dispatch to the Evening Star from Petrograd says the famous Russian revolutionary, Vladimir Bourtzeff, who returned to Russia to fight for the land from which he escaped while a prisoner in Siberia, has been arrested.

IN RUNNING FIGHT.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 29.—Colonel Golejewski, military attache of the Russian embassy here, announced today receipt of the following from Petrograd:

"In the woods near Argustov our troops are successfully advancing, keeping up a running fight with the enemy.

"Near Ossowjetz, on the morning of September 27, the fire of the enemy's big caliber guns reached considerable intensity. The attempt of the German infantry to get close to the fortress was checked.

"In Silescia, the enemy has been considerably strengthened and is manifesting great activity.

"The Austrian soldiers from Przemysl remain unsuccessful. In the retreating Austrian army considerable disorganization is noticeable, units being broken and mixed up. We continue taking prisoners in large numbers and we are completing capturing guns and war material of every description."

N. Y. Consul Besieged by British Recruits

By Associated Press.

NEW YORK, Sept. 29.—The British consulate was besieged yesterday by a small army of men waiting to enlist. More than 300 were examined. Particular attention is given to the applicants' sight. More than 30 per cent, it was said, were turned away because of defective vision.

Schoolhouse Hit by Bomb; 11 Pupils Die

By Associated Press.

LONDON, Sept. 29.—The operators of a German Zeppelin dirigible dropped a bomb into a schoolhouse at Bielostok, Russia, yesterday, killing 11 children, according to a dispatch from Petrograd to the Morning Post.

REOCCUPY CEDED TERRITORY.

PARIS, Sept. 28.—"It is officially announced that the French forces in equatorial Africa have reoccupied the greater part of the Congo territory ceded to Germany by the treaty of 1911," says the Bordeaux correspondent of the Havas agency.

LOYALTY TO THE EMPIRE URGED

Premier Botha Declares Neutrality Policy Is Absolute Nonsense.

By Associated Press.

LONDON, Sept. 29. — A despatch to Reuter Telegram Company from Cape Town says that in the course of a speech to 5000 people at the Bank, in the Transvaal, General Louis Botha, Premier of South Africa, emphasized the necessity of loyalty to the British Empire.

Declaring that the policy of neutrality was absolute nonsense, he pointed out that if a German warship came to Durban and imposed a levy of five million pounds sterling on them it would help the people very little to say that they were neutral.

GERMANS ON THE MOVE.

By Associated Press.

LONDON, Sept. 29.—A Reuter dispatch from Ostend says that a traveler from Brusels reports the town full of German troops coming from the south.

GERMANS MARCH FROM MALINES

Direct Heavy Artillery Fire on Big Forts in Vicinity of Antwerp.

By Associated Press.

LONDON, Sept. 29.—An official communication given out by the Belgian government is contained in an Antwerp dispatch to the Reuter Telegram Company. It says:

"After bombarding Malinas, 14 miles southeast of Antwerp, the Germans under cover of night re-entered the unoccupied town and have now resumed their march therefrom.

"The Germans have directed their fire from their heavy artillery on the forts of Warre, St. Catherine and Waelheim, about 10 miles from Antwerp, but with a result not justifying their great expenditure of ammunition. Our forts replied and the bombardment ceased.

"Between the Dendre and the Willebroeck Canal, west of Waelheim, the offensive movement of the army was promptly checked. The forts inflicted serious losses on the enemy and compelled his retreat."

British Squadron Is Now at Chilean Port

By Associated Press.

PUNTA ARENAS, Chile, Sept. 29.—The British cruisers Good Hope, Monmouth and Glasgow, under the command of Rear-Admiral Sir Christopher Cradock, arrived here today.

Punta Arenas is on the strait of Magellan and all vessels going through the strait from the Atlantic to the Pacific stop there. It is evident that the British Admiralty has decided to send these cruisers into the Pacific, for these three cruisers sailed from Montevedio the 9th and the 11th of September.

SUFFERING OF GERMAN TROOPS IN TRENCHES IS MOST INTENSE

By Associated Press.

LONDON, Sept. 29.—A picture of the sufferings of the German troops, cramped in miles of underground trenches and galleries along the Aisne River, is given by the Paris correspondent of the Daily Mail. He says that the autumnal weather with its warm sunshine in the day time, damp nights and bitterly cold dawns is extremely trying to the men who are compelled to spend every minute in the same section of the damp, depressing trenches.

If the men step from their trenches to the level ground they do so at the risk of their lives. At night the chances of an unexpected attack from the allies' infantry are so great that every German soldier must be at his post in the narrow ditch which is his home and defense, sleeping as best he may with his rifle at his side, ready to spring up at any moment at the alarms which have come very frequently these cloudy, dark nights.

The nerves of the sentries are sorely tried. They mistake the most innocent sounds for French infantry creeping up. When a sentry, tricked by his nerves, fires his rifle he brings the whole advanced post up at doublequick and they find that there has been a false alarm. Such alarms come half a dozen times on some nights and they are very wearing on the troops.

The trench is most elaborate. It constitutes a whole subterranean town with main thoroughfares, side streets and telegraph wires running all along. There hundreds of thousands of men eat, and sleep, so well concealed that a war down in the hill in the front nothing is to be seen revealing the existence of the trenches except the hardly noticeable little bark of earth which is slightly raised above the level.

DESCRIBES HUGE BATTLE AS VIEWED FROM AN AEROPLANE

By Associated Press.

LONDON, Sept. 29, 3:35 a. m.—A letter from an officer of the royal flying corps under date of September 4th, describing a view from an aeroplane eastward of Paris says:

"Yesterday I was up for a reconnaissance over this huge battle. I bet it will be remembered as the biggest in history. It extends from Compiegne right away to Belfort.

"We flew at 5 o'clock in the evening. At that time British guns all opened fire together. From a height of 5000 feet I saw a sight which I hope it will never be my lot to see again. The woods and hills were literally cut to ribbons all along the south of Lavon. It was marvelous watching hundreds of shells bursting below, one to the right and to the left for miles and then to see the German guns replying.

"I fear there will be a lot more awful fighting before this show ends, but we are certain it will end with us on top, although we all had our doubts about three weeks ago during that awful retreat."

Writing again on September 19th, the officer says:

"The huge battle still is going on. Our machines after being out all day still bring in the same news. The Germans have got into one of the strongest positions possible. Fortunately reinforcements are arriving and are coming up on the German right at Soissons.

"I simply crave for cigarettes. They need to be carefully disguised, though, or they will be stolen en route."

The officer mentioned that the aeroplanes are shot and shelled by friend and foe every time they ascend. They hardly ever descend without bullet holes all over the planes, but fortunately, the writer says, the flying corps had lost only one pilot and passenger up to September 4th.

NO AUTONOMY FOR POLAND: BERLIN

German Government Reports Czar Has Revoked His Promise.

By Associated Press.

BERLIN, Sept. 29, via wireless to Sayville, L. I.—The German report on the sinking in the North Sea of the British cruisers Aboukir, Cressy and Hogue by the German submarine "U-9" declares that the entire engagement lasted one hour. The British cruisers did not fire a single shot. Contrary to English reports the "U-9" was alone in this engagement. The British destroyers chased the "U-9" until darkness fell, but were not successful in catching her.

News has been given out that the German cruiser Emden after sinking five British merchant steamers in the Gulf of Bengal, destroyed naval oil tank steamers at Madras.

Other information made public in Berlin declares that the commander-in-chief of the Russian forces (Grand Duke Nicholas), has revoked the government's promise of autonomy for Poland, giving as his reason the fact that the Polish riflemen fought on the Austrian side in the battle of Lemberg. It is asserted by the commander-in-chief that a Polish constitution was to be granted only on condition that all Poles were loyal. It is declared here, in this same connection, that Emperor Nicholas' manifesto to the Poles was worthless because it was given out without his signature.

Another story given out in Berlin is as follows:

HOSPITAL IS BURNED.

During a sortie from Antwerp Belgian troops occupied the village of Linden near Louvain and took possession also of a chateau belonging to the Dutch family of Van Blankenhagen, the members of which had at their own expense transformed their residence into a hospital. Forty wounded Belgians were being constantly nursed at the chateau, over which flew the Red Cross and the Dutch flags, by members of the Van Blankenhagen family. In spite of this fact the Belgians set fire to the village of Linden and burned down the chateau. This act was the result of their hatred of the Dutch, whom they wrongly accused of having permitted German troops to cross southern Luxemburg.

Other stories made public in Berlin relate that the French bombardment of Cattaro in Dalmatia has been absolutely without success. One large French cruiser is described as having been sunk, while two are said to have been seriously damaged.

Russians are described as having stolen the famous private library of works on art from the castle of Prince Oslinsky in Lemberg. It is said they carried their booty to Petrograd.

At a largely attended meeting in Berlin of men prominent in industry, commerce and agriculture a resolution was adopted setting forth that the recent German war loan had been highly successful and those present recorded their readiness to make any further sacrifices needed. They demanded also that the war be continued until such time as German successes were commensurate with the gigantic sacrifices entailed in securing a lasting peace for the future.

CONSULT OVER MARQUIS.

By Associated Press.

ROME, Sept. 29.—Dr. Pescarolo of the University of Turin, has been called to Rome to consult with Dr. Ettore Marchiafava regarding the condition of Marquis Antonio di San Giuliano, Italian minister of foreign affairs, who is affected with gouty dyspepsia, attended by grave symptoms. Although confined to his bed, the foreign minister is showing wonderful resistance, continuing to direct the affairs of his office and to receive the diplomats.

FORCES LOCK IN FINAL FURY

Terrific Bayonet Charge on the Aisne to Decide Issue.

By Associated Press.

LONDON, Sept. 29, 1:25 p. m.—The eighteenth day of the battle of the Aisne thus far has brought no decisive result, but all indications continue to point to an approaching end of the Homeric struggle. Hand to hand fighting now raging with such fury, is bound, it is generally held, to decide the issue.

Meanwhile the fog which the French official report yesterday announced had prevented operations in the Woevre district, covers metaphorically the rest of the long battle line.

All that the public is permitted to know from the allied side is that so far the British and French armies have held their grip on their positions and have consistently thrown back the masses of Germans who have been bravely and incessantly hurled on them in an effort to break through the human barrier.

In Berlin, it is asserted that there has been no change in the situation and the claim of the allies that the scales have turned slightly in their favor, is stoutly denied.

DEAD STREW FIELD.

The losses of the opposing armies in the last few days of the combat have been colossal. Even the official reports contain a gruesome picture of thousands of dead and wounded lying in the fire swept zone between the two armies, and every fresh assault is adding to the ghastly litter.

Gibes no longer are heard at the Zeppelin balloons, which now seem omnipresent. These unwelcome visitors created consternation yesterday at Bialystock, to the southwest of Grodno, some 60 miles inside of the Russian frontier. This dirigible apparently was more fortunate in getting away than was her sister ship, which was shot down in the neighborhood of Warsaw the day before.

It seems now to be officially admitted at Buda Pesth that the Russians have secured a good foothold on Hungarian soil, having crossed the frontier in the Unghvre district in considerable strength. In the plains in front of them the Russians will find their main obstacle to be the river Theiss, which is flanked by marshes. It is believed there are no forts on the plain but simple fortifications recently have been thrown up.

Cholera Breaks Out in Hungarian City

By Associated Press.

LONDON, Sept. 29.—A dispatch from Rome to the Exchange Telegraph Company says that a message from Budapest asserts that the minister of the interior has announced that 15 new cases of cholera were discovered in the city's military hospital Monday morning.

ADMITS CANADIAN FORCE EMBARKED FOR EUROPE

By Associated Press.

OTTAWA, Ont., Sept. 29.—That the Canadian troops have embarked for Europe was admitted here last night by the Duke of Connaught, governor general of Canada, at a rally at which the Ottawa campaign for the Canadian patriotic fund was initiated.

Addressing a great crowd, the duke said: "Recently I have had the pleasure several times to visit Valcartier, and also to be present at what is perhaps no longer a secret, the embarkation of the Canadian troops.

"Every creed and every nationality is represented in this undertaking. I believe that the efforts now being made throughout Canada to raise a patriotic fund would insure that not a singe one of the dependents of those who had gone to the front would suffer of want."

Locals Play Best Ball and Hit at the Opportune Time; Happy Wins Down South

After battling along for twelve innings that took over two hours to play, Oakland slipped the winning run over the plate at Freeman Park yesterday afternoon, and walked off the field with four runs to the Senators' three.

Even with little or no interest in the outcome it was a game full of action and the fans went to the corned beef and—well satisfied with the afternoon's entertainment.

It was three all in the last half of inning twelve when Issy Hoffman went to bat and Issy was soon out. Bert Coy, who has a great knack of starting something, poled a single to right field and moved along when O'Rourke and Lewis fozzled a play and allowed Zacher's hit to fall safe. With Wolverton out of the way Big John slammed one at Patsy that he sidestepped because it was too torrid and Coy romped with the winning run. Here's the score:

SEALS SHOW SOMETHING.

PORTLAND, Sept. 29.—In the twelfth inning of yesterday's struggle between Pitchers Miller and Steen, the Seals acquired two runs, and inasmuch as Lindsay's home run was the best the Beavers could do in their half, San Francisco won 2 to 1.

Miller and Steen both pitched masterful ball. The score board was innocent of figure until the twelfth inning. Not a semblance of a tally seeped over the dish until a couple of awry plays aided in the shunting in of two hostiles in that twelfth inning.

Lindsay's home run in the twelfth was a nice piece of work, but unfortunately for the McCredies there was nobody representing Portland on the paths, and the one run Lindsay registered was the only thing the locals could do.

BOOTS HELP HAPPICUS.

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 29. — In a drizzling rain that kept all but a few of the faithful fans away from the park, Vernon administered the third straight defeat to the Angels yesterday afternoon by a score of 3 to 1. Lefty Leverenz allowed Vernon only two hits, but in the eighth an error by the pitcher himself and a wild pitch gave the Villagers two runs and the game.

FRANKIE BURNS FAVORITE IN TONIGHT'S BOXING MATCH

Rival Lightweights Trained to the Hour and Will Weigh In This Afternoon; Preliminaries Look Fast

By BERT LOWRY.

FACTS ABOUT TONIGHT'S SHOW

This evening at Dreamland Rink, Steiner near Sutter, in San Francisco, before the Metropolitan Athletic Club.

Six-round bout at 8:30—Charley Rogers vs. Kid Wayne at 125 pounds.

Ten-round bout next in line—Jerry Murphy vs. Frankie Smith at 135 pounds.

Main event next in line—Frankie Burns of Oakland vs. Matty Baldwin of Boston at 135 pounds.

Frankie Burns and Matty Baldwin, who will furnish the main event at the Metropolitan Club's boxing show at Dreamland Rink over the bay this evening are both fit and ready for the call of the referee, who will be Toby Irwin.

Around the camp of Burns at Al White's place there was but little doing yesterday and it was the same over at Billy Shannon's place in San Rafael, where Matty Baldwin shaped up.

Both the principals have reached the allotted weight with little or no trouble and from each camp comes glowing reports of their condition and, of course, each with his camp followers and trainers are predicting a clean-cut victory this evening.

The fans are, of course, divided as to their opinions. On this side of the bay the followers of the mitt men have all their sentiment centered on Burns and this morning he is ruling a 10 to 9 favorite in the betting, which has been somewhat brisk.

Oakland fans, among them Dave Cockrell, are willing to lay their coin on Burns and, of course, want the best price they can get. Frankie's work around the training camp and his general good appearance has given his backers renewed hope and they look for him to win.

OVER BAY FANS LIKE MATTY.

On the other side of the bay the San Francisco fan leans toward the Boston scrapper. His work against Freddie Welsh impressed them to a marked degree and they will nibble at that short end good and strong when the Burns people really cut loose with the wagering.

San Francisco fans figure that Frankie can't break away from that crouching and clinching and can't see where he is going to get the best of Baldwin in the roughing. On the other hand, Frankie has said that he will adopt an entirely new style of fighting and that Matty will find him a willing and hard foe to reach.

Alex McLean, who handles Baldwin, says that the condition of his boy is so excellent that he can't see Burns in the battle at all and that Matty will finish the Oakland lad in short measure. "I have heard so much of Burns' hitting power," said McLean, "and how Dave Cockrell is going to wager the bank roll on his friend, that I would like to bet him $1000. Five hundred of this goes that Frankie don't knock Matty out and the other $500 goes that Matty is on his feet at the end of the twentieth round.

KYNE PROMISES GOOD TREATMENT.

Promoter Billy Kyne, who is handling the bout, states that he will be at Dreamland rink bright and early and that he will personally superintend the seating arrangements and that he will have special men assigned to see that there is no scalping of tickets and that every coupon holder gets the seat that the number calls for.

He also states that there will be plenty of bleacher seats and that the first pair of boxers will go in the ring and ready for action promptly at 8:30 p. m.

Bert McCollugh, with plenty of experience among the four-rounders, will be the referee of the first two bouts. The bout between Jerry Murphy and Frankie Smith is scheduled to go 10 rounds, while the bout between Charley Rogers and Kid Wayne, which will open the show, is scheduled to go six rounds.

HAS INSTRUCTED THE MEN.

Toby Irwin, the one-time lightweight from North Beach, who has been elected referee of the main event, visited Baldwin and Burns at their respective camps and discussed the rules.

He wants to have everything understood before the men enter the ring and there will be no long wrangling. They both understand what he will expect of them and both of them have promised to live up to his instructions.

There is one point which the referee brought out in his discussion with Baldwin which is well worth considering, that is, hitting with one arm free. Many boxers misconstrue this rule and hold on with one hand and slam away with the other, which is an infringement of this particular rule.

In order to avoid kicking on this particular point when the men are fighting tonight Irwin went over the ground thoroughly and illustrated just what he considered to be the proper method of hitting in the clinches, and when he came away from the camps both men thoroughly understood what he meant.

"Fighting in the clinches is all right," said Irwin, "as long as the men don't hold on. However, I don't expect any trouble on this score with two such experienced men as Baldwin and Burns. I merely brought up the subject so as to prevent any argument in the ring."

As long as the men are fighting Irwin says he will not touch them. He will allow them to mix it at all times and says that they must protect themselves in the breakaways at all times.

This style of boxing should suit both contestants, as neither one belongs to the will-o'-the-wisp school of boxers. It will also satisfy the fans, who don't fancy those clinching affairs where the men put in most of the time hanging on waiting for the referee to pull them apart.

THOMAS NOT AFTER FRANK KLAUS.

Joe Thomas took an hour off from his training yesterday to call at THE TRIBUNE with his manager, Rudy Bremer. Both want it understood that Frankie Klaus don't need to go looking for matches with Johnny Thompson or any one else. Thomas will accommodate Klaus in the roped arena, and his manager, Bremer, will place $1000 in the hands of any reputable sporting man that Klaus may name as a side bet that Thomas can trim the Pittsburger.

Said Joe: "I fought Klaus once before and gave him the trimming of his life and can do it again and have $1000 to back my opinion with."

LEMONVILLE NOT TO TOLERATE INSIDE BOUTS

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 29.—The latest efforts to revive limited-round prize fights in the city limits received its quietus today at the hands of the legislative committee of the council. That committee voted to deny the request of Tom McCarey, promoter and president of the Pacific Athletic Club, for an ordinance which would make possible the reopening of Naud Junction Pavilion, where many prize fights were formerly held.

BAT'S BROTHER WANTS TO BECOME AN M. D.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Sept. 29. — Charles Nelson, brother of Batiling Nelson, formerly lightweight champion pugilist, is a member of the freshman class at Yale this year. He is registered in the medical school.

Charles Nelson is himself a boxer of some repute, but he will accept no professional engagements during his Yale career.

JACK JOHNSON SAYS HE WILL RETIRE FROM ARENA

LONDON, Sept. 29.—Champion Jack Johnson has had enough of the fighting game. He is going to retire and spend the rest of his days in peace and luxury on the continent, and by so doing he hopes to establish a record among the former holders of the heavyweight title.

"After finishing my contracts in England I shall never put on the gloves in public again," says the black giant. "I intend to retire as heavy-weight champion of the world, and I won't act like Jeffries or Sullivan or Corbett acted, either. When I say I am through with the game forever I mean every word of it."

This announcement comes as a great surprise to the sporting world, for it was believed that Johnson intended to do a lot of boxing in Europe and then to take on several men in Australia next year.

Diamond Dust

Vernon gathered and McCredie gathered and today the two teams are nearly up sticks in the race for the rag. It was a torrid game up north and San Francisco had to go some to gather the long end of the score. Down south Happy was presented with two runs in the eighth inning and those two were enough to win the game.

* * *

Oakland gathered a 12 inning seance from the Quitters yesterday but it don't do the locals a whole lot of good, for it looks very much as if they are out of the pennant race now.

* * *

Martinoni got another chance to fire the pellet yesterday and he made good right off the jump. This elongated youngster looks like a find to the Oaks and will be valuable next season.

* * *

Imagine big Ben Hunt trying to tell anybody how to pitch a ball game. Yesterday he tried to tell the ump. that Martinoni wasn't keeping his foot on the rubber, but the ump. laughed and told Benny to watch the game from the bench.

* * *

Patterson, of the Oaks, had lots of fun with Pat O'Rourke during the game kidding the second sacker. Pat came right back with the wit and the fans enjoyed the sport a whole lot.

* * *

Danzig took a lay off and Thornton took up the burdens at first base and did it well. This boy Thornton is some player in all departments of the game and will fill in fine at first should Danzig make the east.

* * *

Wolverton had but two put out and one assist at third base yesterday, while Shinn didn't have a put out. O'Rourke was busy at short with 15 chances accepted and one booted and it was a costly boot.

* * *

Tiedemann lead the Oaks with the stick, getting three bingles out of six times up. The last one was most timely and sent the winning run over the rubber.

KEYES AND WHITNEY MATCHED.

VALLEJO, Sept. 29.—"Hock" Keyes of the local Monticello Athletic Club has been matched to meet Fred Whitney by the Sausalito Athletic Club the evening of October 10. The two boys will weigh in at 135 pounds. Keyes will train for the bout in this city with Jack Barros.

BERKELEY HIGH IS TOO SPEEDY FOR FRESHIES

Clever Playing by School Boys Brings Victory to Them by Score of 10-3.

Outplayed at every stage of the game describes the victory of the Berkeley high Rugby team over the California freshmen at Berkeley yesterday afternoon. The Berkeley school lads came out on top with a 10 to 3 score, but even at that the figures do not properly show the superiority of the school boys.

Whether in the scrum, on the lineout or at passing bouts, the Berkeley high team was always able to go the freshman team one better, and the spectacular passing rallies of the school team, with the long distance the ball was carried, showed the high school team to be one of the best on combination work in this part of the State.

The backs worked like a machine, and contrary to the usual showing of high school teams, every passing rally gained considerable ground for the team. The attack and defense of the team was of equal strength.

The Berkeley team started to attack the freshman line at the outset of the first half, but it was not long before the babies retaliated and brought the play to the high school territory. From the loose, Miller picked up the ball and went over for a try for the freshmen, no goal resulting.

A few minutes later Knowles of the school team miskicked right in front of his goal, and the ball was marked in a splendid position, but the kick went wide. The high team now livened up and carried the play back to the California territory. From a throwing Montgomery sent the ball to Austin, who, with a pretty feint pass, went right through the backs of the defense and scored between the posts. "Mickey" Forbes added the extra points, making the score Berkeley 5, California freshmen 3. Half time came a few minutes later.

In the second half the school team kept up a strong attack, long passing bouts being a common occurrence, which the babies managed to break up in time to avert a score. The score made by Rice about half way through this section was the outcome of a splendid combined piece of work between Montgomery, Knowles and Rice, the latter scoring and Mickey Forbes again adding the extra points, Berkeley 10, Freshmen 0. A few minutes later a sure score was thrown away by the school by passing off the ground when within three feet of the goal line and the freshmen were awarded a free kick. Full time came a few minutes later.

The California baby team was outclassed, and only in the early stages of the game did they show any form that was dangerous to the school team. McKim played one of the best games on the field and Canfield, the baby half back, also got in some good work, as did Bogardus. The whole squad, however, lacked combination, the individual playing of many men being good. The teams lined up as follows:

Berkeley High—S. Forbes, Hayes, fullback; Clopton, three-quarters; Rice, three-quarters; R. Forbes, three-quarters; Austin, five-eighths; Knowles, five-eighths; Montgomery, halfback; Brown, forwards; Baronidas, forwards; Van Herea, forwards; Vilas, forwards; Randall, forwards; White, forwards; White, forwards; Hardy, forwards; Slater, forwards.

Freshmen—Bogardus, fullback; Stroud, driver, three-quarters; McKim, three-quarters; Meyer, three-quarters; Beck, five-eighths; Peddycord, five-eighths; Canfield, halfback; Fernstermacher, forwards; Hoskins, forwards; Doyle, forwards; Crane, forwards; Miller, forwards; Holden, forwards; Parker, forwards; Hunt, forwards.

GOVERNOR DIX SAYS TO REPEAL FRAWLEY LAW

ALBANY, N. Y., Sept. 29. — Governor Dix will send to the legislature tomorrow a special message urging the prompt repeal of the Frawley law under which the State athletic commission was created to legalize boxing and other athletic exhibitions.

The Governor said last night that he signed the Frawley bill because he believed a proper regulation of sports under State supervision would tend to elevate. He now feels convinced that the law has not operated to accomplish that purpose.

BUYING ORDERS SEND UP PRICES

The Weakness of Early Board Rapidly Disposed of On the Street.

NEW YORK, Sept. 29.—The decided weakness of American in London caused some weakness at the opening of this morning's market, but large buying orders were quickly effective in sending up prices. U. S. Steel opened with a block of 12,000 shares at 60 to 60½ as compared with yesterday's close of 60½. The demand for this issue was keen and the price was rushed up to 61¼.

There was a wide opening in Union Pacific also, quotations on the first block ranging from 159¾ to 160, a maximum advance of ⅝.

The gain was soon increased a point. Reading also advanced a point. American Tobacco securities, which recently have been showing decided strength, weakened today, the preferred stock losing half and the 4 per cent bonds 1¾. Amalgamated Copper, Louisville and Nashville and Canadian Pacific lost a point.

The course of the stock market during the session was governed almost entirely by the activities of the short interest. When that faction engaged in further covering the market moved upward uninterruptedly, but as soon as renewed selling was resorted to the advance halted.

President Taft's Iowa speech apparently was ignored as a marked factor, as were also the uncertain conditions which prevailed abroad, especially in Berlin on the bourse. During the second hour prices fell moderately under selling for both accounts. Southern Pacific, which had not shown much sympathy with the advance in P. P., yielded substantially to a point below yesterday's closing. Toward midday the tone became steadier and speculations grew quiet. U. S. Rubber showed an improvement of 8⅝ and General Electric 3. Bonds were firm with notable strength in American Tobacco 6s, which touched 116. Wabash 4s rose over a point.

The market closed heavy. Speculation in the last hour was almost featureless. The market reflected the unfavorable foreign advices and lost further ground. Bear operators were encouraged by the turn of affairs to put out extensive short lines, but a good many of the active issues showed indications of support around yesterday's closing prices. National Biscuit dropped 4 points on a few transactions.

COUNTRY REAL ESTATE

Don't Wait For Tomorrow It Never Comes

Buy a farm on steam and electric road midway between Stockton and Sacramento.

The Central California Traction Co. owns this land and they want settlers to produce freight and passenger business for their road and will co-operate with you fully.

With good soil, good water and plenty of it, good transportation, good county roads, the best climate in the world and a railroad to back you up, you can't help making money.

This land will grow oranges, figs, olives, nuts, grapes, alfalfa, or anything that can be grown in the State, and it is also especially adapted for chicken raising and you can make a small fortune on a very few acres at this industry or by combining dairying and hograising on alfalfa.

Stop and think for a minute! Can you name a piece of good farm land that is not worth more money today than it was a year ago? Will the thousands of people who will settle in this state in the next five years cause land to decrease in value? Give this serious consideration!

Join our excursion from this office Sunday morning at 8 o'clock sharp and bring some money with you, for you will want some of this land when you see it, for we are selling it at $60 to $110 an acre, and will give you five years in which to pay for it.

Call, write or phone us for literature and other information.

Sonoma Valley Walnut Land

None better in the State. On Southern Pacific Railroad and fine macadam county road leading to the thrifty and beautiful city of Santa Rosa, which is only a few miles away.

The famous Vrooman grove of Franquette walnuts are growing in identically the same character of soil as we are offering you and only a short distance away.

If you are interested in walnut culture (if you are not you ought to be) and will go and see this orchard you will buy a few acres of our land and plant it to walnuts instead of paying four times as much for the same land planted to young walnuts.

Don't wait for tomorrow, it never comes.

Let us show you this land now. It will please you.

COMEDIAN COMES IN CLEVER COMEDY

Harry Corson Clarke and Company Appear in "His Absent Boy."

With the sun already set on the heyday of the ancient farceur, Harry Corson Clarke may thank the peeping stars that he is able to cheer up his audiences with stage creations that are becoming rare. That he may offer character exaggerations and receive no resentment in return was evidenced at the Macdonough theater, last night.

Clarke and Margaret Dale Owen opened an engagement in Rosenfeld's "His Absent Boy." The audience was not as large as it might have been, taking into consideration Clarke's popularity in the west, but it did its best to make up for lack of numbers in its volume of appreciation.

"His Absent Boy" isn't the funniest thing in the world, but it is a cheerful proposition which laughs in many of its lines, between some of them and sprinkled throughout the situations. There is plenty of opportunity in the three acts of the farce-comedy and Clarke and company take advantage of it.

The tale "His Absent Boy" relates is simple enough to allow of any number of complications. Mr. Penny having made the mistake of marrying a rich wife without first discovering her strong-mindedness, is forced to increase the limited allowance made for his financial comfort, by hook or crook. The latter being easier he invents a married past in which figure a child and a divorce. After the mythical latter has been granted, he informs his domestic ruler that he placed the mythical former in the hands of strangers and has found it necessary, of course, to supply him with funds.

The century marked note his wife agrees to give up monthly for the care for the absent son, he puts to his own use. Being an old dog and a sly one, said use is a good one. It is when his wife insists that reparation be made and the boy brought to their home that the trouble starts. Jack Mackaye, in love with Penny's daughter, Happens on the scene at about the time the absent boy is due.

Mrs. Penny knows not of the existence of Jack and complications ensue at a fearful rate.

Clarke as Penny paints a picture of a bewhiskered being that you see oftener on the stage than off, but a portrait well fitted to hang on the dramatic walls of "His Absent Boy." As Mrs. Penny, Margaret Dale Owen has much to do and does it. Which may be said of every member of the company without more than a small bit of exaggeration.

Being well acted and well staged the remaining two nights and matinee stay of Clarke and his supporters should see busy men in the box office and on the door.

JEAN THURNHERR AGAIN IN COURT

Arraigned in Los Angeles on Another Charge of Theft.

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 29. — Alice Taylor, the girl whose alleged kleptomania a surgical operation in Oakland several weeks ago failed to cure, was arraigned in the police court yesterday on a charge of second degree burglary.

The police said the girl confessed that she was the Jean Thurnherr who was arrested in Berkeley and sent to San Quentin for burglary in 1909 and that their records and Bertillon measurements proved it. That crime, they said, was committed only six months after her marriage to Albert Thurnherr, a young businessman of Berkeley.

Despite what the officers said they had learned of her alleged criminal past, they admitted that the girl remained much of a mystery to them. She still refused to discuss her early life, except to say that it was passed here and that her parentage was a riddle to her.

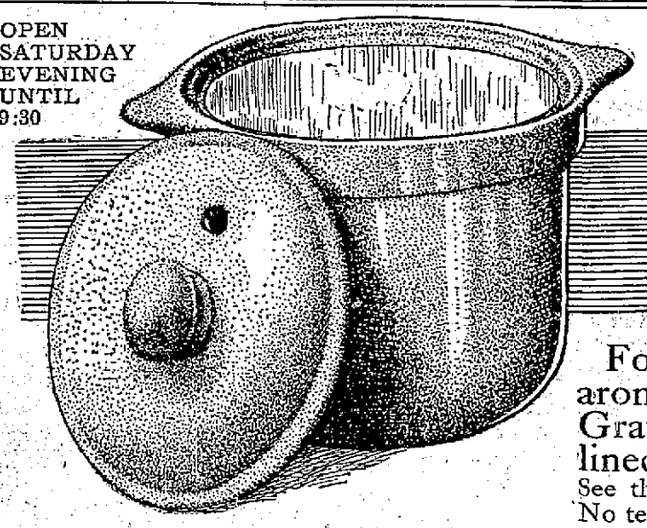

To the police she presented a strange problem. Pretty, apparently well educated and possessed of nearly faultless diction, she yet asserted to them, they said, that she had led a roving life since she was 14 years old.

Four of the eight years which have passed since she reached that age found her masquerading as a boy. She worked as a cowboy, "busting" broncos; served as a messenger and a delivery boy; was employed in candy stores and in canneries; taught dancing and rode brake-beams.

She declared that she never had been attracted especially to men, although she was married to a man whom she described as "clean." She had a philosophy of life all her own and said that she did not know what she might have been had the influences in her life been different.

CHENEY TO MAKE SAN JOAQUIN TRIP

Government Engineer Plans Inspection of River While it Is Low.

FRESNO, Sept. 29.—That Major Cheney, United States government engineer, will make a second trip up the San Joaquin river to study conditions of the stream in relation to the possibilities of navigation was learned today by the local navigation committee.

Cheney recently held a conference with Congressman Needham, and although he did not give any opinion as to the feasibility of opening the river to steamboat traffic, declared that he wished to make an inspection of the stream when the water is low. Cheney accompanied the steamer J. R. McDonald when it made its epoch-making trip to Fresno last summer. At that time the water was very high.

Congressman Needham will meet with the local navigation committee tomorrow afternoon. He has stated that he will prepare an article showing the importance of opening up the river for steamboat traffic to offset the arguments used by Miller and Lux against the navigation project.

INSTALL TRANSFORMERS.

LIVERMORE, Sept. 29.—The Livermore Water and Power Company has completed the installation of three 750-kilowatt transformers at the pit of the Grant Gravel company near here.

GUARD PRISONER FROM ANGRY MOB

Alanis Fears Lynching if the Friends of Victim Get at Him.

JUAREZ, Mex., Sept. 29.—The local jail in which a Magonista by the name of Alanis, charged with participation in the shooting of Major Francisco Miranda and his brother Margarito at Casas Grandes, is confined, was placed under heavy guard today owing to threats of lynching.

Alanis and another Magonista named Portillo were arrested at Casas Grandes charged with the crime, but Portillo escaped while the pair was being brought to the jail here.

Word came today that Margarito Miranda had died of his wounds and soon threats against Alanis were heard in the streets. Francisco Miranda's wounds, it is feared, will prove fatal. The latter is chief of the insurrecto police at Casas Grandes and the shooting occurred during a personal dispute.

AMATEUR AVIATOR HAS TWO MORE FALLS

SANTA CRUZ, Sept. 29.—Walter Edwards, the amateur aviator of San Francisco, who has been making practice flights here with unfortunate results to himself, made two more late yesterday, both times falling into the bay. Neither the machine nor the aviator were damaged.

BERKELEY BUILDING LAW INOPERATIVE

Decision of Judge Wells Frees Weitzel and Attacks Ordinance.

Holding that the building ordinance of Berkeley is unconstitutional because, primarily, it takes away from a property owner the full control of his property that he is entitled to, Superior Judge William S. Wells yesterday reversed the judgment in the case of the people against John Weitzel of the university city, in which Police Judge Edgar fined him $50 and sentenced him to serve as many days in the county jail for alleged violation of the ordinance.

Weitzel erected a dwelling on a lot he owned, located in Cedar street near Grove, and was arrested for building the structure within five feet of another frame building, as prohibited by the ordinance. It was shown at his trial that the dwelling proper was beyond the five-feet limit but that the porch to the main entrance on the side was within the "dead line."

Judge Wells' ruling practically renders inoperative all building regulations in Berkeley.

EARTHQUAKE KILLS AND DIVERTS BIG RIVER

FORT LIMON, Costa Rica, Sept. 29.—A telegram from La Union San Carlos, on the Pacific coast of the republic, received here yesterday, tells of an earthquake that destroyed many buildings in Los Canos de Aguas Zarcas.

Four persons were killed and several others fatally injured.

The church, a structure said to be 200 years old, was destroyed, one of the victims being an aged Spanish woman in charge of the building.

The most remarkable feature of the earthquake was the drying up of the Cano Grande river. The stream, which in places is nearly 200 yards across, was diverted from its course for more than 12 hours.

CHARTER BILL IS PASSED FOR N. Y.

"Crazy Quilt" Now Goes to the Senate, Where Fate Will Be Decided.

ALBANY, N. Y., Sept. 29.—The New York City charter bill was passed by the lower house of the State Legislature late Wednesday night. Various drafts of the proposed new charter for the greater city have been pending in the Legislature for five years, and the State has spent nearly $200,000 in perfecting the measure. Notwithstanding this, opponents of the bill declare it to be a "crazy quilt," and the "most iniquitous thing ever proposed." Its fate now rests with the Senate, which is expected to take it up at once. Its supporters express confidence that the Senate will pass it.

The bill passed the lower house without a vote to spare and there was some lively skirmishing on the part of the leaders before the requisite number of ballots was secured.

RESTRAINED FROM 'PHONING HUBBY

Chicago Woman's Temper Is Blamed by Spouse for Marital Mix-up.

CHICAGO, Sept. 29.—Mrs. Alvina Brasch Burns Mueller was ordered to refrain from calling her husband, Juan Mueller, on the telephone, or disturbing him in any way at the hotel of which he is steward, in a restraining order entered by Judge Theodore Bretano in the Superior Court.

Mueller alleged that the telephone calls of his wife were so frequent that they interfered with his duties of greeting guests and supervising the work of his subordinates. His wife refused to cease telephoning, so Mueller obtained a restraining order. Mueller also filed suit for divorce. He alleged his wife possesses a violent temper.

ADVERTISE YOUR BUSINESS ON BUILDINGS OF POOR

CHICAGO, Sept. 29.—A national campaign is planned by Mrs. S. Jones, president of the Race Betterment League, to procure the reconstruction of billboards into houses for the poor. Her plan is to persuade advertising concerns and large advertisers to utilize the lumber of billboards for the construction of homes.

The houses thus constructed would have the display of the firm building it on the walls and roofs. Mrs. Jones says she has made a study of the advertising situation and has concluded that just as much publicity would be afforded firms by the advertising homes as by the large display boards, which not only spoil views, but consume millions of feet of lumber that might just as well be used for housing poor folks.

INVESTIGATE VIOLATION OF CHILD LABOR LAW

SANTA BARBARA, Sept. 29.—Charges that the walnut growers of the Santa Barbara district are violating the child-labor and compulsory education laws of the state by taking hundreds of children out of the schools, are being investigated by representatives of the state bureau of labor statistics.

The schools at Goleta, a town near here, were closed so that the children could go into the orchards and pick walnuts. Otto Kramer, probation officer, has been detailed to investigate. He will report his findings to the labor bureau in Sacramento.

DINING CAR WAITER COMMITS SUICIDE

Mack Byrd, a negro dining car waiter, was found dead in his room at 1669 Tenth street by the landlady of the place, Mrs. Lucile Hall, yesterday, having committed suicide by taking gas during the night. Despondency from lack of work is given as the reason for the suicide. Byrd was 30 years of age and a native of Iowa.

SURELY SETTLES UPSET STOMACHS

Indigestion, Gas, Sourness or Dyspepsia Vanish in Five Minutes.

Every year regularly more than a million stomach sufferers in the United States, England and Canada take Pape's Diapepsin, and realize not only immediate, but lasting relief.

This harmless preparation will digest anything you eat and overcome a sour, gassy or out-of-order stomach five minutes afterwards.

If your meals don't fit comfortably, or what you eat lies like a lump of lead in your stomach, or if you have heartburn, that is a sign of Indigestion.

Get from your Pharmacist a 50-cent case of Pape's Diapepsin and take a dose just as soon as you can. There will be no sour rising, no belching of undigested food mixed with acid, no stomach gas or heartburn, fullness or heavy feeling in the stomach, Nausea, Debilitating Headaches, Dizziness or Intestinal griping. This will all go, and, besides, there will be no sour food left over in the stomach to poison your breath with nauseous odors.

Pape's Diapepsin is a certain cure for out-of-order stomachs because it takes hold of your food and digests it just the same as if your stomach wasn't there.

Relief in five minutes from all stomach misery, is waiting for you at any drug store.

RELATIVES RALLY TO SLAYER'S SIDE

Mrs. Patterson's Sister Will Take Her Word Against That of Others.

CHICAGO, Sept. 29.—Mrs. Fred P. Farnham, sister of Gertrude Gibson Patterson, who shot and killed her husband at Montclair, a suburb of Denver, announced that the Chicago relatives of the accused woman would stand by her in her trouble.

"I dont believe," said Mrs. Farnham, who lives here, "that Gertie was partly to blame even. We never approved of her friendship for Emil W. Strouss, the millionaire clothing merchant, and we did all we could to break it up.

"But, as between Patterson and Gertie, we take Gertie's side. I know, and have known ever since they were married, that Patterson never made the proper sort of effort to support his wife. She told me that he was always after her for money and he insisted that she get it from Strouss."

REYES SAILS FOR HAVANA.

MEXICO CITY, Sept. 29.—General Bernardo Reyes sailed from Vera Cruz late yesterday on the steamer Monterey for Havana.

They are stationary and cannot be removed. They restore the natural lines of the face. Each tooth is as firm as your natural teeth were.

TEETH WITHOUT PLATES

If you have only a few teeth left in either jaw, don't have them extracted until you have consulted us and investigated our methods thoroughly. Examination and advice free.

No Charge for Extracting when teeth are ordered. A written guarantee for 20 years with all work. REGISTERED GRADUATE DENTISTS only. Lady attendant. Credit if desired. Open every evening until 8; Sundays 10 to 1.
